SHORT CROP OF TOMATOES

But Cannery Contract for Supply at 25 Cents—Bad for Fruit and Meat.
ST. CATHARINES, April 29—This has been a very disappointing month to fruit-growers of the Niagara Peninsula. Owing to the remarkably cold weather in April, fruit trees, vines, etc., are not in as good condition today as they were a month ago, when prospects seemed to be of the very brightest. The fruit trees, owing to the unseasonable weather, are very backward in growth, though apparently not otherwise harmed; the growers say, and what around here looks decidedly bad. The cold nights during the past month are what killed the wheat, for in the day time the weather was comparatively mild, while at night there was heavy frost. "Hundreds of acres of wheat will be plowed up around here," said a prominent grower to your correspondent yesterday. "Then the weather has been so dry of late that grass is decidedly backward, and the farmers are seriously handicapped by lack of pasture for their cattle. This has caused butter prices to be phenomenally high for this time of year."

SHORT TOMATO CROP.
 "Tomato-growers predict that the tomato crop will be short this year, too, on account of the cold weather. It is the practice of the tomato-growers to set out the seeds in hotbeds, relying on the warm April sun to nurture the little plants. This April there has been little or no sunshine with the result that thousands of the little plants died in the hotbeds, and when the plants are set out about the middle of May there will be considerable shortage of the usual acreage."
 The canning factories have again contracted for their season's supply of tomatoes at 25 cents a bushel, the attempt of the growers to raise the price to 30 cents having met with defeat.

THEATRES
THE LYCEUM COMPANY SCORES ANOTHER HIT
 The Lyceum Stock Company opened the final week of their present engagement here at the Opera House last night, with a good production of Aristocracy. There was a large audience present and the play met with the approval of all. Of course a first night production can hardly be expected to run as smoothly or with the same degree of finish as later productions, but the company did very good work last night and beyond a little hesitancy at times, the performance was up to the usual high standard.

The piece was splendidly staged, and set and the scenic effects were well worked out.
 Mr. Powell, in the role of Jefferson Stockton, had no light task, when it is remembered that St. John theatre goers have seen A. H. Stewart in this role with Jessie Donnell as Diana, his wife. Mr. Powell acquitted himself well, and the audience was satisfied with his work. Miss Hicks was seen to advantage as Diana, her work in act three being particularly good.

Mr. Jelenko was, as always, clever, and his conception of the role of Prince Emil left nothing to be desired. Messrs. Stepling and Hockey did excellent character work as the Marquis de Normandale and the Duc de Vigny-Volante. Mr. Butler, Mr. Baumann, Mr. Dawson and Mr. Aiken were adequate in supporting roles.
 Miss Arno, a new member of the company, made her debut as Virginia, and her work showed much ability.
 Miss Atkinson was bright, pretty and vivacious as "Tenny," while Miss Lu had a minor role as Mrs. Laurance.
 Aristocracy is an excellent society drama, and in the hands of the Lyceum Company it receives most artistic treatment. It will be presented again this and tomorrow evening and at the Wednesday matinee.

KIRK BROWN NEXT WEEK
 Theatre goers will be pleased to hear that Kirk Brown, supported by an exceptionally strong and well-balanced company, will open three weeks of engagement at the Opera House on Monday evening next in the Christian.

Last year Kirk Brown scored the success of the season and this season's company is said to be even stronger than the splendid one he brought us last year, as he used his repertoire will be composed of high-class attractions, including The Christian, Othello, The Cherry Pickers, Under the Red Robe, The Man Who Dared, A Gentleman of France, The Eternal City, Sarah Bernhardt's version of Camille, in English, David Garrick and others.

THE NICKEL HAS A FIRST CLASS SHOW
 The new bill at the Nickel deck packed houses yesterday, and in the early part of the evening even standing room was at a premium. The programme is considerably better than that of last week, which was thought to have been one of the best that had been offered since the opening of the moving picture and illustrated show, and embraces:

THE DEVIL'S AUCTION
 Chas. H. Yale takes pleasure in sending out his "Eveasting Devil's Auction" company, and this year the introduction of a number of European specialties is particularly pleasing to the ladies and children.
 This is a strong feature of this production, and to this point have been engaged Les Quatre Therapistes, a quartette of marvelous gymnasts, and Dogoto and Glock, musical grotesques.
 The scenery, mechanical, transformation and trick changes, have always been one of the "Devil's Auction's" strongest features, a fact fully appreciated by its management and no sign of this in the 25th edition.
 The "Devil's Auction" will be at the Opera House May 2, for one night.

THE THAW-WHITE PICTURES
 The Thaw-White tragedy pictures will be shown for the last time in St. John in St. Andrew's Rink, Tuesday and Wednesday and to every body a chance to see the above we have reduced the admission. Having had a lot of enquiries from ladies who are desirous of seeing the tragedy pictures, we will give a special matinee at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon for ladies, showing the above pictures. The admission will be small.

A petition protesting against the removal of the city's asphalt plant to the premises occupied by the board of works department in Carmarthen street has been largely signed during the last few days. It is probable it will be submitted to the board of works at the monthly meeting this evening.

LIFE'S MONOTONE
 Life is no monotone to him Who lives; Who waits not to receive But gives; Who thinks, who acts That he may make Some portion of the world To take; To work, not for oneself Alone; Is something more Than monotone. —New York Sun.

 "No," replied he, blantly, "I wish you to promise not to."
