ICE RACING

Match Race Today

Fredericton Gleaner: Fredericton horsemen are looking forward to some good sport on the speedway on the river on Thursday afternoon, when an effort will be made to pull off some informal races in addition to a match race, which has been arranged. Jack Sullivan has matched Echo Todd against Ray Burpee's black pacer. Danger, the latter being backed by and to be driven by Peter Watson, a St. Mary's reinsman. They are to meet in best three in five heats, commencing at 2.30 o'clock, and if the rest of the horsemen turn up there will probably be some more sport.

GOLF

Neither Vardon nor Ray

Atlantic City, Feb. 24.—Neither Edward Ray nor Harry Vardon will come to the United States this year unless by chance the war terminates by June 1, according to the definite announcement of Alex Findlay of Philadelphia at the Seaview Golf Club. Findlay managed the two foreign golf stars on their trip two years ago and has since been in communication with them. Overtures were made this year, but both expressed themselves as set against the trip with the present conditions at home.

In their letters both Vardon and Ray say that this seems to be the feeling of all the golfers abroad. George Duncan probably will come over. Wilfred E. Reid, who has just closed his season at Beniclad Downs, London, England, sailed on the Baltic last Wednesday for America. He will be the guest of Louis Teller at Canoe Brook, N. J., up until the time of his engagement at the Seaview Golf Club.

John J. McDermott appears on the rapid road to recovery. McDermott has been confined to a private residence in Philadelphia, suffering from nervous breakdown since early December. At one time little hope was expressed, but now his condition seems improved.

News of the Boxers

Tom McMahon, a Pittsburgh heavy-weight, who fought Willard last March, cannot see where Willard has a chance against Johnson.

From reports from Havana it looks as if a big Jan. 12 fight between the fighters and managers is going on in that city. It will be no surprise if the Cuban government makes the American invaders pack their luggage and quit the island.

Jack Curley, one of the promoters of the Johnson and Willard fight, says he has a $40,000 advance sale. There have been good advance sales before when the fighters themselves have proved financial failures.

Battling Nelson still continues to "pun" the boxers who do not throw science to the winds and scrap as he did. These boxers who use their brains and

Had Heart Trouble

Weighted 87 Lbs.
Now Weighs 138 Lbs.

Miss Beatrice Loughheed, Staples, Ont., writes: "I feel it my duty to tell you what Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have done for me. I had heart trouble for quite a few years. I doctored for it, and altogether my bill amounted to $400, and still no cure. One day when very sick I was lying on a couch close to where some almanacs were hanging. I took one down, and was reading about what Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills cured, and thought I would try them. I got six boxes to start with; have only taken three boxes and I never felt so well in my life as I do now. I only weighed 87 pounds when I started to take them, and now I weigh 138 pounds. I hope all poor sufferers will be benefited by them as I have been."

Wherever there is any weakness of the heart, Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will strengthen it and build up a strong healthy system.

Price, 50 cents per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price, by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

As well as their hands are satisfied that the followers of the game give them more credit for boxing the way they do than they would if the plan Nelson adopted was followed. They certainly last longer in the game than Nelson.

BASEBALL

Ganzel Will Manage Rochester

Rochester, N. Y., Feb. 24.—John H. Ganzel today came to terms with the owners of the Rochester International League Club and will manage the team for the coming season.

"Doc" Johnson With Pirates

Pittsburg, Pa., 22.—The Pittsburgh National League Baseball Club has today that it had purchased W. G. ("Doc") Johnson, first baseman, from the Cleveland American League team. The purchase was for cash. Johnson has accepted terms and will sign a Pirate contract.

Druce Wants to Join Giants

Marlin, Tex., Feb. 23.—Louis Druce, who at one time gave promise of developing into a Mathewson, may again be a member of the Giants' pitching staff if he can induce Manager McGraw to give him another trial.

Druce has arrived at the Giant headquarters. He said he had regained his old pitching form, and expressed confidence in his ability to "come back" several years ago, when with McGraw Druce had absolute control.

"Ladaway" and Christy Mathewson predicted a brilliant career for him. Druce lost his effectiveness, being severely shaken up in a collision in the New York subway. The former Giant will remain here until McGraw arrives.

Caldwell At Hot Springs

Hot Springs, Ark., Feb. 23.—Ray Caldwell, heavier by a dozen pounds than when in Hot Springs last February, and accompanied by his wife, reported to Manager "Doc" Kelley, in charge of the squad of Highlanders, this afternoon. Caldwell says he is back with the Highlanders for all time so well has been treated by the new owners. Ray is also strong, for Bill Donovan. He says the Federal League has got back whatever money it advanced him.

A lot of old-timers of the Army and Navy Club in Washington were swapping stories.

"The St. Haskins," says a retired brigadier general, "decided to enlist. He burned with a desire to serve his country. So he applied at a recruiting office, and was duly plucked and prodded, trotted up and down, jumped over chairs and tables, and so forth.

"Then came the questions. All manner of them were fired at him, and he answered most of them satisfactorily. Then came the stern inquiry:

"Have you ever served a jail sentence?"

"No, sir," stammered St. Haskins, "but," he added hastily, "I'd be willing to serve a short one if it's necessary."

His Line of Business.

"No," exclaimed the eloquent orator at the meeting of the Society for the Suppression of Other People's Foul Habits, "indeed, at my establishment we will not employ a man who smokes at his work."

As the hum of approval went on a curious person in the rear of the hall arose and inquired:

"Well, I ask what line of business you follow, sir?"

"Well," was the slightly embarrassed reply, "I'm in a gunpowder magazine."

CHATHAM WINS FROM ST. JOHN

One of The Best Games Seen in This City For Some Time

One of the best hockey games witnessed in this city for some time took place in the Queens rink last night between the St. John's and the Chatham teams.

The latter won, 6 to 3, after three keenly contested periods. St. John but they did so in a manner which reflected credit on them.

The first period ended without a score. Neither team demonstrated much ability during that time as they seemed to be endeavoring to ascertain the style of each other's play. The margin, however, was a feature of the game.

The second period saw something unexpected. Both teams went into the rink with a determination to get a lead and as a result five goals were netted, Chatham securing three and St. John's two.

Both teams showed aggressiveness and flashes of speed which called forth the plaudits of their admirers. Rough fighting was a feature and many penalties resulted. An occasional jab with a stick or elbow, body checking, and tripping made up the array of prohibited tactics, and although the offenders were punished, it made the game interesting from the spectators' view.

The third period was all in favor of the visitors, who secured three more goals to the locals' one. The home boys strove to tally, but their efforts were in vain as the visitors outskated them and checked in a manner which completely frustrated their attempts. Hard feeling was apparent for some time during the last period and body checking was much in evidence. The locals put up a good fight and before time was called managed to send the puck into the net for the third and last score.

While many penalties were handed out they were for only minor offences and the game, although at times rough, was clean. Some of the soldiers were present and rooted hard for the visitors.

After the Game.

St. John lost none of their friends because of their defeat last night. The ice was in no condition for a fast game and the locals did better than was expected from them.

The visitors were heavier than the St. John's and the soft ice gave them the advantage.

The routers kept up a continual howl for combination. If they ever played on ice covered with slush they would perhaps better realize that combination work is almost impossible.

The locals strove desperately to use combination or anything which would scotch them to tally, but their efforts were fruitless.

Shaford put up a stellar exhibition at left wing. He is a clever and plucky player and also able to rough it when it is necessary. He does not look very big, but once when he fell the shock to the foundations seemed to shake the building.

Jim McGowan played well in centre. He still retains his old habit of kicking the puck. The life in the barracks must be agreeing with him judging from his grin. He is so large that even his friends have to inquire who he is.

Brad Gilbert was much in evidence with his spectacular rushes. He made some brilliant attempts to score, but met with strong opposition.

Tom Gilbert has some kind of an option on the side boards. If they could retaliate they would give him many a thump for the marks he has put into them with the puck this year.

Riggs was sent in during the last period apparently with instructions to score if it was over the dead bodies of his opponents, for he certainly strove hard to eliminate some of them by shoving them through the side of the rink. As a result he helped keep the penalty bench warm.

The new goal keeper Reid did well during the first period, but was not there when the visitors struck their stride. He seems to have ability and should make good with proper coaching.

Keen regret is expressed for the promoters of the match. They certainly deserved better support. The St. John fans should come forward and keep the sport alive and not help kill it by their absence. The game was deserving of a packed house.

Geneva, Feb. 23.—All along the Swiss-Italian frontier, touching the Tyrol and even as far as the Adriatic, German and Austrian troops have been concentrating for several days. They are chiefly engineers and artillery, who have placed their guns in the best positions, some of them on the Alpine passes, and have long ridges of trenches and undermined the principal routes. Trieste and Fiume have become dangerous even for the civilian inhabitants of the valley, who have been killed by the sudden explosion of mines.

The town on the lonely three-cornered frontier in the Alps where the three countries meet at a height of 5,000 to 6,000 feet, Swiss, Italian and Austrian sentries now frequently fraternize in the deep snow. The Swiss sentry is generally the interpreter. The Austrian troops from the other end of his country does not know why he is fighting and the Italian sentry continually complains of the cold. They have different uniforms and ideas, and different languages and countries, but on one subject the Alpine sentries are in perfect accord, they want to return home as soon as possible.

NOT KEEN FOR LIVE STORIES

"Newspapers ain't as keen for live sporting stories as they used to be," said a dejected looking young man who hung around the portals of the office of a widely circulated publication.

"What makes you think so?" inquired an acquaintance who loitered near.

"I don't think so, I know it. I went upstairs a few minutes ago and said: 'Well, mister, I've walked a mile, run a mile, rowed a mile, swam a mile and cycled a mile, and I've just finished the whole thing in one hour and six minutes, and what do you suppose he said to that?'

"I dunno, wait?"

"I said: 'Sit down, you must be tired.'"

Pat was hard at work in the Baldwin Locomotive Works when the foreman on his rounds stopped and eyed him sternly.

"Did you not receive a letter from me, sayin' yes was fored?" he demanded.

"I received a letter," answered Pat calmly. "Th' insord says Oi was fored, but th' outside says 'Return in 5 days to Baldwin', so Oi'm back."

LESS MEAT IF BACK AND KIDNEYS HURT

Take a Glass of Salts to Flush Kidneys if Bladder Bothers You

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sort of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headache, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with bicarbonate and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent, little-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clear, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

Essential To Keep Hours Well in Mind

The World's Unquestioned Film Masterpiece!

Picturing The Powerful and Reverent Novel by Henry Sienkiewicz.

"QUO VADIS"

Eight Reels of Surpassing Pictorial, Dramatic and Spectacular Merit.

PAST PROGRAMME ACHIEVEMENTS in film productions will surely be eclipsed by "Quo Vadis," the most stupendous work of the kind ever attempted, excepting "Cabiria," now showing in big centres. It is a glorious series of living photographs consuming two hours in the showing and depicting life in the ancient city of Rome when despotic Nero was at the height of his cruelty and folly. It is also the period in history when the Apostle Paul labored in Rome and side-lights thrown upon Holy Writ by this historical novel—reverent and respectful at all times—are deeply impressive. There are eight reels in the production. A description of them really belittles language. We see the origin of the nobility, the grandeur and debauchery of Nero's court; the tragic life of the Christian maiden Lygia, whose faithful slave Ursus—a giant in stature and strength—plays such an important role in the arena scenes. Paul and Peter, Apostles of Christ, are impetuously with vivid truth, the burning of Rome is a marvel of stagecraft and dramatic climax, while the piteous scenes in the arena where Christians are thrown to the wild beasts it is impossible to describe. You may call "Quo Vadis" entertainment, if you like, but we look upon it as a powerful lesson—a sermon—on a crucial period in the history of the Christian Church.
