The death of Edmund D. MacGrath occurred yesterday at his residence, 28 Paradise Row. He has been in poor health for several years, but had improved lately and his death came as a shock to his friends.

For seventeen years Mr. MacGrath conducted the restaurant in the Union Depot and while there made many friends among the traveling public while adding to the great number of his friends among the citizens generally. He was a man of generous disposition and quietly befriended many persons who would have suffered but for his bounty.

He is survived by one brother, John, of this city, and two sisters, Mrs. Catherine Dutton of Tusculum, Pa., and Mrs. Alice Gallagher who made her home with him.

The funeral will take place on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from his late residence.

The death of George Wilson occurred on Saturday at the age of seventy-three years. He is survived by one son, A. A. Wilson, K. C. high sheriff of St. John. The funeral took place this afternoon from Powers undertaking rooms, Princess street.

AUSTRIAN PLANS ARE REVEALED

Prisoners Had Hand-books On Invasion of Italy

COMMENT IN BERLIN

The Socialist Manifesto Declaring For Peace Under Certain Conditions—Dutch Papers Incensed at Orders Which They Blame on Germans

Brescia, Italy, June 27.—Hand-books giving instructions on how to invade Italy through the valley of the River Po, thus reaching Verona, Mantua and Ferrara, cutting off Venice from the remainder of the kingdom, have been found in the possession of Austrian officers who have been made prisoners.

These booklets apparently were compiled by an officer of the Austrian general staff.

Berlin Comment.

Berlin, June 28.—(By wireless to Sayville).—Included in the news items given out today by the Overseas News Agency, are the following:

"The French government, for sanitary reasons, has removed from West Africa to North Africa, the German civil prisoners who have been in custody in Dahomey. German newspapers express the opinion that this move is a result of the recent announcement of retaliatory measures on French prisoners."

"The Krieg Zeitung, in an editorial article, expresses the desire to continue negotiations with the United States, with the idea of reaching an understanding in the matter of submarine boats which shall not endanger the vital interests of Germany's maritime warfare, either at the present or in the future."

So far as the newspapers discuss the Socialist manifesto declaring for peace, under certain conditions, they are unanimous in condemning it. The Vossische Zeitung pronounces it incomprehensible and devoid of all logic. It asserts that even the Socialist press admits the impossibility of leaving wholly unchanged the territorial status of the countries involved.

The Kreuz Zeitung thinks it would constitute a grave danger to a country fighting for its very existence to permit the manifesto to stand uncontradicted. The statement that the working classes are opposed to the annexation proposal is denied. The paper asserts that the suggestion that Germany make peace overtures is to ask Germany to assume the role of a conquered country and that this demand tends to weaken Germany by creating the impression that a considerable part of the people are tired of war, which is false.

The Tages Zeitung regards the publication of the manifesto as regrettable, and asserts that it should have been addressed to the governments of countries fighting Germany.

An interesting fact in connection with the manifesto is that it was written on July 7 but was withheld until now because of Italy's entrance into the war.

See Germans Behind This.

The Hague, June 27, via London.—Dutch newspapers today expressed considerable annoyance concerning a new order issued by the Netherlands government prohibiting Dutch reporters from mentioning within 24 hours the passage of Zeppelin dirigible balloons in the neighborhood of Holland territory. This order, as in the case of previous similar ones, such as that removing all Belgian refugees from the province of Zeeland, ostensibly to prevent smuggling, and another forbidding Dutch subjects to approach within fifty yards of the frontier, is attributed by the newspapers to activities of the German legation at the Dutch capital.

The journals argue that the orders place a serious restriction on Dutch liberties.

Women Call for Peace.

London, June 27, 10:50 p.m.—Women's meetings held in Stockholm and throughout Sweden today unanimously adopted the peace resolutions passed at the recent International Congress of Women at The Hague, according to the Stockholm correspondent of Reuters Telegram Company.

Similar meetings were held in Denmark and Norway.

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS.

When the blood becomes impure the first symptoms which manifest themselves are a breaking out of the various forms of skin trouble such as boils, pimples, abscesses, ulcers, etc., and the only treatment you can use is some sort of a good blood cleansing remedy which will put the blood into a perfect condition, and thus eliminate all the different poisons from the system which cause these different eruptions to occur.

The best blood cleansing remedy on the market to-day is Burdock Blood Bitters. All we ask you to try it and be convinced. Thousands have used it during the past forty years, and have nothing but praise for its curative powers.

Mrs. John Fitzgerald, Plantagenet, Ont., writes: "I am one woman who cannot speak too highly of Burdock Blood Bitters. I was covered with boils, and could not get rid of them. I was advised by a friend to try B.B.B. which I did, and I can truthfully say that it completely cured me. I have never had a sign of a boil since."

See that our name appears on both the label and wrapper as there are many imitations placed on the market which are said to be "just as good."

HER CALL ON "LONELY" SOLDIER IN HOSPITAL GAVE HIM BAD TIME

Amusing Letter From Maine Man Who Has Been Fighting With the Canadians

The following letter has been received Saturday by Mrs. A. E. Goodrich of Hallowell, from her son Frank, who is in the Warnecliffe Hospital, Sheffield, England, Sunday, June 6, 1915.

"My Dear Mother:—It seems I am always writing letters, these days I never getting any. I must grumble, it's not your fault any way. The mail has just come in the ward and has been distributed and as usual there is nothing for 'Yours truly.'"

"Yesterday afternoon was 'stiffing day' and the ward was crowded with visitors and relatives of the various cases here. I was stretched out on my bed reading when the nurse brought in a visitor for Mr. Goodrich. I was much mystified until she disclosed the fact that she was hunting for 'lonely soldiers' and on account of my being a Canadian soldier my name was brought to her attention and she thought I would like to have some one to talk to. Of course I thanked her as cordially as I could under the circumstances, but I was anything but pleased. She accepted my invitation to be seated and when she put a check to her finger she asked me if there were any more lonely soldiers in the ward. I was beyond speech at this time but weakly clutched at my chance I glanced around and saw a man a few beds away from me who was alone, so I was able to point at him. Bidding me good-bye and promising to come again, she went over to him while I grabbed my hat, fled down the stairs and out onto the grounds where I gradually recovered. Cowardly, wasn't it?"

"When I returned she was gone and the poor devil I showed her onto wanted to assassinate me. He got the same line that I did, even the promise to return but we went to the head nurse and vowed to spill gore if she admitted any more like the one. It's worse than fighting Germans."

"I am in good shape and expect to get my 'tickel' very soon."

"Your loving son,"

"FRANK."

HIS FIRST PIECE OF CAKE SINCE FEBRUARY

Gibson Soldier Also Tells of Some One Taking Treat of His Cigarettes

Private Healey C. Forbes, of No. 1 Field Ambulance Corps, has written an interesting letter to his mother, Mrs. Robert Forbes of Gibson.

"I received your parcel this week. The shirt was certainly great and the cigarettes are a treat. I only got four as someone else helped themselves before they reached me. You never want to mark anything cigarettes; mark them soap or something of that kind. That cake was certainly great; it was the first I had to eat since February."

"I suppose you have heard that we lost heavily again. I don't think the war will be over by this time next year. In the recent fighting our fellows captured a German colonel. He says the Indians are 'one devil' and the Canadians sixteen devils. When our fellows charge you can hear them hollering for two miles."

The wedding of T. Harold Fairweather to Miss Helen Sophia, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. IVORY SOAP

Procter & Gamble

GIVE Ivory Soap a hard test. Try it for something for which you hesitate to use other soaps—for bathing an irritated skin, for washing delicate lace or dainty, colored materials, for cleaning a priceless piece of furniture or for nursery use.

You will find that Ivory Soap does not injure—that it does nothing but cleanse—that it is safe for any purpose.

Ivory Soap will not harm anything that water itself cannot harm. Unlike most soaps, it does not contain free alkali, and the quality of its materials is the best, no less.

Ivory Soap is mild, white, pure, high grade soap in the strictest sense. The work it has done for thirty-six years proves it.
