LOCAL NEWS

ENGAGEMENT.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stackhouse of East St. John, announce the engagement of their daughter, Margaret M., to Paul Hasmusson of this city, the marriage to take place in July.

C. P. R. CASE.

Hugh Rushton was arrested in McAdam on June 20 by T. O. Leggett, a member of the C. P. R. investigating department, charged with unlawfully operating a velocipede. He was taken before Magistrate Cropley and fined $20 and costs.

A LIQUOR CASE.

Hyman Taxer was arrested last night by Liquor Inspectors Henderson and Thompson at the entrance to his 50 Pond street. It is alleged that he was carrying a bottle of gin on his person and liquor inspectors say that quite a tussle ensued before they succeeded in getting the evidence. The case was to come before the court this afternoon.

CAN YOU BEAT IT?

There are some very bright pupils in our public schools. The accuracy with which some of them interpret cabalistic letters is positively uncanny, and suggests an oriental cast of mind. For example: One of the questions propounded to a class in St. John this week was to this effect:

"What do the letters M. L. A. after a man's name, signify?"

"Member of the Lunatic Asylum."

MRS. JOHN A. MORRELL.

After a short illness, Mrs. Henrietta Morrell, widow of John A. Morrell, and daughter of the late John and Prudence Scribner, passed away last evening at the residence of her son, Roy E. Morrell. She is survived by one son, Roy E. of this city. Service will be held at the residence of her son, 46 Winger street, this evening at 8:30. Burial will take place at Beulah, Kars, Kings Co., on Thursday afternoon.

WOMAN BADLY HURT.

Mrs. Walter T. Earle, of 51 Brittain street, jumped or fell from a window in the Home of the Good Shepherd, about 2 o'clock this morning, into the yardway. When picked up soon afterwards, it was found that both legs were broken, and it is feared that she has suffered serious internal injuries. She was taken in the ambulance to the General Public Hospital, where it was reported at noon today that her chances of recovery were very slim.

RENFORTH BRIDGE.

A delightful bridge and dance was held last evening under the auspices of the Renforth Outing Association in their club house at Renforth. About seventy-five people were present and the evening was greatly enjoyed. The prize winners were as follows: First men's, Richard Ingletton; first ladies', Mrs. R. M. Fowler; men's consolation, W. C. Clarke; ladies' consolation, Miss Alexa Rogers. During the evening Mrs. A. E. Logie was heard in a delightful vocal selection. Refreshments were served.

DENTAL EXAMS.

The Dominion Dental Council examinations which were conducted here by Dr. A. F. McAvenny, for the province of New Brunswick, were completed yesterday. All three dentists who took the examinations passed. Dr. Roy Smith, of Hampton, who completed his course in dentistry, took his final examinations before the council and is entitled to practice in any province of the Dominion with the exception of Quebec. The other two students have not yet completed their courses and the examinations which they passed are not final ones for admission to practice. They are Edward B. Sprout, of Moncton and Frank B. Sprout, of Chatham.

IRVING PARKER.

This morning the General Public Hospital, Irving Parker, of 108 Somerset street, died after an operation. Mr. Parker was a fireman on the dredge in Courtney Bay, and had been ill only two weeks. He was a native of Parrsboro, but had lived in St. John about seventeen years. He is survived by his wife, four sons and one daughter. The sons are George, Roland, Burnell and Edwin, and the daughter, Viola. Mr. Parker has a brother, Berton, in Halifax, and another, Alley, in Parrsboro, and another brother, Churchill, in Lunenburg and Oscar in Parrsboro. The family have the sympathy of a wide circle of friends.

BOY HOME AGAIN.

George Barnett, a boy who has been missing from his home in St. Andrews street since last Friday is home again. Early in the evening Rev. A. Cody received a message from Mrs. Harry MacDonald, of 808 Carmarthen street, telling him that little Bernard was at her home and wanted to go with him. He did so. The boy said he had been sleeping on a pile of boards at the Lower Cove slip and during the day wandered around the waterfront. He went to Mrs. MacDonald's house as he had known Mrs. MacDonald. This is the seventh time the little fellow has been away from his home but Mr. Cody feels confident that he will not do it any more.

PUBLIC UTILITIES.

Only one application came before the monthly session of the New Brunswick Public Utilities Commission here this morning—that of the Kingston Peninsula Telephone Co. for permission to issue additional stock amounting to about $700 for extension and betterment of their line. The usual order was made, and the case will be heard on Wednesday, July 27. A. R. Gorham, secretary of the company, presented the application. No judgments were delivered, but it is expected that judgment in the case of the application of the Calais Water and Power Co. for a revised schedule of rates will be made next month.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES.

Friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Pyne, 33 Sewell street, on Monday evening and tendered them a surprise party in honor of the fifteenth anniversary of their wedding. They were the recipients of many useful and beautiful presents and many good wishes. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brundage of 2 Bryden street were pleasantly surprised on Tuesday evening, when their children gathered at their home and presented to them a mantle clock on the occasion of the thirty-fourth anniversary of their wedding day. The presentation was made by their eldest son, Leslie Brundage of Oak Point. Mrs. Ansell Baker, their second daughter, was unable to be present, as she is living in Ottawa.

CITY VALUATION IS $55,595,900

Assessment Filed With the Chamberlain.

Greatest Increase in Taxes is on Incomes — Not Many Added to Ratepayers' List — Quick Work at City Hall.

The civic assessment for the current year was filed by the board of assessors with the city chamberlain this afternoon, forty-two days earlier than last year. Unofficially it was stated that this will mean a saving of something like $100 a day to the taxpayers for that period. The tax bills are now being delivered, and yesterday the common council met July 14 as the last day of the discount period.

The total levy of taxes this year is $1,656,860.97, an increase of $43,815.00 over last year, although the rate has been decreased from $2.98 to $2.76. The total valuation is $55,595,900, an increase of $4,886,600 over last year, made up as follows:

Valuation	Increase
Land	$ 9,098,350 $ 64,700
Buildings	19,388,350 1,773,000
Incomes	18,697,750 2,140,100
Personal estate	$ 4,614,550 908,800
Total	$55,595,900 $4,886,600

Although the increase in buildings is more than a million and three-quarters, there has been no substantial increase in the valuation of real estate in general, this $1,600,000 of the increase coming from property which previous to this year had been exempt from taxation.

The tax on turnover of special corporations shows an increase of more than $12,000, while that on banks is $6,255 more than last year. Super tax on incomes increased by $1,500. The number of ratepayers on the books in 1921 is 18,295, an increase of less than 100 over last year's list.

The following are the details of this year's assessments:

City proportion	$1,149,811.16
County proportion	411,409.66
Super tax	26,450.99
Gross profits tax	69,189.56
Banks	26,773.98
Total levy	$1,656,860.97

In arriving at the share of the levy for the county, the tax is made up at the rate of seventy-six cents on each hundred dollars of the total valuation. The city's share is at the rate of $1.02 on each $100, and in addition the super tax, the gross profits tax and the tax on banks go to the city, the county not sharing in these items.

Great credit is being given in city hall for the early filing of the assessment and the consequent saving to the city. The modern machinery installed this year has more than paid for itself and it is anticipated that with the data now on hand in the assessors' office the work of getting out the assessment next year will be facilitated and hastened. Chairman Olive and his staff are to be congratulated on the record they have established this year.

POLICE COURT

Finger Print Report in One Case Today—Nelson Sent Up for Trial.

The preliminary examination in the case of Louis J. Nelson, charged with breaking and entering the store of Jacob Tanzman and stealing suits and rain coats valued at $100, and also carrying concealed weapons, was completed this morning in the police court and he was sent up for trial. He made a lengthy statement. The detectives have received from the Britton prison, Massachusetts, finger prints of Louis A. Brown, who escaped from that prison, where he was serving a sentence for forgery.

The defendant told of leaving for Hampton on foot as he had heard that labor was wanted there. When he arrived at Hampton, he said he found that all the vacancies had been filled, and he was forced to return to St. John by foot, as he had no money. He slept in a box car in the C. N. R. yards and when he awakened the following morning found a parcel containing a suit of clothes and a raincoat. He took them to a second hand dealer where he sold them for $11.

The magistrate said that in view of the evidence that had been submitted he would have to send the accused up for trial.

Frank Hopper, charged with being drunk and with having lemon extract in his possession, was fined $208 or eight months in jail. T. V. Paddock, who reported that it contained 41 per cent. of alcohol.

The case against C. G. Langbien, charged with embezzlement from the Longshoremen's Union, was postponed until tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Joseph Romney, charged with vagrancy, was allowed to go on suspended sentence.

George Brown brought a charge against F. Haines, charging him with theft of his dog. The case will be taken up on Friday afternoon. The plaintiff said he could bring 1,000 witnesses to prove that he was the rightful owner, but the magistrate expressed the opinion that a fewer number might answer the purpose.

DEATH OF JAMES MCCARTHY.

Many expressions of regret were heard this morning when it became known that James McCarthy had passed away in his home in Queen street. He had been in failing health for the last two years and had been confined to his home for nine months. He was a son of the late Ann and Dennis McCarthy of this city and was the last member of a large family. For many years he conducted a hack and livery stable in Princess street, and was one of the best known men in the business. After retiring he took over a grocery business and carried it on until his health became impaired. He was one of the early members of the Knights of Columbus in this city. Mr. McCarthy was seventy years of age and is survived by his wife, who was formerly Miss Catherine McNevin of Sussex, N. B., and by nephews and nieces. His funeral will take place on Friday afternoon. Only a few weeks ago his sister, Miss Elizabeth McCarthy, died suddenly. The sympathy of many friends for a woman whose kindnesses to others in a time of trouble are innumerable, will go out to Mrs. McCarthy in her great loss.
