

HON. F. OLIVER AT KAMLOOPS SPEAKS IN BEHALF OF DUNCAN ROSS

Expounds Policy of Dominion Government and Exposes Opposition Tactics.

Kamloops, Oct. 21.—Unheralded, Hon. Frank Oliver arrived in Kamloops on Thursday morning to address a meeting of the people of this city and district in the evening, but owing to some untoward circumstances no announcement of his visit had been made. However, bills were at once printed and distributed calling the meeting, and when the chairman, J. M. Harper, called the meeting to order in the K. M. & A. A. hall, there was a very good gathering assembled to hear the minister of interior. After a few introductory remarks by the chairman and Mr. Swanson, the latter taking Mr. Burrell to task for his methods, Mr. Oliver addressed the meeting. He pointed out the difference between the policy of the Conservatives and that of the Liberals. The former was for the benefit of the manufacturing interests in eastern Canada; the latter for the benefit of the whole of the country by the development of the west. The people of Canada had said at the elections just held that they favored the Liberal policy of development. That question is settled; the Liberals are in power and whichever way the people of Yale-Cariboo may go will not affect that fact. But the people of Yale-Cariboo now have to decide whether they favor western development. If they do, they will vote for Mr. Ross; if they do not, of course, they will vote for Mr. Burrell and the government will be guided by the opinion so expressed. He pointed out that the influence of parliament is measured by the vote he receives and the larger the majority given a member, the greater is his measure of influence in obtaining concessions from the government.

Dealing with the charges made by the opposition, he stated that no specific charge had ever been laid by a responsible Conservative. There had been many insinuations but no specific charge of wrongdoing. He referred to the so-called scandals attached to the department of marine and fisheries, but Hon. Mr. Broderick, head of that department, had been returned by acclamation. Had he been a Tory and believed one tittle of the charges made against that department he would have sacked Canada to find a candidate to place in opposition to Mr. Broderick. There had been charges against the administration of timber lands and a Mr. Ames had stated that the government would not permit an investigation into them. Mr. Oliver strongly denied that and produced printed reports of an investigation held this year at which Mr. Ames was not only present but asked questions of witnesses. There were the Hodgins' charges, but after an inquiry lasting some time that gentleman had withdrawn his charges. Mr. Oliver stated that ever since the Liberal government took office the timber lands had been put up for open competition and in every case, to which there was no exception, the highest bidder had been successful. He charged the opposition with having made these alleged charges and insinuations knowing them to be false. To the credit of Canada he said the country had never before seen such a campaign as that recently waged by the Conservatives. He referred to the seed grain distribution for which nearly two million dollars worth of grain had been purchased and distributed, there being no question at any time as to a man's politics even though it was done on the eve of an election when if at any time it might be supposed such political preference might be shown, but there was no breath of suspicion to be found in connection with it.

Passing to the immigration question, especially having reference to Asiatic immigration, Mr. Oliver said that the people of Canada were developing their country to make it a good place to live in, not for aliens but for themselves. It was development for a white Canada. The Chinese were kept out by a head tax of $500, the Japanese immigration restricted by the Japanese government in accordance with an agreement made between that country and Canada, and the further influx of Hindus was prevented by the regulation requiring each man to be possessed of $300 in cash before being permitted to land.

Mr. Oliver referred to his visit to this city of a year ago, when he had come to obtain information as to what enabled him and his colleagues to carry out their policy of western development. The various classes of land and adaptability to various purposes had to be considered and time was required. They might be moving slowly, but that was surely better than acting with undue haste and making mistakes that could not be remedied. Then there was the question of Indian reserves. It had been suggested to him that the reserve across the river should be thrown open to settlement, but owing to the claim set up by the provincial government of reversionary rights in the Indian lands, the Dominion government could neither give a title to the lands nor encourage the Indians, whose rights that government is bound to protect, to forego their lands. The province making the claim is put in the position of the complainant and the Dominion government has invited the provincial government to test the question at law in a friendly way in order to settle the point at issue. Willing as he was to do something in this connection, the whole matter was tied up by the province.

After again urging the people of Yale-Cariboo to vote for Duncan Ross and return him by "a thumping majority," Mr. Oliver resumed his seat amid applause. Throughout his address the minister was listened to with marked attention, his careful, deliberate utterances frequently provoking bursts of applause. His argument was held and

LOSES AN ARM. New Westminster, Nov. 1.—John L. McGregor, an employee of Cliff's can factory, on Friday got his arm caught in some revolving machinery, the injuries being such as to necessitate the amputation of "the injured member below the elbow."

HUGE TAFT PARADE IN NEW YORK CITY

Sixty Thousand Men in Procession—Suffragettes in Evidence.

New York, Nov. 2.—Darkness had fallen on Saturday night ere the tail end of the giant Republican parade, which began at 10 o'clock in the morning, ended by the reviewing stand up town and disbanded, passed into history as one of the greatest political parades ever held in this city. Beginning as a daylight demonstration in honor of Taft and Sherman, the parade came to a close as a torchlight procession of thousands of twinkling lights dancing above the heads of the marching men. It took seven hours and fifteen minutes for the vast army to pass in review before the grand stand, and it is variously estimated that there were from 50,000 to 60,000 men in line, the number probably being nearer the latter figure. The suffragettes took an uninvited part in the demonstration, when the parade passed along Fifth avenue. From an upper storey window a flock of yellow balloons, labelled "Votes for Women" were loosed over the heads of the marchers and a feminine voice shouted short speeches through a megaphone. "You vote for us, and we'll vote for Taft," was the bargain she proposed. The speaker was said to be a member of the Equality League for self-supporting women. In an effort to catch some of the balloons, the marchers rushed pell-mell about the avenue, and for a time struggled as in a football rush. The police were appealed to to arrest the offending party, but declined to act.

Before reviewing the parade, Judge Taft addressed an exclusively labor meeting, making a labor speech. In part he said: "Now I say that to vote for Mr. Bryan on the theory that he has no power to injure us by being president, by putting into action his peculiar economic theories, is to assume a condition that is not true. "Then in the course of an administration of four years, a great number of business questions arise that require settlement by a man with business sense and conservative foresight, and I regret to say that Mr. Bryan, in his history before this country has shown a capacity for not recognizing a sound business principle when he meets it in the street."

NEWFOUNDLAND PAYS TRIBUTE TO THE GRAND WORK DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS ARE DOING.

Fishermen Regard Them as a Boon to Mankind—Mr. Frank Banfield Tells How They Cured His Backache. Garnish, Fortune Bay, Nfld., Oct. 30.—(Special).—Among the fishermen here, who through exposure to wet and cold are subject to those pains and aches which come from diseased Kidneys, Dodd's Kidney Pills are looked upon as a positive boon to mankind. They are never tired of telling how their Backaches and their Rheumatism vanish before the great Kidney remedy. Among many others Mr. Frank Banfield, after years of suffering, has found relief in Dodd's Kidney Pills, and here is what he is telling his friends: "I had Dodd's Kidney Pills the best medicine for Backache I have ever used. I only used two boxes and they cured me of Backache I had had for five years, at started through a strain. My father's back also bothered him, and he got some relief from one pill I gave him. They were too precious to give him more. All persons suffering from Backache should use Dodd's Kidney Pills."

Why do Dodd's Kidney Pills cure Backache? Simply because Backache is Kidney ache, and Dodd's Kidney Pills positively cure all Kidney aches and ills. This has been proved in thousands of cases in Canada. If you haven't used them yourself ask your neighbors.

CASSIAR DISTRICT IS SPORTSMAN'S PARADISE

Phil Oberlander, Noted Bohemian Hunter, Secures Many Trophies.

Vancouver, Oct. 31.—Phil Oberlander, the noted Bohemian big game hunter, returned yesterday from an extended hunt in the Cassiar district at the headwaters of the Stikine river. Mr. Oberlander spent some time in the North and as a result of his trip brought down a big string of trophies. He was accompanied by James Tate, of Spence's Bridge, and Denis, an Indian guide, and states that the Cassiar district is the best hunting region in America and that all hunters who have visited that part of the country this year had very good success.

"The return trip from Stikine river was a little expensive," said Mr. Oberlander. "For this little journey in a canoe handled by an Indian I paid $520, but that was a trifle compared with the alternative of having to spend the winter at Telegraph creek." Figures compiled by Mr. Oberlander show that 12 goats, 26 sheep, 26 caribou, 10 moose and 5 grizzlies were slain this season by visitors hunting from Canada, United States, England, Germany and Austria. On the down trip Mr. Oberlander was accompanied by Count Charles Hoyos, an ex-officer of a crack Austrian regiment. At Wrangle they also met the Count's younger brother, Count Ernest, who had been shooting in the Yukon. The latter secured three caribou, one sheep and one grizzly. The best all-round bag, including a 60-in. moose, was secured by Count Hoyos; the largest sheep, 4x14 inches, by Mr. Fishman; the second best sheep, 4x15 1/2 inches, as well as the largest moose and largest caribou of the season, were shot by Mr. Oberlander; the second largest caribou and bear, by Mr. Millard. Mr. Oberlander will forward his trophies to his Bohemian castle.

RECTOR EXHIBITS SPIRIT PHOTOGRAPHS

One of His Mother Who Died Fifty Years Ago.

Manchester, Oct. 31.—Archdeacon Colley, rector of Stockton, Warwickshire, at the close of a sermon on spiritualism, exhibited a series of what he called spirit photographs. One of them, taken in March last outside his residence, showed the archdeacon's mother, who died fifty years ago, and his father, who died in 1891, aged 81. The mother was never photographed during life, but her likeness had been recognized by hundreds in Leamington. In a second photograph, taken half a minute afterward, the father and mother had changed places, and the archdeacon deduced from this a double parental blessing on what he calls his anti-Sadducee work. "Seventeen years in the higher life," said the archdeacon, "appear to work for making my father in the spirit photograph look somewhat younger than in the negative I took of him three years before he departed this life."

Another print shown looked, as the archdeacon said, like a phreic fog, but in the midst of the black blotch could be clearly deciphered some archaic Greek characters, and around them in ten concentric lines some microscopical writing which, the archdeacon said, contained a message from a friend who had been dead for twenty-five years. The Greek characters, interpreted last week by Sir Oliver Lodge, were a quotation from St. Luke, chapter 17, 4th and 5th verses, but seven words were missing. "This photograph, or rather, psychograph, was taken," said the archdeacon, "without a camera. I went to a friend's house and took out three plates and put them into envelopes. I initiated them, sealed them, and retained possession of them in my hands, and no soul touched them. I took one plate and the palms of my hands, my friend clasped my hands and a lady placed her hands above and below his. My friend then went into a trance. In a short time he said: 'They are writing.'"

ACCIDENTALLY KILLED.

Young Scotchman Shoots Himself While Cleaning Revolver.

Kamloops, Oct. 31.—An unfortunate accident happened at the Queen's hotel Tuesday night, resulting in the death early on the following morning, of Andrew Somerville, aged 22 years. The unfortunate young man was cleaning a revolver and appears to have been using a clean dry rag when he was loaded. In some way the gun was discharged, the bullet entering the body in the region of the heart. On being admitted to the hospital he made a statement of the circumstances which red, but was too weak to talk much.

SECTIONMAN HURT.

New Westminster, Nov. 1.—W. Alcock, a section man employed by the P. C. E. Railway company on the cutting of a new grade beyond Collingwood, was injured by a landslide at that point yesterday, sustaining injuries on various parts of the body. He was brought to this city and removed to the Royal Columbian hospital, where he will remain for some days.

SUITS AGAINST W. R. HEARST.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—Three suits for $100,000 each against W. R. Hearst, principal, and others were begun in the Superior court on Saturday by Jacob J. Kern, Democratic candidate for state's attorney for Cook county. The actions, it is claimed by the attorney filing the suits, are based on editorials, cartoons and stories printed in papers controlled by Mr. Hearst and attacking the character by Kern.

MOUNTED RIFLE CORPS INSPECTED

Col. Holmes Compliments Men of Newly Organized Squadron at Kamloops.

Kamloops, Oct. 31.—The inspection of the C. M. R. took place on Tuesday afternoon in rather cool weather, on the flat east of the K. M. & A. A. recreation enclosure. Promptly at 2:30 o'clock the men paraded in front of the drill hall, under the command of Capt. Johnson and Lieut. Drummond. Considering the fact that the men were mounted on strange horses unaccustomed alike to drill and riders, they formed up in fine style. At 3:30 the inspecting officer appeared and after the general salute the men were subjected to a thorough inspection. The march past followed after which the squadron went through a number of evolutions under the direction of their officers.

At the close of the inspection the colonel expressed the satisfaction he felt regarding the appearance the men presented in so short a time after organization. He had not expected so large a turnout. In addition to the number (about sixty) each man was well mounted and well dressed in the uniform of his squadron. This was most satisfactory and compared favorably with other inspections of newly formed corps. In the evening the C. M. R. held its first dance in the drill hall. Needless to say, the boys in scarlet were there in full force; nor were the Rocky Mountain Rangers by any means unrepresented, a large contingent of these boys being present. The newly mounted rifles are to have a fine new armory building all to themselves, according to Col. Holmes. Col. Holmes says that the present drill hall is not large enough for the two local corps.

LIBERALS ELECT OFFICERS.

Nelson, Oct. 31.—At the annual meeting of the Liberal Association, the following officers were elected: Hon. president, Dr. G. A. B. Hall; president, F. J. Deane; vice-president, E. Ferguson; secretary, D. E. Brown; treasurer, F. Hamilton; executive committee, H. Douglas, T. Madden, A. B. Dockstader, W. Peary, E. W. Widdowson, S. S. Taylor, W. C. Walsh, Nap. Malette, A. Carrick, J. Patrick, A. N. Wolverson and Jos. Sturgeon.

CHINESE MURDERER SENTENCED TO DEATH

Lee Chung Will Be Executed at New Westminster on December 18th.

Vancouver, Nov. 1.—The second death sentence of the present assize was pronounced by Mr. Justice Clement yesterday afternoon. The church has sentenced Lee Chung to be hanged on December 18th for the murder of Yung Hing in South Vancouver, in July last. The verdict was clearly deciphered from the returned verdict of guilty after an absence of two hours. After ordering the prisoner to stand up, Mr. Justice Clement asked: "Have you anything to say why the sentence of death should not be passed upon you?"

The question being conveyed to the prisoner by Court Interpreter David Low, he replied through the same medium: "The sentence of death should not be passed upon me. I am not guilty of killing Yung Hing. Two or three men had quarrels with him a day or two before he was killed. One of them, the judge replied that the jury had found him guilty, and nothing remained but to pass the sentence of the law upon him. He then sentenced him to death. His sentence means that there will be three hangings in New Westminster on the same date, the trio being composed of the effects of inhaling the gas. Portella was first sentenced in Vancouver for the murder of Mrs. Jenkins on Prior street; a few days later the multiple Jenkins was sentenced in New Westminster for the murder of Mrs. Morrison at Hazelmere.

CASHIER, NOT GUILTY.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 31.—Wm. C. McKee, cashier of the Farmers' National Bank of Emonton, Pa., who has been on trial in the United States court charged with abstracting and misappropriating funds, was found not guilty today.

New Westminster, Oct. 31.—At least three members of the present city council have decided not to offer themselves for re-election when nominations are called for on Monday, the 7th of December. Those who have definitely decided to drop out are Ald. Shiles, Henley and Fader. All the others, with the exception of Ald. Jardine, have stated that they will be in the field if the citizens wish them to serve on the council board during the coming year. When questioned some time ago as to his intentions, Ald. Jardine said he did not care to commit himself so early in the season. It was learned indirectly, however, that Ald. Jardine is not adverse to serving another year as alderman, or even to accepting the nomination for the mayoralty. Regarding the prospects of a contest for the chief magistracy's position, it is rumored that Mayor Keary will again be a candidate and that he will be opposed by Judge Eole. Ald. Johnston was also rated as a probability, but he says that, although he had been asked by many to enter the mayoralty field, he had practically given up the idea for this year.'
