Transvaal Raiders Given a Hearing in Bow Street Police Court To-Day.

and Courtly Knights Among the Attendants.

Spanish Students Still Holding Riotous Meetings and Causing Much Trouble.

London, March 10.-There was a large crowd in and about Bow street police court this morning on the occa sion of the formal arraignment of Dr Jameson, Major Sir John Willoughby. ('ol. the Hon. I. F. White, Col. R. Gra; and others, charged with violating the foreign enlistment act. Included among the audience were the Duke of Aber corn, chairman of the British Chartered South African Company., Earl and Lady Coventry, Lady Findlay, Hon. among the raiders injured.

There was a buzz of excited admira tion, almost awe, when Dr. Jameson and Sir John Willoughby, the military commanders of the expedition, and their fellow raiders were mustered together at the opening of the court. Had i not been for the stern demeanor of the Chief Justice, a popular demonstration would have occurred. The array of counsel on both sides was really formidable. For the defence there were Sir Edward Clarke, Q. C.; Sir F. Lock wood, Q. C.; Mr. Edward M. Carson, O. C.; and Mr. C. F. Gill. In behalf

Eventually the gendarmes charged the rioters and dispersed them temporarily. Later the students reassembled, and gathered another mob about them. The prefect of the police hurried to the scene and exhorted the students to disperse, but they hooted his atterances, cheering for Spain and denouncing the United States. the senate met the crowds within the galleries and those eager to gain adnission at the various entrances showed that there would be another large at-tendance when the Cuban resolutions were reached. As soon as the jour al had been read, Mr. Lodge (Republican) rose to a question of personal privilege. He said he had read the Sunday inter view attributed to Senor Dupuy de Lome, minister of Spain. There vas nothing singular in this fact, as the Spanish minister communicated largely through the newspapers, but in this case the minister called in question the accuracy of a statement made by him (Lodge). The senator sent to the desk and had read the minister's reference enestion the translation of a staten en attributed to General Weyler, in which the latter declared he would "extern a ate" the insurgents. Mr. Lodge commented on the exactness of the transation and said a literal rendering of Gen. Weyler's language would be that he would "clean out"" the large insurgent bands, and "exterminate" the small ones. Mr. Lodge said he did not think this offered any excuse for the Spanish minister adopting the course he had. Mr. Gray (Democrat), Deleware, said the course of the United States should be to proceed according to the judgment of a self-respecting nation, unmoved by emeutes at Valencia or Madrid, and without being turned aside to discuss the question of translation between a senator and a minister. Mr. Teller (rep.) said the rule was unvarying against public communications by foreign ministers, some of whom had been sent home for statements of less importance than this. Mr. Teller then turned to the condition of Spain. He did not think the outbreak of students Reginald Coventry, Admiral Sir John should give offense. The Spanish au- in that position. E. Commerell, G. C. B., V. There was a ripple of applause, which the vice-president checked, when Teller referred to his sympathy with the Cubans. "I would delighted," said he, "to hear that Havana had passed into the hands of the insurgents. I would be delighted to hear that the insurgents had run the Spanish soldiers into the sea." Mr. Chandler (rep.) also thought the Spanish minister had been guilty of impropriety. His reference, said Mr. Chandler, was offensive. "I desire to say," interposed Mr. Morgan, "that that Spanish minister misquoted what I said on the floor of Mr. Daly was put up in the house yesterday just after Sir Charles Tupper had made his statements to abuse Premier Greenway and the local government in the most violent way. Some of the delegates pointed out that the mixing up of politics in imnuigration work had a disastrous effect. Mr. Earle was appointed to arrange an interview with the government when these views will be laid before them.

It is stated on good authority that the members of the Dominion cabinet have submitted the question as to the expiration of the present parliament to the supreme court of Canada, and the ministry will abide by the decision. It is also predicted that the justices of the supreme court will hold that parliament legally expires in June, not on April 25, as held by Sir Oliver Mowat,
