

Hoe Co. Ld.
Shoes,
Boots, Etc.

Boots and Shoes in every description of Boots etc. in each of our Specialty. Letter orders for Catalogue to

Hoe Co. Ld.
C. C.
B. O.

ISH STEEL

For Definite Results in All Kinds of Mining

Shoes and Dies

WORKS.

Yates St., Victoria, B. C.

S. Framer & Co., Nicholles &

TOYS,
NS

holiday trade....

& CO.,

Victoria, B.C.

Co., Ltd.

Smelters of Silver Ores.

ISLAND, B. C.

or the sea.

THOS. KIDDIE

Smelter Manager

MEN USE THE

SENSIBLE

BODY

BRACE

NATURAL CURE.

For sale by

US H. BOWES

CHEMIST,

West Street, Near Yates Street,

PHYSICIAN

DATE OF IMPROVEMENTS.

NOTICE.

French, Little Bobs, Baden

that I, H. E. Newton, F. M.

and as agent for R. T.

the date hereof, to apply to

for the purpose of obtaining of the above claims.

must be commenced before of such certificate of im-

twelfth day of November,

$1.00 PER YEAR, STRICTLY IN ADVANCE, TO ANY ADDRESS IN CANADA, UNITED STATES, OR GREAT BRITAIN

VICTORIA TIMES

TWICE-A-WEEK EDITION

VICTORIA, B. C., TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1903.

$2.00 PER YEAR, TO OTHER COUNTRIES, POSTAGE PREPAID, PAYABLE INVARIABLY IN ADVANCE.

VOL. 34.

NO. 68.

NEW ZEALAND'S PREFERENTIAL BILL

HOW DUTIES HAVE BEEN DISTRIBUTED

Tea Grown Within British Dominions
Admitted Free—Reciprocity With Foreign Countries.

Wellington, N. Z., Nov. 20.—The preferential trade bill, adopted November 18th, by the House of Representatives, places a duty of twenty per cent. on the following goods now free from duty when from countries outside the British Empire: Bicycle parts, gas engines, oil engines, gun boots, iron and steel cordage, sheet, bolt and bar iron, printing paper, railway rails, sail cloth, canvas and duck, surgical and dental instruments.

The bill doubles the present duty on cement, and adds fifty per cent. to the duties on the following goods, when from non-British territory: Basketware, bicycles, boots, candles, carriages, dillan-wares, clocks, crockery, cream of tartar, earthenware, stoneware, fancy goods, toys, fireworks, potted fish, furniture, carbonate ware, glass and glassware, hardware, ironmongery, hops, nails, lamps, pianos, paper hangings, paper, plated ware and pumps.

Duties on tea grown within the British dominions is removed.

The bill comes in force immediately after it passes the upper house (legislative council), which it is expected will do today.

Besides providing increased duties on the foreign goods as stated, the bill provides for reciprocal trade with countries making concessions to New Zealand products.

It is estimated that the increased duties will yield $350,000 to $400,000, against which is the remission of the tea duty, amounting to $200,000.

The public is little interested in the measure, the opposition in parliament is mainly on the ground of rushing through important proposals during the last hours of the session.

SICK LEFT UNATTENDED.

Power of Mayors in Porto Rico Results in Suffering Among the Poor.

Washington, Nov. 20.—A severe arraignment of the Spanish administration of Porto Rico is contained in the annual report of William H. Elliott, the United States commissioner of the interior for Porto Rico, made public at the interior department today.

Mr. Elliott says it is a pity and a shame that during the four centuries preceding American occupation of the island little effort was made to open up communication lines and yet a number of interior towns whose only outlet is over ancient trails, but which are now being approached as rapidly as possible. The economic value of the road extension work now in progress is demonstrated, he says, by saving of from 50 to 70 per cent. in costs of transportation to and from the interior.

The report says that the power of the mayors to remove the health officers of their towns seriously interferes with good sanitary service, and that consequently the people, and particularly the poor, of many municipalities suffer and die for want of proper attention. The next session of the legislative assembly is expected to remedy the evil.

The hospital accommodation, even in the towns where the pretence is made of providing them, are sadly deficient, so that the sick poor who have not the means to employ medical attention are left to sickness and recover. A great field for philanthropy lies open in Porto Rico.

The report says that "Coffee, once the leading export source of wealth, has passed through the many vicissitudes in the past decade; there has been very little new plantings, there is no profit to planters with coffee at the present prices, and should the prices go lower the situation will be serious. An appropriation for improving the harbor of San Juan is asked."

BOSTON MAYORALTY.

Patrick Collins Nominated by the Democrats—Will Be Opposed.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 20.—Complete returns from the city primaries of yesterday show that Patrick A. Collins was re-nominated for mayor by the Democrats with a plurality of 12,439 over his opponent, Fred S. Gore, and that George N. Swallow was nominated for mayor by the Republicans by a plurality of 3,164 over Michael J. Murray, and a plurality of 3,802 over Dr. E. H. Gersey, his two contestants for the nomination. The total vote of Mayor Collins was 30,694, and of Candidate Swallow 6,285.

Vienna, Nov. 20.—A dispatch to the Neue Frei Presse from Constantinople reports that the Grand Vizier has resigned on account of the attempts of the palace clique to prevent the acceptance of the Russo-Austrian reform scheme.

INVITATION TO CUBA.

Senator Newlands Proposes That Island Should Become One of States of the Union.

Washington, Nov. 20.—Senator Newlands, author of the resolution annexing Hawaii, today introduced a joint resolution inviting Cuba to become a state of the United States upon terms with states of the Union. It provides that Porto Rico shall become a county or province of Cuba, that the present officers of Cuba shall retain their positions until after their terms expire, that the $5,000,000 bonds of Cuba shall become those of the state of Cuba, with interests reduced to three per cent., and two per cent. to be applied to a sinking fund, that the present rural guard of Cuba shall be incorporated into the army of the United States, and that the money in the Cuban treasury shall become the money of the state of Cuba.

The resolution closes with the following declaration: "That the foregoing resolutions are inspired not by a desire to annex forcibly or to assert sovereignty over the island of Cuba or to exercise any form of compulsion, but solely by a regard for the interest of the two countries and a conviction that the interests of the states composing the Federal Union and Cuba are identical, and that they can be best secured by the union under one form of government, in which all shall be represented on equal terms and be governed by equal and unscrupulous laws, insuring freedom and equality of rights and privileges."

EXPLOSION AT DAWSON.

Yukon Gun Office Wrecked—One Man Fatally Burned—New Pass Across Rockies.

Dawson, Nov. 20.—Fire has destroyed the Yukon Gun office. The outbreak was due to the explosion of benzine, and one man was fatally burned. The loss is $15,000. The paper issues tomorrow by arrangement with the News, and it will probably issue hereafter from the Nugget office.

N. W. Craigie and Geo. Bull have discovered a new pass across the Rockies, which shortens the distance to the Mackenzie river by three hundred miles. The new trail is known as Helé river pass, and is unknown even to Indians.

Philip King has disappeared and the police can find no clue. It is believed he walked out on the ice and threw himself into the Yukon.

DEATH BED MARRIAGE.

Count Left Fortune to Chorus Girl—Members of His Family Contest Will.

Vienna, Nov. 20.—An interesting lawsuit will soon come before the courts here, in connection with the death bed marriage of Count Plus Chambera, thirty years old, and Swanda Blustein, a young chorus girl of the Vienna stage. The Count, who was a member of an old family, was recently injured in an automobile accident. Two days before his death he married Swanda Blustein, and made a will in which he left to his wife his entire fortune of 4,000,000 kronen. Members of the Count's family have declared their intention of contesting the will, claiming that the Count was not in a fit condition to dispose of his property.

ARBITRATION TREATY.

Between France and Italy Will Be Signed Shortly.

Rome, Nov. 20.—The Patricia announces that there will be signed a treaty of arbitration between France and Italy, similar to that recently concluded between France and Great Britain, Denmark, Norway and Sweden, but the latter countries suggested various modifications, which M. Delcassé, the French foreign minister, refused to allow.

FIGHT IN NEW YORK.

Contest Between Featherweights, at Which Police Sergeant Is Stated to Have Officiated.

New York, Nov. 20.—Despite the law a 15-round prize fight has been brought off in the heart of the city between William Schumacher, of New York, and "Kid" Murphy, featherweights. The former got the decision. A big crowd witnessed the battle. It is said a police sergeant officiated as referee.

APPEAL FOR TROOPS.

Denver, Col., Nov. 19.—Governor Peabody announced last night that he had been appealed to for troops by the mine owners in the Telluride district, where a strike of the miners had been in progress for some time, and that he had asked President Roosevelt to send regulars from Fort Logan. He stated if the President refused he would order some of the state guards to Telluride.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 20.—Fire early today destroyed the old Masonic Temple building, at Fourth and Jefferson streets. The third floor is occupied by the Hopkins theatre, which was totally destroyed. Other losers include the K. W. Fowler Drug Company's store and several offices. The loss is estimated at $200,000. The origin of the fire is as yet unknown.

WORKMEN KILLED IN RAILWAY COLLISION

THIRTY-TWO BODIES
TAKEN FROM WRECK

Freight Ran Into Work Train While the Employees Were Unloading Steel—
New York Accident.

Peoria, Ill., Nov. 19.—Thirty-two men were killed in a collision of a freight train with a work train on the Big Four road near Mineot, a small station near Tremont, twenty miles from this city, and fifteen or twenty have been injured. The workmen were unloading steel when a freight train dashed around a curve and into their train before they had time to seek a place of safety.

The superintendent of the road has just telephoned in that thirty-two bodies have been recovered, and that more may be under the debris. On a bank at the side of the track lie the bodies of the victims, bruised and mangled in a horrible manner. So far twelve only have been identified, the remaining being unrecognizable.

All the dead and most of the injured were members of the work train, the crews of both engines jumping in time to save their lives.

The collision occurred in a deep cut, at the beginning of a sharp curve, neither train being visible to the crew of the other until they were within fifty feet of each other. The engineers set the brakes, sounded the whistles and leaped from their cars. The two trains struck with such force that the sound was heard for miles. A second after the collision the boiler of the work train engine exploded, throwing heavy iron bars and splinters of wood two hundred feet.

Conductor John W. Judge, of Indianapolis, who had charge of the freight train, received orders at Urbana to wait at Mackinaw for the work train, which was due there at 11:30 a.m. Instead of doing this he failed to stop. The engineer of the work train, Geo. Becker, had also received orders to pass the freight at Mackinaw, and was on his way to that station. After working two hours the remains of 26 men were taken out. One of the last bodies recovered was that of Wm. Bailey, of Mackinaw, who had been lifted 30 feet into the air and held in place by two rails, which had been pushed up between the engine and tender of the work train.

Burned to Death.

New York, Nov. 19.—As a result of a rear-end collision late to-night between a Bay Ridge train, containing about 100 passengers and a train of five cars, both of which were bound for Brooklyn bridge on the Fifth avenue branch of the Brooklyn Elevated road, John A. Cahill, motorman of the Bay Ridge train, and Patrick Capilla, conductor of the same train, were fatally injured and a number of others were slightly injured. The accident was due to the Bay Ridge train running into the empty cars, immediately after the crash two of the cars of each train caught fire. The bodies of the motorman and conductor of the Bay Ridge train were found burned to a crisp.

FORTY YEARS A JUDGE.

Joseph Gary, of Chicago, Received Many Congratulations From Associates.

Chicago, Nov. 20.—Today marked the fortieth year of a consecutive service on the bench in Chicago by Judge Gary. Such a lengthy public career is said to be without parallel either in the United States or Great Britain among elected officials. Judge Gary has presided at many memorable trials, notably that of the anarchists who were executed for the bomb throwing in the Haymarket square. Though now 82 years old, he retains the vigorous mind and firmness of decision which have been his pronounced characteristics during his long term as a jurist.

RECORDED ENTRY LIST.

Hot Springs, Ark., Nov. 20.—The Hot Springs Jewelry Club who have received an average of 202 entries for each race. This is the largest entry list on record.

VANCOUVER HOLD-UPS.

Two Prizefighters Identified as Men Who Have Been Operating in Terminal City.

Vancouver, Nov. 20.—"Terrible" Reegan and Jack Chamberlain, who were billed to fight in a preliminary night, have been positively identified as the hold-up men who robbed several citizens during the last few nights. Reegan held the gun and the young man named Griffiths, Barnes and Clarke have been arrested as accomplices.

Mr. Yeatman, secretary of the school board, Valdez, went hunting with his son on the Mainland two weeks ago. He is probably lost. The son was found after having nearly died from exhaustion in the snow storm of November 10th.

Lumber and other wharf making material is being shipped for the Oriental Power & Lumber Co., whose lumber limits are on the Mainland opposite Princess Royal Island. The shareholders in the company are Englishmen, and orders have just come by cable with money to start the wharves, buildings, etc.

The Chief Justice today granted a temporary injunction to the C. P. R. against the Vancouver, Westminster & Yukon Co. from crossing the C. P. R. tracks at Sapperton by the diamond crossing now in use. The grounds of the injunction are that there is no interlocking signal system, and no men stationed there to warn trains.

THE LAW WILL TAKE ITS COURSE

FRITH MUST PAY
PENALTY FOR CRIME

Is to Be Executed on Friday Next For the Murder of Storekeeper Bailey.

CHAMBERLAIN'S CAMPAIGN.

Funds Required to Carry on the Propaganda.

London, Nov. 19.—Joseph Chamberlain displays incessant activity in his fiscal campaign. In a letter to the Tariff Reform League today, he invites public subscriptions towards the raising of $500,000 for the purpose of carrying on the propaganda.

In the preface to a reprint in book form of his ten great fiscal speeches, Mr. Chamberlain strongly advocates the adoption of a system of referendum similar to that practiced in Switzerland and in many parts of the United States, as the only method of deciding great national questions apart from the complicated issues of party government. He thinks that the fiscal question is eminently one that should be thus decided by the votes of the people without the influence of such issues which would be brought into play at a general election.

At the opening of a new Conservative club house at Salisbury today, Lord Salisbury asserted that since the beginning of Mr. Chamberlain's campaign foreign countries had approached the subject of commercial relations with Great Britain in a far more reasonable spirit than formerly.

DISCUSSING FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

French Deputy on the Policy of the Republic.

Paris, Nov. 19.—In the presence of a crowded chamber, Deputy Deschanel, Republican, former president of the chamber, began this afternoon the discussion of the foreign office budget. He expressed the view that it was the policy of Great Britain to create issues between the United States, Germany and France, which must aid in the rapprochement of Great Britain and Russia. Advertising to Morocco, M. Deschanel said in a speech had no intention to make war upon the country. France wished neither military adventures, nor the partition of Morocco, and she had no desire to conquer Siam. There existed no questions which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration. The deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace were those who refused to discuss the proposition for disarmament. It would be a crime, he added, to seek to raise issues between Great Britain and France. The relations between France and Italy were most friendly, but the alliance with Russia, which could not be settled by diplomacy or arbitration, the deputy further declared that those who were responsible for armed peace