Office dome, is described as presenting one of the grandest scenes of the fire, if any one point could, in the awful din and war of lements, command particular attention.

All the warehouses on the line of Wate street were destroyed, and many were the narrow escapes from death that occurred wharves were covered with peopl and household goods, who had sough these places as a last resort. They wer obliged to take to boats in order to save lves from being burned.

ed as the flames from Water street and Prince William street joined with the fire on Britain street, and in that vicinity destroying in a brief space of time all the buildings between Prince William Meantime the fire, having passed up Union Street and stopped at the Spuri property in the block, bounded by Union Dock and the Market Square, save the buildings extending from the corner of Chipman's Hill, downwards to and including the "British Bank."

DANIEL & BOYD'S. the Sheffield House, Jordan's, Ex-Mayor Smith's and other buildings now co nicated their fire across to the

POLICE OFFICES ation, and McCulloch's, the Mari time Bank Building, Western Union

TELEGRAPH OFFICES. ings up the north side of Kin of Canterbury Street-where it stopped. On the south side of King Street a cles sweep was made, the ruin, there, being as absolute as in any other part of the burned

THE OLD HAZEN HOUSE. determined to save the old brick Hazer House, corner of King Sonare and Char lotte St., if possible. He brought a large number of men to the city and statione them at windows and doors and other available places and each man had a special place and duty assigned him. When the heat drove the Portland Steam fire Engine from its position in Mill Street point. The men worked splendidly with up to Leinster Street after consuming failed because they could not do more than men's work. Firemen and engine etc, get hold of the Temperance Hall next the Gaol, King St. east, and made a clean

One engine had been stationed at the sweep of everything on that side of the Street to the house on the corner of Pitt. which, together with the other five houses on the west side of Pitt. including the Logan, Lindsay & Co., and Mr. Geo. W. Day were saved. But Pitt street was not to be spared, as the large house in the S.

was seized and a clean sweep made of every building on that side of Pitt to the rack Square. The few dwellings and including the Sulis cottage, Mr. Pitcathley's residence, (formerly Judge Wet-

AWFUL GRANDEUR. The people in Carleton say it was an awind scene to witness, as the fire took hold of the Wiggins Orphan Asylum in Lower Cove. This building caught about I o'clock on Wednesday night, and was, for a long time, burning on the dome, prerising high above the smoke and flames in wallsfand chimneys could be heard above the other din, at midnight a mile distant, and now and then one would hear an explosion that would blanch his cheek, not owing what its results might be.

Everything crumbled before the flames. the stone and the brick buildings seeming to be as readily devoured as the dryest wooden ahanty. Iron melted away before the terrible heat, and no human being bould approach the flames. Everybody fled from before them and sought safety in

THE WHOLE AREA BURNED OVER. To the west of Pitt Street and south of King all the city was burned, save the exceptions enumerated above, and the Ware uses of the International and Anchor Line Steamers at Reed's Point Wharf, a warehouse or store below Main Street, or what is known as Charlotte Street Extension, and the Marine Hospital. By for o'clock on Thursday morning the destruct tion was complete—nothing was left to be burned, in the doomed district, save debris.

THE HOMELESS. Thousands of people were left homeles rithout ahelter and without knowing where to spend the night. The squares presented a most distressing spectacle. Queen square was packed to density with people and their household effects. This part early became the centre of a WHIRLING, SERTHING, DEVASTATING TO RENT OF FIRE. North, South, East and West, and it seemed as if the whole population of that district were doomed to destruction .-First they were driven to the eastern part of the city; then north; still pursued by the flames, they were then driven west, and found rest only in the extreme north em portion of the town. The Market are entrances to Prince William and Vater streets were shut off by the flam Princess, Duke, Queen, St. James, and Britain streets were in a mass of fire, and escape from the district south of Market Square and east of Prince William wa impossible, except by water. MEN. WOMEN AND CHILDREN RAN FRANTI CALLY FROM ONE POINT TO ANOTHER. wet at every turn by the overpowering and pitiless fire. Boats from Portland and Carleton conveyed load after load to both those localities. The American boat made several trips to Carleton time packed with the people and taken in at Reed's Point. ons for those were scarce, and to the misery of wretchedness and despan was added the pangs of hunger. Shelter tunates were treated to the best that could done for them by the Carleton people. It was heart-rendering to witness sick, infirm and aged persons being dragged through the streets in search of a place of safety, which it was very difficult to find.

of the old Tower the Globe said:—

"Even amid the harrowing sights and useful work." cenes prevailing, one scene of beauty stood out in magnificent grandeur. That ild landmark of by gone years, the Bellower—the subject of newspaper ridicule and the individual's sneers—became en veloped in flame. When denuded of its vapount solidly, and offered long resistance to its overpowering foe—the foe of whom it had sounded so many an alarm of coming danger, and now struggled hard in its embrace; and when corner post and ross-tie-and studding burned with a clear white brilliancy, it looked as if enwrapped n a vast illumination."

THE FIREMEN. The firemen, whatever, may be said to the contrary, seem to have worked nobly. It was somewhat disheartening to the band of workers to learn that a building on Main street, a mile away, had caught fire from the cinders that were hurled away from the scene of the conflagration. This were, of course, not prepared for it, so the flames went on, no one being able to offer any resistance, and house after house was zed, while the occupants had only an mortunity of saving their effects ity-Orange Terrace, for instance -(clearly fincendiary origin) and many of the firemen feeling that their homes were threatened and their wives and little ones, perhaps, in great danger, became somewhat unfitted for effective work such as they might have done under other circumstances. They its company was induced to take it to this as well as others, also, knew, now, that the city was doomed and it was not to be exthose placed there by Mr. Hamilton and pected that they could face such elements having a good supply of water saved as were arrayed against them. Many of that building as well as the one adjoining. which had a shingle front on it facing unendurable suffering and faced duty King Square, where the heat was not so where death threatened in various forms. great as on other streets. The fire passed | but they were only men, and, in the main MARRIE WORKS and Chris. Robertson's stables and went to the city as soon as it was known that down Lainster, including the Gaol fences | the fire was assuming so threatening an corner of Mill and Union streets, while the men with branches were down on Union street, opposite Drury Lane. The buildings were a mass of flames, at th dwellings of Mathew Lindsay, Esq., of end of Smyth street and Drury Lane, and while the workers were vainly endeavoring to have the fire end there, a momentary gale took the flames across Union street to the opposite houses, and then they receded, but their touch had been fatal and in less than five minutes the erections were doomed to destruction .-Both sides of the street were soon in the grasp of the devouring element, and the men lingered so long in their struggle to save the buildings that, at last, they wer more's,) Troop's Vinegar factory at the foot of Main Street and others were obliged to drop their branch pipes and run up the street, after which they dragged the base after them. Another lot of men the hose after them. Another lot of men were working at the foot of Union street and by placing boards in front of their faces managed to battle with the until their clothing became singed.

A man named Murray, while pass through Queen street, which was aflame on the south side, was struck by a falling ground. He grose, staggered along a few steps towards the fire and fell again. apparently unable to rise. To rush into the furious flames and seize the man in his arms, bearing him to safety, was the the Globe, was dragged by hand down through Dock street, when it was impossible to attach the horses, and took its stand on the Market Square, where in less than half an hour after, it became the centre of a mælstron of fire. North and South Wharves, Water and Prince Wm. streets, the Barlow building and North side of Market Square, were belching out suffocating smoke and flame, and the dust whirled in blinding clouds, but still noble No. 3 stood its ground fighting desperate-

On its arrival the Portland engine took tions of the fire to the Halifax Press as up its position on the corner of Mill and North streets, and did effective service in preventing the fire eating its way along Mill street towards Portland Bridge, and through North street eastward. All the companies worked with great bravery, but all their efforts were useless, the fire

ly. Not until it became evident that was in progress, on behalf of Fredericton, offered the St. John Fire Department a fire engine and 3,000 feet of hose. They could be brought by rail from Fredericton in about two hours. Owing the short supply of water, however, the representatives of the Corporation and Fire Department thought it unnecessary to accept the generous offer.

When I had that the hotel might be in the least danger. I concluded to go into the street anyway and take a look for myself, as nearly every one said there was no danger and no one was inclined to have baggage brought down. We had not proceeded more than two rods from the house when I discovered a wood house at the side of the hotel on fire. This was enough for me. I ran back, and rushed up to my room, but my

Women and children wept freely and even | Line, Mr. Hawker, Druggist, who has full grown men could not restrain their enoctions.

The Mawker, Druggist, who has more than once distinguished bimself at fires, Capt. Taylor of the steamer, Mr.
Daisy, Mr. Meehan and others stood by the results of injuries, marked the faces of several men and others had received business and were mained in various ways.

Many men and women might be seen.

Many men and women might be seen.

Mr. Hawker, Druggist, who has more than once distinguished bimself at fires, Capt. Taylor of the steamer, Mr.
Daisy, Mr. Meehan and others stood by their work in a manner that excited the
several men and others had received business and women might be seen.

Many men and women might be seen.

Many men and women might be seen.

Mr. Hawker, Druggist, who has more than once distinguished bimself at fires, Capt. Taylor of the steamer, Mr.
Daisy, Mr. Meehan and others stood by their work in a manner that excited the
several men and others had received demiration of the hundreds who witnessed it, and the safety of whose property and more than once distinguished bimself at fires, Capt. Taylor of the steamer, Mr.

We tound shelter in the include the managed him from the nove waying and dragged him back to save him from the nove waying wall, which
with the expected explosion came down
with a thundering crash just as they got beyond its reach.

Lamb was thought to be the most utilize its facilities in such a way as to more than once distinguished bimself at forward and dragged him back to save him from the nove waying wall, which
with the expected explosion came down
with a thundering crash just as they got
beyond its reach.

Lamb was thought to be the more them, rushed forward and dragged him back to save him from the nove waying wall to expend
with the expected explosion came down
with a thundering crash just as they got
beyond its reach.

Lamb was thought to be the more than once distinguished by the save the forward and dragged him back to save him from the nove waying wall, which
with the expected explosion came down
with a thu

pleasant sensation on the square. After the Tower had been burnt to the ground the danger passed away. Of the burning the walls of the building, selecting exposed places and doing the most noble and

A boy 10 years old, named Murphy, of Charlotte street, finding their house suddenly in flames, seized his little brother aged two years, and dropped with him from the second storey window to the ground, thus saving the infant's life. A young man named Stevenson, of Golden Grove, was seen entering a house on Leinster street, and it is feared, perish-Drury Lane by jumping from a window. He was attempting to rescue a woman.

rticles from King Square, on Thursday, table fell upon his leg, breaking it. John H. Parks Esq., one of the director f the Old Ladies' Home procured a carriage, got the ladies into a tug boat and anded them safely in Carleton. This, it is certain, saved them from death. Mr. John E. Turnbull, and his son, ames, attempted to rescue a partly insane lady from the flames, but she struggled and held back until, their clothes catching ire, they were forced to drop her and make their escape, and she burned to death in the street. A drunken man was left in the gutter in rince Wm. street, and is supposed to ive perished. hose in his hand, at a second storey window in J. Costigan's house, on Wedneslay afternoon; his footslipped and he dropped to the ground. He did not sustain any great injury. While Olive's Ticket Agency was in fames, a man lying in the gutter on the apposite corner, in the stupor of drunkenss, in all probability perished. Timothy McGowan, of Straight Shore, ortland, was run over by a team; several of his ribs were broken, and other portions f his body received bruises. He is ex-

James Magee, foreman of No. 1 Hose ompany, was struck on the head with a rick and considerably hurt. As the alarm was sounded, Daniel Holand, a teamster, who was on Lloyd's wharf, started for his team and fell off beveen the vessel and wharf. Except some nises he was not badly injured.

A woman and child were in a house on myth street, the torrent of flame being so rrible that it was impossible to give any ussistance. She was last seen standing a window with the child in her arms, and u less than two minutes after was engulfed

Another woman had given birth to twin on the morning of the fire, and was with lifficulty extricated from her peril. milarly situated was taken to the Hospial and was also doing well at last accounts.

ured. He was taken to the Hospital. John Ross a tailor Michael Barrett was taken to the Hosital on account of having received severe burns from which it was feared he would not recover. He is improving now. Patrick Bradley and William Coxsetter were both badly burned. Daniel Dooley had a shoulder severely fractured and was taken to the Hospital. A gate blew down on a seven-year-old on of Mr. J. Newton Wilson and broke the little fellow's arm. He behaved hero ically under his sufferings, and is of the kind of stuff to bear what he has got "like a little man." Helen Davidson fell off a wharf in Carleton at low tide during the fire, breaking her arm and injuring her back. LOUISE POMEROY'S STORY. Louise Pomeroy an actress, who wa King street was doomed, did it remove to stopping at the Victoria Hotel, gives an account of her experiences and observa-follows :-"I was sleeping in the afternoon, but was erous offer.

SPECIE, BANK NOTES, ETC., SEEKING SAFETY.

When it become avident that the lunitrunk had been carried down. This I deand immense packages of notes; also great number of boxes of bonds and bills of exchange and office secretaries, many others, to compare the compared to the units, for thought I, it will be very easy to have the basket brought to the theatren to the vaults at their disposal. The use of the evaluts at their disposal. The use of the cellars and other parts of the bank as also permitted.

Turubull's ash and blind factory was the first building to take fire in the lower portion of the city. So rapidly did the flames spread that Mr. Turubull's stone dwelling on the opposite side of Main St., was consumed almost before the family could escape, Mrs. Turubull being lowered by a rope from a second storey window.

A great fight was made at the International and Anchor Line Warehouses. At the former Capt. Chisholm agent of the Line, Mr. Hawker, Druggist, who has more than once distinguished himself at the could not be had at any more than once distinguished himself at the could not be had at any more than once distinguished himself at the could not be had at any more than once distinguished himself at the count of the cart and any many though the plays as if nothing had happened to the cart and carried the luggage to a farm house on the mouse of the theatren to the theatren to the wary, and in a direction where the fire could not go. He first thought of taking it to the Queen Square. If he had done so it would all have been burned, as Queen Square and King Quare were a bed off fames, thus destroying all the property moved there for presented the Mr. Turubull's stone dwelling on the opposite side of Main St., was consumed almost before the family could escape, Mrs. Turubull being lower end among them, covering the fleeing men with a blinding smoke and dust. Anderson, Ewald and mong them, covering the fleeing men with a blinding smoke and dust. Anderson, Ewald who were in the immediate vicinity, begun to runtine to eithe was also permitted.

A TERMINITY EXPLOSION

A Test subject the limmediate vicinity, begun to runde the d sought out often proved as unsafe as those that were deserted.

Queen and King Squares the Old Burying Ground, and other open spaces were speedily piled with bedding, chairs, tables and other valuables. Then women and children gathered to the same spots, partly to try and partly because they knew no there places of safety. The burning of the Bell Tower, the flight of cinders in all directions, and the danger of its falling on those who were near it, produced an untime of the second of th dan the terrific calamity. One of two funerals were to have taken place yester-day, and the corpses had to be moved two or three times from houses that burned The burnt district embraces a space farther than the eye can see through the and dust, and presents a scene of smoke ruin and desolation no pen can pourtray." ROBBERY. -Robbery was carried on by many rascals in the boldest and most unblushing manner, while others pursued their nefarious work under the pretence of aiding to save goods. Some went around, both with and without teams, and grabbed up anything they fancied, boldly saying, "All right' ed in the flames. when interfered with, and marching off John Leary was very badly hurt, in with their spoils if not prevented. Others when interfered with, and marching off were seen emptying the pockets of clothes and pilfering from drawers and trunks, while appearing to be working very earn-While a boy was engaged in removing estly to save goods.

Many risked their lives in burning stores to secure for themselves what was most valuable. The jewelry places especially suffered. Wherever one was open, they rushed in and seized upon watches, rings and all that was worth taking. The hardware stores met with great losses in the from the burning districts, men and boys were to be seen carrying boxes, bundles saved from the elements of fire and water, became a less to the owner equally as if

Mrs. Fitzgerald, who was very ill of is expected that some $40,000 in all will a car-load of provisions, clothing, etc, Mrs. Lovett, of Prince William Street.

had got a lot of valuables together a rascal came along and said "I'll carry that for you, poor women." She gave him part of her load and has not seen him zens were lost, but there seems to have sums.

works and warehouse to preserve them and prevent explosion. A great quantity was stolen out and carried away. Much will doubtless be returned on payment of salvage. Some persons may, ment of salvage. Some persons may, ment of salvage. Some persons may, loubtless, have property which was finally abandoned by robbers, but in many cases thieves will have to be paid for restoring plunder. BIG CHARGES BY TEAMSTERS

The teamsters appeared to look on the father-in-law's) house and desired the man Inspital and is now fast recovering. quite a nice lot of property that might insurance, penn otherwise have been destroyed.

walls had fallen the front stood alone, ap-Corporation building.

AN UNFORTUNATE OCCURRENCE. On Friday afternoon it was determined that the more dangerous walls should be thrown down and the services of the Artillery were called into requisition. Major Cunard by order of Lt. Col. Foster, marched a squad of men to the vicinity of the requiring first attention. Sentinels were all their efforts were useless, the fire she felt anxious lest it might be serious as the wind was so high. Very soon after brick and stone, or distance and the torent of water were but as drops on the ocean of flames.

A FREDERICTON OFFER OF AN ENGINE AND HOSE.

Mr. C. W. Beckwith, City Clerk, Fredericton, who was in town while the fire and the tore sweet and the tore and everything in it, except a little clothing, a sheet of flame. When I returned to my room after this call I felt an impulse to the fire, and called my long from the lady atterward that in half an hursh saw her home and everything in it, except a little clothing, a sheet of flame. When I returned to my room after this call I felt an impulse to the fire, and called my long from the lady atterward that in half an hursh saw her home and everything in it, except a little clothing, a sheet of flame. When I returned to my room after this call I felt an impulse to the fire, and called my long from the lady atterward that in half an hursh saw her home and everything in it, except a little clothing, a sheet of flame. When I returned to my room after this call I felt an impulse to the fire, and I has need to my room after this call I felt an impulse to the fire, and a lade of the home and everything in it, except a little clothing, a sheet of flame. When I returned to my room after this call I felt an impulse to the fire, and a lade of the hotel we met Mrs. Russell, who asked me "if I had pasked?" which was ed without proper effect, but stones and between the fire around so as to warn off any persons who might otherwise place themselves in danger, and Lt. Col. Foster directed the plactoring of powder near the base of the danger of the dark of the mistage of the danger.

Had of the hotel we met Mrs. Russell, who asked me "if I had pasked?" which was edulated the plactoring of powder near the base of the danger of the dark of the plactoring in the call of the lady at the requiring first at as regular distances as possible around so as to warn off any perso was in progress, on behalf of Fredericton, the first hint I had that the hotel might bricks were thrown around considerably; then, a heavier charge was placed and fired; but it, also, failed to bring down the bruises and were maimed in various ways.

A third charge, said to contain 150 lbs

May men and others had received bruises and were maimed in various ways.

May men and women might be seen, utterly exhausted,, with the fatigue and the heat which became insufferable, drag the heat which became insufferable, drag which became insufferable distance the horrible red sheet of fire that if published they would fill about that the blood disaster was known of a certainty. Chat back and from the match as the time.

It was, thus, well along in the next day when the overwhelming character of the disaster was known of a certainty. Chat when the office to tell the clerk I would not give up my room, but would return as should return as shou

Lower Cove. Mrs. Reed was found where she had evi-ently fallen, exhausted by the heat, half her body upon the street. Benjamin Williams, Germain street. Harold Gilbert, near Victoria Hotel.

William McNeill, of James Adams & Co.'s establishment.

of Manson's Commercial Palace. Two men, whose names are unknown.

are reported run over and killed.

Market Square) leaves a wife and child. noes, articles of every kind and descrip- was at its height. His cries were fright- making some $26.000 raised in one day in tion—as the fruits of spoil; and what was to hear, as he vainly endeavored to get Halifax. The city was also divided into consumption, died after having been re- be raised in that city. moved to the Hospital. Michael Donohue died at the Hospital that large contributions in money, clothand fled from her house with them, when after having been carried from a burning a rascal came along and said "I'll carry building to the Hospital by his sister.

Messrs. Pickford & Black gave $400, building to the Hospital by his sister. It was rumored that several other citi- Edward Jost $50, and others, handsome been no good foundation for the reports.

An old woman jumped from a window of one of the houses in the same street, but escaped uninjured, being received in the teamster demanded $30, cash down before he would budge an inch, when at the General's suggestion the ex-Mayor must be for the morning of the fire walked to the Hospital and is now fast recovering.

In the teams and desired the man to haul away a load of household effects. The teamster demanded $30, cash down before he would budge an inch, when at the General's suggestion the ex-Mayor knocked him down with his fist, loaded the team and made off with it, saving the floss tall her property, and one of her children was missing. A woman living on the west side of Queen Square, returned to her home to find it in flames and her four children, she knew not where. "Ah," almost shricked a woman in reply to a question as to whether she was insured, "How are the poor to pay for insured," How are the poor to pay for insurance." This is the story of hundreds—no insurance." This is the story of hundreds—no insurance, penniless and without home for the children was missing. A woman living on the west side of Queen Square, returned to her home to find it in flames and her four children, she knew not where. "Ah," almost shricked a woman in reply to a question as to whether she was insured. "How are the poor to pay for insurance." This is the story of hundreds—no insurance. The woman in reply to a question as to whether she was insured. "How are the poor to pay for insurance." This is the story of hundreds—no insurance. The woman in reply to a question as to whether she was insured. "Ah," almost shricked a woman in reply to a question as to whether she was insured. "Ah," almost shricked a woman in reply to a question as to whether she was insured. "Ah," almost shricked a woman in reply to a question as to whether she was insured. "Ah," almost shricked a woman in reply to a question as to whether she was insured. "Ah," almost shricked a woman in reply to a question as to whether she was insured. "Ah," almost shri

An eve witness savs :ank, on the collect of recognition.

Germain Street purnt out of recognition.

The city was horribly illuminated for miles. which to the number of about twenty, stood out in bold relief in three tiers, one above the other, surmounted by a handsome and heavy cornice and dome. The latter only was burned off and as the side

SAFES pearing to totter for its fall across Prince | are coming out of the fire in all conditions. his make which saved the books, papers, to people abroad—was in ashes, the neetc., of the owners. It may be said that cessity for relief was the first idea that safes turned out well or ill—just as a good | presented itself, and a few citizens who many people do-according to the circum. were early made sensible of the many stances in which they were placed. The thousands who were left homeless and local manufacturer being on the spot took hungry, at once went around to their good care to say his safes were all right, neighbors for the purpose of raising money and that those of other makers were not so, and a car load of such articles as would be but our observations lead us to the con-Post-Office ruins, they being considered as clusion that the fire paid little attention prompt kindness of the railway authorities, to the prestige of individual manufacturer. a box car containing the offerings of We observe that Mr. Flaherty assaulted | Chatham was attached to the Express around so as to warn off any persons who Mr. Craig of Boston, agent for Hall's train and was now in St. John, and the safes, on Saturday last because he heard | Committee were ready to hand it over to the latter had placed some charred papers | those appointed to receive such gifts. He on exhibition, labeled as being a specimen expressed regret that the offering was not of the protection afforded by Flaherty's larger, but it represented the sympathy of Safes. Mr. Craig denied the accusation. Chatham for stricken St. John, and would, but Mr. Flaherty seems to have been determined to assault his business rival. Such conduct seems almost inexcusable considering the time and place.

AID FOR THE SUFFERERS. C. H. Fairweather Esq., Treasurer, of gunpowder, was divided and placed, the Citizens' Relief Committee, said to the part in front and part behind the base of Citizens' Committee from Chatham, on the wall, at about the centre, and all Friday afternoon, that the calamity had being in readiness, the tube was being developed an amount of sympathy that driven to its place when, by some mis-management or mistake, of which we and humane. When the overwhelming When it became evident that the business part of the city was in the greatest peril, there was a gr at rush to the Bank of New Brunswick and its vaults. Bankers brought great, heavy boxes of species and immense packages of notes; also great number of boxes of bonds and bills of extractional management or mistake, of which we clothing I could, but was obliged to send it down and leave very many things, none of New Brunswick and its vaults. Bankers brought great, heavy boxes of species and immense packages of notes; also great number of boxes of bonds and bills of extractional myself, as the truckman started away with Mr. Rossell's and my trunks, for thought I, it will be very easy trunks, for thought I, it will be very easy to make the interior or mistake, of which we failed just afterwards to get a satisfactory explanation, it was discovered that the explosion would be immediate. Scarcely had Lt. Ewing, gunners Fred. Langan, John Anderson, Walter Lamb, and others who were in the immediate vicinity, begun to make the immediate vicinity, begun one, in the matter of relieving the necessation of the splace which, by were failed just afterwards to get a satisfactory explanation, it was discovered that the explosion would be immediate. Scarcely had Lt. Ewing, gunners Fred. Langan, John Anderson, Walter Lamb, and others who were in the immediate vicinity, begun one, in the morning to make the management or mistake, of which we clothing I could. But was obliged to send it down and leave very many things, none of which, however, belonged to my threating and prominent individuals in the Dominion, United States and Great Britain seem to have acted, almost as if they were one, in the management or mistake, of which we clothing the clothing th son, Ewing, Langan, and Lamb were ment have not been multiplied, but prompt Canamoers, Capt. O'Neil, brig Rambler nill and through his office are:-

Thursday last, at the Temperance Hall; goods were destroyed, but they are fairly the Lt.-Governor presided, and the Archbishop and other Clergy, merchants and business some time this week. They others were present, although it was a public holiday in the city and many had office in Mr. S. D. Berton's house, which prepared for the enjoyment of such a time. | was out of the line of fire. Mr Berton About $10,500 were subscribed on the says: spot, Hon. Wm. Stairs going on the list Samuel Corbett, furniture manufacturer

Justice, A. G. Jones, M. P., Esson & Co., of Prince William street, is among the A & W. Smith, H. Hesslein, Geo. H. A & W. Smith, H. Alexand, The subscription of the resident Starr, Cunard & Co. E. Morrison & Co., Parish of Newcastle for relief of St. John, Garret Cotter, of Mr. James S. May's D. Cronan and R. Boak & Son, gave Straight Shore, were killed by the walls of Manson's Commercial Palace.

Straight Shore, were killed by the walls of Manson's Commercial Palace.

Stays 8250 each; Stayner & Co., Dr. Parker, Jas. Thompson, W. J. Coleman, S. A. White, Edward-Binney, Almon & Mackintosh, and Smith Bros., gave $200 each; James Butler & Co. gave $150; the Mayor, the Lieut. Governor. Rev. Goo. M. Grant. St. John, to the effect that $900 had The body of an unknown man was found the Lieut. Governor, Rev. Geo. M. Grant, on Prince William Street at four o'clock Rev. Geo. Hill, the Archbishop, Senator of Montreal. In a few days the balance Rev. Geo. Hill, the Archolshop, of Montreal. In a few days of the subscriptions will be forwarded.

Stirling, and Ald. Brookfield, gave $100
On Tuesday last the following despatch on Friday morning.

Two men, named Thomas Holmes and Stirling, and Ald. Brookfield, gave $100 James Kemp, were drowned while con- each, and many gave sums of $50, $25, $20 veying goods in a boat from Reed's Point to a vessel in the stream. Kemp (the Mayor, M. J. Dwyer, W. J. Coleman, and same manner. In nearly every direction latter, aclerkin Mr. Farrell's clothing store, Ald. Dewolf started at once with car loads of provisions for St. John. In ad-A lad named Fox was suffocated in the dition the city subscribed $10,000 and the of cloth, articles of clothing, boots and house 269 Princess street, when the fire Governor, for the Government, $5,000—

Latest information from Halifax shows districts and the good work went on. It

FREDERICTON. since.

The night after the fire the safe of John W. Nicholson, Esq., was blown open, but the robbers had only their labor for their pains as nothing of value to such persons had been left in it.

Messrs. T. McAvity & Sons suffered from sample cases of thieving. They rolled some casks of varnish and other stuff into a boom in the dock near their works and warehouse to preserve them and was drowned while crossing the harbor.

Deen no good foundation for the reports.

SAD SCENES.

Many scenes of wretchedness were witnessed after the fire. The News says:

The condition of Mrs. Holmes, a sailor's widow, living near Reed's Point is lamentable. But recently she lost her husband at sea; Wednesday she beheld every vestige of her property swept from before her open from before her open that something must be done, and that, at once. There was no attempt at organization. Indeed, many leading citizens, including Mr. Snowball, Mr. Morrison, Mr. Joyce, manager for Guy, Stewart & Co., and others were not in town. Hon. Senator Muirhead, and some other gentlement was drowned while crossing the harbor.

One some casks of varnish and other works and warehouse to preserve them and the control of the reports.

About four o'clock on Thursday afternoon it became apparent to our people that something must be done, and that, at once. There was no attempt at organization. Indeed, many leading citizens, including Mr. Snowball, Mr. Morrison, was drowned while crossing the harbor.

One some casks of varnish and other works and warehouse to preserve them and the condition of the reports.

About four o'clock on Thursday afternoon it became apparent to our people that something must be done, and that, at once. There was no attempt at organization. Indeed, many leading citizens, including Mr. Morrison, was consistent to our people that something must be done, and that, at once.

The condition of Mrs. Holmes, a sailor's widow, living near Reed's Point is lamentable. But recently she lost that something must be done, and that, at once.

The con About four o'clock on Thursday after-As soon as the character of the disaster was understood at Fredericton, measures were taken for the relief of the sufferers. What cooked provisions could be collected in half an hour were dispatched by Thursin the Railway Station awaiting means of transport to St. John. The response of the citizens was most hearty. From the richest to the poorest every one, with but is pitiable in the extreme, but there is a courage sustaining them and a sympathy for others which is remarkable. A poor woman told the writer the above particulars concerning Mrs. Holmes. "But my good woman," said he, "did you lose nothing?" "Oh, yes," said she, "but that poor woman lost her son, while I, thank God, saved my children. If you have comfort and charity to bestow give it to her." attached to the express train which passed Chatham junction just before midnight, and get aid into the destroyed city by the necessity of action, it is probable that a regular meeting would have been called and, perhaps, the results might have been greater so far as the matter of contributions was concerned, although yerv valuations was concerned, although yerv valuations was concerned, although yerv valuations which passed the provide the passed of the provide that a regular meeting would have been called and, perhaps, the results might have been the provide that a regular meeting would have been called and, perhaps, the results might have been the provide that a regular meeting would have been called and, perhaps, the results might have been the provide that a regular meeting would have been called and, perhaps, the results might have been the provide that a regular meeting would have been called and, perhaps, the results might have been the provide that a regular meeting would have been called and, perhaps, the results might have been the provide that a regular meeting would have been called and, perhaps, the results might have been the provide that a regular meeting would have been called and, perhaps, the results might have been the provide that a regular meeting would have been called and, perhaps, the results might have been the provide that a regular meeting would have been called and, perhaps, the results might have been the provide the provide that a regular meeting would have been called and, perhaps the provide that a regular meeting would have been called and, perhaps the provide that a regular meeting would made for the very short notice given. On Thursday and Friday a large number of return on Friday night a public meeting was called in the City Hall at half past nine. A vote was passed recommending calamity as a regular god-send for themselves, and some of them charged $40 a load for hauling.

One fellow was very properly treated by Ex-Mayor Smith, who, with General Warner, was at Mr. Troop's (Mr. S's father-in-law's) house and desired the man the City Council to give $5000 to the relie fund. A. F. Randolph, Esq., in moving the resolution, stated he would add $500 to the amount. Hon. Mr. Fraser-for the like sum for himself. Sheriff Temple gave $200 and Mr. Everett $100. During the day subscription lists had been circulated which were freely signed. In money and provisions Fredericton, it is said, will donate at least $2.00 per head of her population. A Concert was to have been given on Wednesday in aid of the relief fund less, and without hope for Some of the money, collected was in-It is impossible for us to enumerate all the offers of aid and give details of the S. Z. EARLE, MAYOR: vested in such articles as seemed to be imilarly situated was taken to the Hospial and was also doing well at last accounts.

Bayard Thomson's foot was badly intered the was taken to the Hospital.

Among the most dangerous of the walls left standing were those of the Savings and the place at the dead house was heart rending. Numbers of bodies were there whole was sent to St. John in charge of left standing were those of the Savings and the place at the place as the place at the place as the crowd was so dense. One woman was found on Andrews and D. G. Smith. At the meet-ever St. John has been known.

An eye witness says:

"The scene at the dead house was heart whole was sent to St. John in charge of burned city, so we publish the following message has but few could get at the place as the place as the place as the place as the crowd was so dense. One woman was found on available for immediate use, and the burned city, so we publish the following message has dear the dead house was heart rending. Numbers of bodies were there whole was sent to St. John has been known.

The following message has dear the dead house was heart rending. Numbers of bodies were there whole was sent to St. John has been known.

The following message has dear the dead house was heart rending. Numbers of bodies were there whole was sent to St. John has been known.

"The scene at the dead house was heart rending. Numbers of bodies were there whole was sent to St. John has been known."

The following message has dear the offers of aid and give details of the contributions that have poured into the burned city, so we publish the following message has dear the offers of aid and give details of the contributions that have poured into the other whole was sent to St. John has been known."

The scene at the dead house was heart whole was sent to St. John has been known.

recognition. | ing of citizens held in the St. John Court terbury Streets, the Custom House walls, on the Water St. side, the Maritime Bank partition walls, a corner of the Victoria Hotel, some partition walls near the foot of King Street, other than those of the Victoria Bank of King Street, other than those of the Victoria Was to be seen from Bangor, Halifax, Fredericton, and one or two other places were trains were crowded with excited people. There were no cabs. All conveyances were taken to carry goods. Some people of the victoria was to be held.

The city was horribly illuminated for miles around. The burning liquor flared in the Committees from Bangor, Halifax, Fredericton, and one or two other places were called upon to report. The members of Chatham Committee were not aware of would probably be very large and asking if Lt, Governor Tilley, Charles H. Fairof King Street, other than those of the Maritime Bank and the Post Office front.

The latter was the handsomest of all the ornamental fronts of the city. It was of freestone, which formed a background for highland twin columns of red granite.

The latter was the handsomest of all the furniture after all. One poor woman had taken her six children away to a house half a mile distant. When she returned the house was on fire. She rushed into that owing to the difficulties through has been sent to London. It was this out which facts connected with the fire were telegram which gave rise on Friday last obtained, it was nearly five o'clock on to the report that London had offered Thursday afternoon before the people $100,000. It is probable that her subthe scription will amount to that sum. of Chatham were made aware of extent of the disaster. When the fact that nearly the whole city south of has given $25,000. The Lt. Govern William Street against the ruins of the Mr. Flaherty announces a list of those of King Street, -St. John, as it was known announced the fact in person at the Citizens meeting in St. John on Friday. Among the earlier gifts are the following. THE DOMINION GOV'T has given $20,000 for immediate use Portland, Maine, has raised $8,000. Chicago, gives $10,000. At a citizens' meeting held in Montreal it was resolved to ask the City Council to immediately available. Through the The City Council of Toronto voted $20,-000. Toronto's subscriptions now amount to $70,000.

> dollars. On Sunday, steamers arrived with pr no doubt, be followed by other contribu tions from the same town. Three hearty cheers were given for Amherst sent $1200 Chatham and then the meeting continued

Dorchester has sent several hundred

Yarmouth, N. S., contributed 100 bbls to receive other committees and make dour, 34 do. oatmeal, 28 do. pilot bread, 3 arrangements to meet the exigencies of casks hams, 3 bags rice, 2 barrels beef, harrel crackers. Subscriptions are still coming in from The railway employees at Moncton have itizens of Chatham and more are expecteach contributed one day's pay. J. & C. ed. The following memoranda speak for Harris, Moncton, $200.

The steamer Empress brought over $1, Contributions for sufferers by late fire 400 from Annapolis and a large quantity of provisions from points along the Windsor Men in employment of J. B. Snowball, St. Andrews, $400.

tributes $1000.

Canning, N. S., $271.

Sackville, lot of provisions and money,

The Board of Trade, same city, $5,000.

589 lbs of tea, 20 cases soluble chocolate, which were supplied from the Dockyard.

THE NAMES OF THE HOUSELESS.

Collected by Foreman R. McGuire, Collected by Foreman A. Fraser, ollected by Stevedore J. O'Keeffe, Junr., ollected by Stevedore P. 12.55 Alex. Loggie, Esq., Burnt Church, Capt. Rutherford, barque Sarah behalf. Charlottetown, P. E. I., $6,000. National Division, S. of T., North Am-Several other Stevedores are erica, have ordered the Relief Committee in their contributions The collections at Hon. Mr. Muirhead's New York, Boston and other cities of n Ellis, Esq. 's subscription, $25.00 John Brown, harbormaster, Dr. John Pallen, Dan'l McLaughlin, lumberman, Portland and Indieen made cottage belonging to Mr. Tapley wn. A ed at the latter place on Friday, but, rn. setting fire to a load of hay. seen and knocked about by the infuriated people, some whom endeavored to use the rope with which the Major was tying him, "Chatham has done nobly, and the to hang him with. Cunard drew his pistol but not without receiving a pistol ball in NEWCASTLE. the leg from some one in the crowd as he amount to over $1,000, and of this sum about $300 was subscribed in Dougla town Hon. R. Hutchison giving $250. On Monday night the Relief Committee been placed to his credit at the Bank still in the flesh was received from Mayor Earle :

also despatched on Saturday.

RICHIBUCTO.

churches on Sunday last. St. John, June 26, 1877. To Relief Committee.—
Convey our warm and heartfelt thanks to the noble citizens of Newcastle and Douglastown, for their timely and liberal aid to the destitute and suffering of St. The following is an approximate esti mate of the total risks held by the veral Insurance Companies within the bounds of the burned section of the city

Imperial of London In addition to the subscriptions in cash, Phœnix of Brooklyn, British American, (Robt. Marshall, agent,) commercial Union, (A. C. & G.

Snan, eg. 1 (A. C. Commercial Union, (A. C. Commercial Union, (A. C. E. Fairweather, agent,) 300,000

Royal Insurance Co., (J. S. & J. Kaye, agents.) 500,000

Stadacona (W. W. Street, agent), 300,000

480,000
600,000 Our Richibucto Correspondent writing on Monday last says:—
A subscription list for the St. John suf-Lancashire (J. M. Grant), Queen (C. E. L. Jarvis), North British and Mercantile, (H'y Jack), Guardian (Henry Ranney), Liverpool, & London & G (Wm. M. Jarvis), Northern (L. J. Almon), Royal Canadian, M. & T.B. Robin-dozen places and attempt in half a

At a Portland wharf on Frienda young villain named Day, belonging to the Straight Shore it is said was detected in passed from the coach to the station.

trace them to no reliable source

There were stories told of hangings and

There were also unfounded rumors of prominent persons lost or burned, including Peter Besnard, Ezekiel McLeod, Silas

Alward, Esgrs., but those gentlemen are

The Fire was the subject of either di-

INSURANCE

$310,000

IN THE CHURCHES.

400,000 son), Provincial, (H. Reeve), in half an hour were dispatched by 1 nursed day's afternoon train, and a Relief Committee at once set to work, and by cleven p. m., two car loads of cooked food were in the Railway Station awaiting means of the Railway Sta Central, of Fredericton, (George

The total loss has been estimated as nearly as possible at about from twenty to one or two exceptions, contributed to the twenty-three millions, and the total amount utmost of their ability, allowance being of insurance is about $7,000,000. It is prohable that all the above amounts of the different Companies are under, rather than The Daily Telegraph, News and Globe > duced form. We hope they will soon resume their former appearance. The Free-man and Watchman will also soon reap-THE PROVINCIAL EXHIBITION which it was proposed to hold the present season at Fredericton will be abandoned > for this year-a very proper course on the THE QUEEN SYMPATHISES WITH ST. JOHN. The following despates from Mackenzie speaks for its press the great sorrow with which she has heard of the terrible calamity that has be-fallen the city of St. John, and her Majesty's sympathy for the sufferers." / REBUILDING, ETC.

OTTAWA, June 22.

The following message has been receive

In compliance with a resolution of common Council and requisition of Citizens the Mayor called a meeting of owners of property within the burnt district and citizens generally for yesterday (Wednesday)

The widening and improvement of The lying out of new streets.

The mode of construction of buildings n the burnt district.

The best means of securing funds for the urpose of rebuilding the city. The St. John papers announce the following as among those who are building: PRINCESS STREET.-W. H. Hayward business and dwelling house; John Burke, dwelling house and business: James Lee dwelling house and business; John Berryman, 5 dwelling houses and business place

J. Munro, trunk factory and dwelling; libert Bent, dwelling and warehouse Richard Nugent, barn and dwelling; Wiggins' building. The Union Bank of P. E. Island has MECKLENBURG STREET-Sergeant T. Dobson, cor. Wentworth; Mr. Causey WENTWORTH STREET-W, C. Hill; Mr. Driscoll.

Michael Thompson; Owen Doherty: John

QUEEN STREET-G. S. Fisher MAIN STREET-James Tole, J. E. Turnvisions, &c., from Calais and Eastport, and | bull, McCarthy & McShane, Armstrong a car load of provisions also arrived from | Bros.' foundry, cor. Charlotte street exter LEINSTER STREET-R. Punting, James

Sullivan, Water Works Company. KING SQUARE-J. & R. Milligan, stone and marble works. Horsefield STREET-J. H. Puller paint shop and dwelling; Mr. Hennigar, ason works and dwelling house. St. James Street-Wm. Lewis, dwellng house and business place: John

Littlehale, George Young. CARMARTHEN STREET-A. Harvey CHARLOTTE STREET EXTENSION-John BRITAIN STREET. I & T. Ma SHEFIELD STREET-J. McCal.K. Messrs. Farnworth & Jardine, Liver sexton St. James, three ho

pool, G. B., have telegraphed Alex. Gib- Oaks, John Porter, John ueets. son, Esq., to place on their account, £250 O'Keefe. SYDNEY STREET. - MidTO $2 stg., at the disposal of the Relief Com-Duke; M. McAleer, Janished Queen; Robert McKage, C Mr. Lowther, of Dublin, has also authorized Mr. Gibson to aid the sufferers on his | Britain DUKE STREET .- J.

Charlotte; Johnston Wilkin stone Wilkins, jr., M. works. PRINCE WM. PT-Wm. J. & A. McMillan, & F. the United States are sending very large Kinnear. WATER STREENO The Produce Exchange of Chicago, concor. Market Squa T. & J.

On Union sty Mesar Bros. are erectin tempory shed one storey and a-heigh for their junk H. M. S. Argus arrived at St. John. rom Halifax on Saturday, with-20 bbls. and 37½ hogsheads salt pork, 11 1-2 hhds and 13 tierces salt beef. 21 cases chocolate, Bryden Bros. lrs. are putting up a ouse on the sameet. On Smyth Stref. & A. Campbell are nstructing a blanith shop one storey Maywell. Elliot Bradley are also erecting a temporyacksmith shop a On Nelson street;m. H. Brown i many cases, as the new places of refuge nearwhiles, to kill the heat of their was lone, the Academy of Music and all previously from a roof-slate. He was matter, with Halifax, and Bangor, Am- over $1,500 and they ought to be a ged, if we fail to pass off upon them a quarter Robertson's wharf for rly stood, Hugh reaser's Wharf, next to Shipping May