For two years I was greatly troubled with kidney disease. I suffered intense pain, and frequently was unable to work. I doctored at intervals, but got little or no relief. I was about to give up and the pains were frequent and intense. About this time I saw South American Kidney Cure advertised as a speedy relief for all kidney troubles. I purchased a bottle,

I consider it worth its weight in

THE SUN PRINTING COMPANY,

A man named Oshiah T. Parlee expired while working for J. S. Gibbon & Co. on the 2nd inst. He was engaged wheeling coal from the shed out into the yard, and took a wheel-barrow load to the end of the building. He did not return and J. S. Gibbon went to look for him. He found him sitting on the handles of the wheelbarrow, with his head hanging down. Mr. Gibbon called him, but received no answer. Then, knowing something was wrong, he called several workmen and they carried Parlee into the office. The man was unconscious and was probably dead before he reached the office. Coroner Berryman was summoned and ordered his removal to his late residence on Sheriff street. Parlee was about thirty-five years of age, and leaves a wife and two children.

That the government of Canada purpose putting a duty on tea seems to be believed throughout the country.
This is shown by the large quantities of tea being imported through the various ports to which the steamers from the United Kingdom run. The Furnace and the tea trade is expected to six days out from this port for London, will come back to St. John direct, leaving London on the 20th inst. and reaching here on the 5th prox at the latest. This is fully six days in advance of the date fixed for the opening of parliament and will enable the tea merchants of St. John to import all the tea they wish to bring in before the government have a chance to put a duty on it. The Danmora will probably arrive landing her cargo here on Saturday, and is widely and favorably known. Mr. Jones made many friends during the years he was managing the Woodstock Woodworking factory, and he is known to have passed his law examinations with highest honors.
Both gentlemen are graduates of the Boston law school—Woodstock Dispatch.

The following card of thanks, signed by Oshiah T. Parlee, of 38 South street, New York, appeared in Friday's N. Y. Herald: "On behalf of Capt. Poland and crew of the abandoned schooner Mary Sprague, we herewith wish to express our hearty thanks to Capt. Fraser, of the steamer Jason, for his brave rescue of the crew of the above named vessel on Jan. 29, and his kind treatment to them while on board his ship." The Jason has been running between Halifax and the West Indies of late.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mullin, who died suddenly of heart failure Thursday, took place Saturday afternoon from her late residence on Hazen street and was attended by a large number of citizens. Services were held in St. John's church by Rev. John de Soyres, after which the remains were conveyed to the Rural cemetery.
The deceased was a daughter of the late Joe Sullivan, shipbuilder, and widow of James Mullin, one of the city. She leaves three sons, one of whom, Frank W., arrived from Boston Thursday, and one married daughter.

A. S. Patterson, of the Massey-Harris Co., who has been ordered to go to Australia, received a presentation from the members of the St. John B.
& A. club on Tuesday evening. The present consisted of a gold ring, with the club's letters raised on the band.
William White, in the presence of the president, made the presentation, and referred feelingly to the loss which would be sustained by the departure of Mr. Patterson. Mr. Patterson courteously acknowledged the gift, and spoke of the regret he experienced at severing his pleasant associations here.

C. D. Boss of the new biscuit factory is a man with large sympathies for undertakings in the interest of the people. This, indeed, can be said of all of the Americans who are residents of St. John. They have shown their readiness to help any laudable enterprise for the benefit of the city.
Mr. Boss was talking today in a casual way with James Manchester and Mr. Manchester spoke casually of the public library enterprise. "It would be glad to help that," said Mr. Boss and at once filled out a check for $100 in aid of the fund for the purchase of the site. It was all done so quickly and pleasantly that Mr. Manchester could scarcely find words with which to express his admiration.—Saturday's Globe.

The following is from the Roeland Banner, the J. A. Whitaker motion being a brother of Rev. Dr. W. S.
Whitaker, the Presbyterian divine, well known in this city: J. A. Whitaker of the Goodenough mine, cashed the first check at the newly opened branch of the Bank of British North America at Kelso, and it was a whooper, being very nearly $14,000. It was drawn by George Alexander, president of the Kootenay Ore company, in payment for 45 tons of Goodenough ore, which had been run through the Kelso city stamp works, assayed and purchased by the company. The assay return of the entire shipment was 54.3 ounces in silver and 70 per cent. lead to the ton, worth, after deducting all charges for sampling, smelting, freight and duty, about $360 per ton.

In the high court of justice, Dublin, recently an appeal was allowed in the case of Llanvne v. Dixon & Sons, Belfast. This was the case of the owners of the Norwegian bark Roff, who brought an action for $500 damages for the loss of the vessel loading at the Miramichi. The lower court decided in favor of plaintiff and defendants appealed on the ground that six witnesses at least could be found in New Brunswick to testify that the vessel was damaged by the ice. Two of the witnesses were called. The case was so stormy that timber could not be put on board.
