ORCHARD MAKES DETAILED CONFESSION OF MURDER

Awful Story Told in Court Yesterday Without a Tremor

Prisoner is Ontario Man and Described His Wife and Child in 1896, Going to Vancouver With Another Man's Wife—Prosecution Scores.

BOISE, Idaho, June 6.—Harry Orchard, who today was continuing his confession of the murder of Frank Steenberg by an infernal machine that directly opens the way for his own conviction and execution for the mortal offense. He swore that the assassination of Steenberg was first suggested by Haywood, was plotted by Haywood, Moyer, Pettibone and himself; was financed by Haywood, and executed by himself after the failure of an attempt in which Jack Simpkins had participated.

Orchard lifted the total of his own victims to eighteen, detailed the circumstances under which he tried to murder former Governor Peabody, Judge Goodard, Judge Gabbert, General Sherman Bell, Dave Moffatt and Frank Ilene.

Then under cross-examination, Orchard confessed guilty of the sordid social crimes of deserting his young child and wife in Ontario, going to British Columbia with Hattie Simpson, the wife of another man, and committing bigamy by marrying a third woman at Cripple Creek.

Through the shocking details of murder plots, stories of secret bomb-making and tales of man-hunts, with sawed-off shot guns and infernal machines as weapons, the witness went on in the same, quiet, off-hand manner that marked his demeanor yesterday. His voice dropped to lower keys as the pitiful stories of the long hunt for Steenberg narrowed down to the last day and he told of the race from the hotel to the home to beat his victim with the death-trap and the meeting in the evening gloom as the victim walked unconsciously to his room. Through it all he winced but once, and that was when the defense made him name his six sisters and his one brother and give their residences in Ontario and New York.

The defense fought the story with a multiplicity of objections and succeeded in heading off an attempt to tell the story of the murder of Arthur Collins at Telluride and temporarily shut out the contents of a telegram received and a telegram sent by Orchard after his arrest. Except for this, the State managed to get in its story intact.

The State today began its corroboration of Orchard's criminal tale by producing the lead casting of the Peabody bomb. Orchard identified it, swore that he brought it from Canon City to Denver and then on to Wallace, where he gave it to a man named Cunningham. It was thrown into the river, and the State promises later to prove its recovery.

Haywood and his kinsfolk listened quietly to the long recital and about their first show of feeling was one of amusement when Attorney Richardson began his onslaught and brought out Orchard's domestic crimes.

There were the same precautions and the same armed guards today to protect Orchard, and the same court-room

GOVERNORS ARE NOT OF ONE MIND

Dr. Cullen Will Not, However, Be Called as President of Acadia—Prof. Case in Town.

(Special to The Sun.)
BRIGHTON, June 6.—Alfred Horsley, alias Harry Orchard, the self-confessed assassin of ex-Gov. Frank Steenberg, now a witness in the trial at Boise, Iowa, ran a cheese factory about a mile west here for a number of years. Not making much of a success at that, he left here for Vancouver about 1896 and has not been heard of since until the trial opened. When he left he was accompanied by a woman, who returned to her husband in a couple of months. He deserted a wife and one little girl, who lives at Wooler.

Speaking of a successor to Dr. Trotter, Prof. Case said that from what he could gather, it was thought that the board of governors of Acadia, which met yesterday, after he left Wolfville, would not appoint anyone as president this year. He also stated that he had received information from an authoritative source that Dr. Cullen, who had been mentioned in the press as likely to receive the appointment, would not be the man.

Prof. Case, who had not been in Wolfville for some years, reported many changes for the better in his Alma Mater. The number of students was large, the graduated class was of good size and a freshman class of about eighty was expected next autumn. The $20,000 of the Second Forward Movement Fund remained to be collected and it was thought the entire sum would be received by January 1st. On that date the college will have a fund of $20,000, of which $10,000 will be from John D. Rockefeller. The remainder will be used as an endowment fund. The departments of the college that are to be strengthened are biology and theology.

It is expected that Acadia will soon have a full course in the latter subject and grant degrees in divinity. Although Prof. Case has been on the faculty of Bates for a year his inauguration has not yet taken place. It will form part of the commencement exercises to take place at the last of the month. The subject of Prof. Case's inaugural address will be along the line of the "Method of Studying Christianity." Prof. Case leaves for Lewiston this morning.

Longest Pictures Yet

The longest film yet shown at the Nickel is now being presented in the programme for the latter part of the week, and yesterday it proved one of the most interesting ever seen in the city. Entitled "A Honeycomb Trip to Niagara Falls," it commences with the departure of the newly-married young couple amid showers of rice, confetti and old shoes, and follows them to Niagara, showing the great waterfall in all its moods, and its most awe-inspiring situations. The falls at a distance, views close at hand—so close in fact that the photographs are almost blinded by foam and mist—aboard the little steamer that braves the whirls and eddies of the rapids, in the "Cave of the Winds," at the terrible brink, on Goat Island, and in and about the adjacent towns. Then the bride and groom leave for home and get another warm reception.

The remainder of the programme deals with the great commonwealth brought about in the life of an honest, decent father, whose impulse boy placed a piece of lumber in his pocket; and a pictorial trip through a pigeon farm—a most unusual thing to see.

The new illustrated song, "When the Snowbirds Cross the Valley," is a good one, and Mr. Austin sings it well.

The City Cornet Band Fair was fairly well attended last evening. It will close tonight with the drawing of the round the world excursion tickets. Those who have not yet received their tickets can procure them today at J. B. Bardsley's hat store, Union street, and at W. J. Higgins & Co.'s store, Union street. There are only a few remaining to be sold. The drawing will commence at 8:15 o'clock. The prizes last night were won by the following: 2,345, tea set, Mrs. Thomas O'Reilly; 2,651, set of vases, Mrs. J. T. Bowers; 2,104, water set, John Jennings; 4,134, collar and cuff box, Miss Blanchard; 5,409, handkerchief and glove box, unclaimed.

A. R. Wetmore, provincial government engineer, and Prof. S. W. Perrot, of the U. N. B. are in the city. Prof. Perrot will today begin the work of surveying for the location of the proposed new bridge across the falls take the place of the Suspension bridge.

GRAFT CURSE OF CANADA TODAY, SAYS TORONTO MAN

Dr. Cullen Will Not, However, Be Called as President of Acadia—Prof. Case in Town.

MONTREAL, June 6.—The general assembly reassembled in Erskine church this morning at ten o'clock, the moderator, Rev. Dr. Robert Campbell, presiding. The first hour was spent in devotional exercises.

Business entered upon, Dr. R. Douglas Forster was appointed unanimously to the joint clerkship rendered vacant by the election of Dr. Campbell to the moderatorship.

Dr. Falconer read the report of the emergency committee, which dealt with the resignation of Mr. Warden, treasurer of the western section of the church, owing to his disagreeing with changes that had been made in his office. Dr. Somerville had been appointed as a temporary treasurer till the assembly met.

Applications for the post of treasurer were referred to the committee.

On the matter of the reception of ministers the committee reported from Knox church, Calgary, suggesting that the home mission committee should have assembly powers to receive ministers.

This was supported by Rev. A. M. Gordon, Macleod, and Dr. Gordon, Winnipeg, but opposed by Principal Forest, who characterized the proposal as dangerous.

The applications re students were read and referred to the committee, as were also applications from fourteen ministers to retire.

At the afternoon meeting the questions of temperance and moral reform were discussed. A number of overtures dealing with the subject and urging that the Presbyterian Church should show more activity in the matter were presented. One of the overtures was from the Presbytery of St. John, which urged that the Assembly should take steps to have representatives of the Church meet all immigrants at Halifax, St. John and other ports, with a view to caring for the welfare of Presbyterian immigrants.

The overtures were supported by a number of members in strong speeches. Rev. Dr. Gordon, Winnipeg, referred at the outset of the growth of intemperance in the West, remarking that the growth of liquor drinking habits in that province had been referred to the growth of intemperance and the increasing social drinking and the trading habit which seemed to be a part of the social life of the West.

Rev. Dr. Gordon said, of some people, when ministers of the gospel took up these things to advise them to attend to their spiritual duties. The result unfortunately was that the church in that respect was weakening its moral force and keeping its hands off commercial life, with the consequence that the growth of intemperance had become to a large extent corrupted. What was true in regard to commercial life was even more so in regard to political life. He was glad to hear the Rev. Mr. Shearer on a recent occasion say that Canada was governed by a very honorable body of men, but that the ministers should support such men on all occasions and stand between them and unfaithfulness. But Canada today, he was sorry to say, was holding its face down with shame, and had a right to be so, because of the examples they had in public life who were no credit to it and who did not elevate the moral standards either of public or private life. They felt something should be done to elevate the moral tone of those who represented them in the public life of the country. It had been said that these men did not represent Canada or Canadians, but he was afraid that they did too much to represent the political standards in force in this country today. Was the church doing all that it should, he asked, in temperance and methods of political integrity and morality? There was a great horror of some quarters, of the church interfering in politics. He hoped they would get over that. For his part he had got over it. The tone of the Presbyterian church, he believed, was not lowered. Its tone was as high as ever it was, but somehow they could not bring to bear the manhood of the church at the right time so as to produce best results. He believed that the next few years would be years of unprecedented trial for Canada from a moral point of view. With a tremendous growth in wealth and material progress of the country there would not doubt be a little loosening of moral bonds, and they would be as a church be ever on the alert to check such a tendency.

G. M. Macdonnell, K. C. of Kingston made a strong speech. "I object to temperance being put first in this question. Canada today is not suffering from intemperance one hundredth part as much as it was a few years ago. It is suffering from graft. Every man in the business knows that and if this general assembly has anything to say of the moral reform let it deal with this thing first. Our forefathers in Scotland were honest men, even if they took more whiskey than we do. We are not honest people in Canada today, don't you know it? Go to Ottawa and find out, go to the election courts and find out, look at the report of the insurance commission. Yet this high court of the Presbyterian church in Canada, when it proposes a committee on moral reform, puts temperance to the front. I protest most strongly against this. I am a temperance man. I have worked for temperance and will work again, but I most emphatically declare that the thing we are principally suffering from in Canada is not intemperance at all; it is graft. After further discussion it was decided to refer the question to a committee for report."

At the evening session, home missions was the subject under discussion. The report of the eastern section was presented by Rev. Dr. Macdonnell of Montreal, N. B., and was commended most of all, particularly for a financial point of view, the missionary centres having contributed more than in any year previous for the support of work amongst themselves. In securing the difficulty of the work was in great men men to undertake it, the demand for men was taking a large number who might otherwise be secured. There were 35 and 40 vacancies which could not be filled. Rev. Dr. Trafts of Stellarton, N. S., seconded the report. Rev. Dr. Somerville presented the report of the western section. The influx of Americans into the Northwest presented a great difficulty. These people had not been trained in the churches westward with them and were lax in observance of law and order, as compared with Canadians, and the church had a great task on its hands. Rev. Dr. Gordon of Winnipeg spoke on the work among the Canadian Mormons, and Rev. Dr. Carmichael on that among the Galicians.
