DEATH LIST NEW YORK FIRE NOW NUMBERS TWENTY

Flames Spread With Such Rapidity in East Side Tenement That Scores of Persons Were Cut Off From Escape—The Bodies Burned Beyond Recognition

NEW YORK, July 28.—After an all night search of the ruins of the six-story tenement on Chrystie street, which was burned shortly after midnight, the police announced that there were 20 victims of the fire. Almost all of the bodies were burned beyond recognition, making it impossible to distinguish the sex. A majority of the victims, the police believe were women and children.

Only five of the victims have been identified up to an early hour today. They were Marie Di Dolico, his wife Amelia and their two infant children, and Frank Childs, a bedridden cripple, who was carried out alive by the firemen but who succumbed to his injuries soon after his rescue. The burned building was one of those old fashioned tenements common to the east side, with a store on the ground floor and the apartments upstairs crowded with tenants, mainly Italians. The fire started in the store, swept through the building with such rapidity that a fifth of the 100 tenants in the place met a horrible death.

Another score, though they escaped with their lives, were more or less burned or otherwise injured.

LONG BEACH, N. Y., July 28.—Eight hundred guests of the Long Beach hotel on the Atlantic coast had to flee their lives early today when a fire broke out in the hotel. There was no loss of life and no one was injured, although the fire caused considerable damage and personal effects. The flames gathered quick headway in the great wooden structure and the guests had barely time to seize some scanty clothing and escape. The hotel burned like tinder and in a short time was a smoldering mass of ruins. Loss about $200,000. The hotel was three stories high, and nearly 800 feet in length. It was filled to capacity. Housed 1,100 persons.

THREE WERE KILLED IN REAR END COLLISION

BROCKTON, Mass., July 28.—A special train ran into the rear of a freight train standing under the Plain street bridge on the New York, N. H. and H. R. R. and plowed its way through the cab and four cars, killing three trainmen and injuring four others, two of them seriously. It is said that no fireman was sent to the rear of the freight to warn approaching trains.

DR. DUFFY APPOINTED TO DOUGLASTOWN HOSPITAL

CHATHAM, N. B., July 28.—Announcement has been made of the appointment of Dr. P. F. Duffy, as surgeon of the marine hospital at Douglastown.

The contest was narrowed down to Dr. Duffy, Dr. Byrne, of Chatham and Dr. Desmond, of Newcastle, and was pretty warm. According to one side Dr. Byrne had the support of all Chatham, but the other side claims Chatham was divided between Byrne and Duffy and Newcastle between Duffy and Desmond, and Duffy therefore got the post.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

A gentleman named Christ called at the Hall this morning to take out a license. During his stay in this city he will lecture on Market Square, giving a demonstration of lightning computation. LONDON, July 28.—The White Star Line announced that a new principle will be adopted in the new $24,000 ton steamer which is being built by Harland and Wolff for that companies dominion service to Canada. A combination of turbines with reciprocating engines.

The mayor receives many calls from many sources and is known throughout the city as a patron of all kinds of sport and a supporter of every semi-public institution, but the climax has been reached. A west end baseball team has decided that the mayor is a banker, and in order to obtain uniforms for a certain special occasion suggested to him sufficient to defray the cost of the suits. His worship has not yet decided whether he will accept this new role or not.

DRUNKEN BULLY GOT MORE THAN HE EXPECTED

Man Who Insulted Woman Was Thrown from a Car and Killed

NEW YORK, July 28.—The Herald this morning says: After repeatedly using insulting language to women passengers and challenging their male escorts to fight, William P. McKee, 38 years old, an amateur athlete, living in Long Island City, either fell or was thrown from a Long Island Railroad train while it was running at a speed of 40 miles an hour, near Hammill last night, and killed. His body was found lying across the third rail, but it is believed that death was caused instantly by falling.

Leaving Rookaway Park the train was crowded with returning Sunday excursionists that every platform was filled. McKee got aboard at Hammill. He evidently had been drinking and then began offensive language to the women. Several men threatened to punish him if he did not keep quiet, but this seemed to inflame him more and he burst into another torrent of language.

It was then, according to Mrs. Baillie, a passenger, that one of the men who was accompanied by his wife and two children, sprang from his seat, dealt McKee a heavy blow in the face, dragged him to the platform and flung him from the rapidly moving train. Another version is that McKee in getting alight as a passenger who reentered with him, lost his balance and fell from the moving train.

TWENTY EIGHT EMPTY GIN BOTTLES ON WHARF

Magistrate Once More Refers to the Prevalence of Sunday Drinking.

Two drunks were fined $8 each this morning. One was arrested late Saturday night, and the other yesterday. The magistrate said that there is a habit of too much Sunday drinking in St. John. He was informed by a citizen that no less than 28 empty square face gin bottles were found on a wharf off Smyth street a week ago last Sunday. The gin had been partaken of and the bottles thrown on the wharf. "I wish you policemen would just bring some of these wharf tippers up here to court until I see what they look like."

Hatfield complained to the court that the White Candy Company obstructed the Union street sidewalk in front of the factory on Wednesday last with a number of barrels, and that it was an annoyance to the people in the next building of which the complainant is a trustee. Manager White of the factory, explained that on the day in question, the engineer had charge of the factory and that this man had left the employ on Thursday. The case was adjourned until next Monday morning.

MISUNDERSTOOD HIM.

One day an army chaplain saw a soldier of the name of McDonnell making for the back door of a saloon. "McDonnell!" the chaplain shouted, "McDonnell!" On, McDonnell! McDonnell turned, gave him a hasty look, frowned, and darted into the bar. The chaplain loitered outside the door till McDonnell came forth again. "McDonnell," he said reproachfully, "didn't you hear me calling you?" "Yes, sir," McDonnell answered, "I did, but I only had the price of one drink."

MONCTON ENJOYING A BUILDING BOOM

Many New Cottages are Now Under Construction

Rev. H. E. Thomas is Once More Talking Scott Act—Suggests a Saloon Opposite His Church.

MONCTON, July 28.—With permits issued for forty-eight new buildings, and twenty permits for extensive renovations, one of the most extensive building booms in recent years is under way in Moncton at the present time. Dwellings which are being erected are generally of an excellent character, costing in the vicinity of fifteen hundred and two thousand dollars, while more pretentious structures exceed a thousand dollars. On almost every street in the city, dwellings are in course of erection, or are being remodelled.

The sorrowful conditions of Scott Act enforcement in Moncton were severely criticized by Rev. H. E. Thomas, pastor of Wesley Memorial Church, in a sermon last evening. The city is now without a Scott Act inspector, here, said Rev. Mr. Thomas, is law without anyone to enforce it, and anyone might walk across to the corner opposite the church and start a bar-room, and no one dare molest him. It is astonishing that people who have a standing in the community, some of them members of the church, who have taken a solemn oath of office to uphold existing laws, defy the people who elected them.

The body of Edward Williams, who met death on Saturday afternoon through being drowned in Humphrey's mill pond, was this morning taken to Adamsville for interment.

ROCKEFELLER HAS SPENT HIS LIFE IN DOING GOOD

Go to Sunday School He Says, and Get Away From Summons Servers' Pursuits.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 28.—John D. Rockefeller told members of the Sunday school of the Euclid Avenue Baptist church yesterday that the great secret of success is "get away from the butterfly pursuits of life and devote yourself to doing good to those around you." "It will be fifty-four years, next September, since I came to Sunday school," he continued. "I was fourteen years old and I consider that event the most important of my life. An old lady came to me one day and said, 'I belong to the Baptist. She was a Presbyterian and did not have much use for Baptists, but she told me to stick to it and I always have.'"

A BIG FIRE RAGING AT LONG BEACH TODAY

FAR ROCKAWAY, N. Y., July 28.—A big fire is raging at Long Beach, a coast resort a few miles from this place. Assistance has been asked of the local fire department, and engines have been sent from here. One of the largest hotels along the Atlantic coast is located at Long Beach, and there are a score or more of cottages which are occupied at this season by New York people. The hotel is a great wooden structure of three stories and is about six hundred feet long and two hundred wide. It is usually crowded with guests at this season of the year.

PRISONER SHOT WHILE ATTEMPTING TO ESCAPE

MOROCCAN TROOPS ARE AFTER RAISULI

Villages Destroyed and Tribesmen Beheaded—Force is Within Easy Reach of McLean

TANGIER, July 28.—The Sherifian troops Saturday attacked villages belonging to the Kmas tribe in whose territory the bandit Raisuli holds Caid Sir Harry Maclean prisoner. The troops burned and looted the villages killing many of the inhabitants and taking a large number of prisoners. The government forces were completely victorious, but as the battle was fought within six hours journey of where Caid Maclean is regarded as more precarious than ever.

The Sherifian troops were under the command of Caid Bouchta, who has a personal account to settle with Raisuli, having been wounded by the bandit in a former encounter. Having reached the walls of the town of Sheshuan on Saturday, the heads of the Kmas villages met Bouchta and offered to discuss with him terms for the release of Caid Maclean. The government officials declined to discuss this matter and demanded the surrender forthwith of Raisuli. They then burned the villages, occupied Sheshuan and beheaded the rebels, who had been killed in the fight.

Caid Bouchta, who thus far has been completely victorious, will advance upon other villages, overawing the inhabitants in an endeavor to destroy Raisuli's influence.

COMMENT ON THE HAYWOOD VERDICT

Depreciable Conditions Revealed by the Evidence—Bryan Gives His Views

LONDON, July 28.—Commenting on the result of the trial of Wm. D. Haywood, at Boise, the Chronicle today says: "The state of society revealed by the trial is more terrible than any civil war, because it is more treacherous and is likely to be more lasting. From beginning to end it reveals a condition of brutal rapacity and savagery. Your vindictive violence, a condition that gives American boasted civilization a dubious look."

The Daily News—"From the outset the question has been complicated by the fierce prejudices of a kind of smouldering civil war. The whole movement, both in the evidence of the trial and its accompaniment, is in public excitement, has illustrated the insecurity of authority in America and the profound scepticism concerning the identity of law and justice."

William Becket, Guard of the Chain Gang, Sent a Bullet Through John Cook's Leg

The Gang in a Mutinous State—Michael Cogswell Got Away

Wm. A. Becket, one of the guards over the chain gang, shot and wounded John Cook, one of the prisoners, this morning while the gang was at work at the Fernhill cemetery. Another prisoner, Michael Cogswell, made good his escape.

There were fourteen men in the chain gang this morning. They reached the cemetery about nine o'clock and as usual commenced work on the grounds. Supt. Clayton, of the cemetery, directed some of the work along with Guards Beckett and Collins. The two prisoners, Cook and Cogswell, no doubt had matters framed up to escape together, for the gang had been working only a short time when the two made a break for liberty, vaulted over a fence and headed for the woods. Guard Beckett followed and managed to capture Cook, who immediately put up a fight, saying that Beckett could not take him back to jail. Supt. Clayton was called for assistance and aided the guard in returning with the prisoner. On their return Cook made another break for liberty. Beckett drew his revolver and called on Cook to halt. He did so, and as Beckett got to where Cook had halted the prisoner once more turned on the guard and struck at him. Beckett then pulled the trigger and with the report of the revolver the prisoner sank to the ground with a bullet of 38 calibre in his left leg.

The bullet entered the calf of the leg and plough its way from side to side. At the time of the shooting the other prisoners became restless and it was feared for a while that the entire lot would make a break for their liberty. A hurry up call was sent to Central Station and Chief Clark with Detectives Killen and Sergt. Fitzpatrick left for the scene. Dr. Berryman also was summoned and the wound in Cook's leg bled quite freely. The doctor probed for the bullet but failed to locate it, and it is thought that it passed right through the limb. Cook was conveyed to jail where he was attended to by the jail surgeon, Dr. Jas. Christie. Later he was taken to the hospital. It is not thought that the injury will prove very serious.

John Cook was arrested last Thursday for lying drunk in the I. C. yard. He has been working in the Mispac pulp mill. Some time ago he resisted arrest very violently on the Marsh Road.

Mike Cogswell who made good his escape, was arrested on the North Wharf a week ago last Sunday for being drunk. Both men were serving 30 days imprisonment.
