A splenda blend in an of the blend ish Red Cross Society was held at Campobello Island on Thuraday last. Water sports began at 11 a.m., and were keenly contested. The programme was lengthy, including dingy races, in-dian cance races, motor boat races, swimming and high diving contests, con-cluded by a magnificent race between two whale boats from the U. S. des-troyer "Patterson." Leaving the water front the crowd wended their way to the picnic grounds at the Tyn-y-coed Hotel. Here de-licious chowers and refreshments were served until 2.30. Then the land sports began. For two hours hotly contested races for boys and girls were carried on. A match game of base hall between the team from the "Patterson" and the Campobello All Stars", was won by the local team. The Campobello men also won an exciting tug-of-war contest with the jolly U.
