reference has been given all through season, to wheat over all other commodities and more than 20,000 wagons have been shipped out of Archangel in the last summer. Mr.
Baker attributes much of the confusion delay at Archangel to the fact that there are few brokers and shipping agents on the River Dvina, and considerable arrow gauge railway to Archangel will be paralleled by November with a narrow gauge road and a narrow gauge is widened next year.

strate Charles Biddlecombe, of the national Ammunition column, writes of recreation of the column. In the last weeks we have had two field days running and sports and had a real time at both. Of course they were run up entirely from the ammunition men, but the Canadian contingent, or at least part of it, has formed a baseline. Besides that we kick up a ball game once in a while. So you see that this war game is not all and thunder.

CONDENSED NEWS

Chatham, N. B., Aug. 23.—The fire in the Buckley mill burner was down enough on Sunday for James Handley & James Gulliver to explore the bottom. Here they found unmistakable evidence in bones, buttons, teeth, etc., of the remains of young George Handley who so mysteriously disappeared last Tuesday. He had evidently fallen in through the top of the burner. The remains were gathered up and the funeral was held this morning at 10 o'clock to St. Michael's cemetery.

Brownville, Me., Aug. 25.—A loss estimated at $100,000 was caused today and the Briggs block, containing several stores, the post office and town offices were burned.

The grounds at Courtenay Heights, a perfect specimen of the speckled trout it was remarked that it looked as large as a shad.
