Esquire, a retired merchant and one of its earliest members; and the Revd. R. R. Burrage, chaplain to the society till he was removed from Quebec,—a gentleman of high classical attainments and a most earnest, indefatigable, and useful member.

We have also to mention the death of Mr. George Harvey, Mr. J. C. Stokes and Mr. Edwin Hawkins, the latter who met his death at that memorable and lamentable occurrence, the explosion of the laboratory at St. John's Gate.

Our Patron Saint's day was celebrated as usual. Divine Service was held in the cathedral in the morning. A touching and eloquent sermon was preached by his Lordship the Bishop of Quebec, who forcibly shewed that, by the discharge of duties of one towards another, the social compact is held together, and thence, the individuals who compose this and societies that are kindred to it, become bound to each other by a more immediate relation, than that in which they stand to others of the community; urging us to go on in the good work, as it was by such compacts, that we recognize the combined triumph of amiable, charitable and social feelings.

An excellent musical service was performed by the Ladies and Gentlemen of the Voluntary Choir, conducted by our able organist, Mr. James Pearce, Mus. Bac. Ox.

The collection amounted to $51 14.

On reference to the Report of the Charitable Committee it will be seen that the amount expended considerably exceeds the past year to the extent of $109.96 and has been attended not only with corresponding but most satisfactory results.

The arrangements with the Finlay Asylum still continue receive he past their cord.

etiring

cted as

e Com-

odwin,

leasing learn, numeleeting leet the fellow

being mbers

death lessop, was a