

THE STORE for BIG VALUE

- Big Value in Men's Suits
- " Men's Straw Hats
- " Men's Underwear
- " Men's Furnishings
- " Linoleum
- " Lace Curtains
- " Curtain Nets
- " Crepe Dress Goods
- " Voile Dress Goods
- " Ladies' Underwear
- " Whitewear
- " Ladies' Waists
- " Ladies' Fancy Furnishings

SEE THE BIG VALUE IN MEN'S SUMMER SHIRTS
HIGHEST PRICES FOR BUTTER AND EGGS.

CHAS. DEAN

MRS. W. A. CURRIE MILLINERY PARLORS

SYMES STREET,
GLENCOE Phone 25

WARDSVILLE
ONTARIO

RAILWAY AND POSTAL GUIDE.

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY.

Main Line.

Eastbound—No. 12, mail and express to London and intermediate points, 6:27 a. m.; No. 11, express to London and intermediate points, 3 p. m.; No. 16, Eastern Flyer, for Toronto, Montreal, etc., 8:29 p. m.; No. 16, local accommodation to London, 10:10 p. m.

Westbound—No. 11, local mail and express, 5:30 a. m.; No. 31, way freight and passenger, 10:15 a. m.; No. 11, express from London and points east for Detroit, 12:25 p. m.; No. 11, local mail and express, 3 p. m.; No. 15, International Limited, from Toronto and east for Detroit, 5:31 p. m.

Wabash and Air Line.
Eastbound—No. 302, mixed, local points to St. Thomas, 9:35 a. m.; No. 2, Wabash, 12:20 p. m.; No. 334, way freight and passenger to St. Thomas, 4:20 p. m.

Westbound—No. 333, way freight, St. Thomas to Glencoe, 9 a. m.; No. 333, mixed, local points, St. Thomas to Glencoe, 2:20 p. m.; No. 5, express, 8:25 p. m.

No. 2 and No. 5 Sundays included.

Kingsoort Branch.
Leave Glencoe for Alvinston, Petrolia, etc., connecting for Sarnia Tunnel and points west, No. 363, mixed, 7:30 a. m.; No. 17, passenger, 3:10 p. m.; No. 37, mixed, 6:35 p. m.

Arrive at Glencoe—No. 11, passenger, 7:03 a. m.; No. 12, express, 5:15 p. m.; No. 37, mixed, 5:15 p. m.

CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY.
Eastbound—No. 631, Sundays included, 12:27 p. m.; No. 672, 6:10 p. m.

Westbound—No. 671, 8:37 a. m.; No. 632, Sundays included, 5:27 p. m.

GLENCOE POST-OFFICE
Mails closed—G.T.R. East, 9:09 a. m.; G.T.R. West, 2:40 p. m.; London and East, 2:40 p. m. and 7 p. m.

Mails received—London and East, 8 a. m.; G.T.R. East, 3:20 p. m.; G.T.R. West, 9:45 a. m.

CLUBBING RATES

Renew your newspaper and magazine subscriptions at the Transcript office. We can save you money, as well as the trouble and expense of remitting. The following are some of our clubbing rates:

The Transcript and Family Herald and Weekly Star.	$1.00
Daily Advertiser, morning or afternoon edition.	2.00
Daily Free Press, morning.	3.75
Daily Free Press, afternoon.	2.00
Daily Globe.	3.75
Daily Mail and Empire.	3.75
Farmer's Advocate.	2.40
Weekly Sun.	1.00
Weekly Mail and Empire.	1.75
Weekly Advertiser.	1.75
Weekly Globe.	1.00
Toronto Daily News.	2.00
Weekly Witness, new subscribers.	1.75
Weekly Witness, renewals.	1.00
Toronto Saturday Night.	3.75
Weekly Free Press.	1.00

All subscriptions are payable in advance. Address
TRANSCRIPT OFFICE,
Glencoe, Ont.

WOOL WANTED!

Highest Market Price
Friday and Saturday deliveries preferred.

G. A. McAlpine, Glencoe

Hard and soft corns cannot withstand Holloway's Corn Cure; it is effective every time. Get a bottle at once and be happy.

LOCAL

Ekfrid council meets on Wednesday, June 16.

The next legal holiday is Thursday, July 1st, Dominion Day.

A drive into the country these days is one of the delights of life.

The June session of Middlesex county council opened at London on Monday.

The cut worm is said to be damaging spring crops in some districts in Middlesex.

The Longwoods Road is being graded and otherwise improved through Ekfrid.

Glencoe Bowling Club has been organized for the season with a fairly large membership.

Markets—wheat $1.25, oats 50c, barley 70c, butter 23c, eggs 18c, hogs $9 to $9.15, potatoes a bag 50c.

One mill on the dollar, as a war tax, will be collected on all rateable property in Middlesex for this year.

The Ladies' Aid of Bethel Church will hold their annual garden party on Tuesday evening, June 29. Watch for bills.

The Women's Institute are holding a garden party on the Town Hall grounds at Ayrton on Wednesday evening, June 16.

Rev. W. G. Howson will preach the sermon at an anniversary service to be held by the Oddfellows of West Lorne next Sunday afternoon.

Smallpox outbreaks in the county several months ago will cost the county over $500; Mosa township, $140, and North Dorchester, $124.

M. C. Campbell, customs collector, we regret to say is in poor health and has been compelled to relinquish the duties of his office for a season.

The young people of Pratt's Siding purpose holding a lawn social on the school grounds there Wednesday, June 23rd, in aid of the Patriotic Fund.

The annual meeting of the Church of Christ in Mosa will be held on Sunday, June 13th, at 11 a. m. and 5 p. m., conducted by the Rev. T. L. Fowler.

Brooke Farmers' Club held a picnic on the fair grounds at Alvinston on Wednesday of last week, which was attended by about a thousand people.

Austrian and Russian laborers working on a drain near Alvinston got into a scuffle and were taken before the local magistrate for disturbing the peace.

Mr. Britton, of London, formerly manager of the Merchants Bank at Glencoe, underwent a critical operation at one of the London hospitals recently.

Farmers who are well stocked with cattle will be pleased with a prediction made that good beef will be selling at 9 cents a pound, live weight, by the first of August.

During the ball game at the park on Tuesday evening C. McNaughton, of the Glencoe team, while at bat was struck in the face by a pitched ball, fracturing his nose in three places.

Workmen digging in Milwaukee uncovered a tin can that had $5,000 in gold coins in it. This ought to encourage gardeners to go ahead and gouge out more great holes in the back yard.

Clinton Kesch, of Thamesville, had both legs severed when he jumped off the eastbound local freight train on the Grand Trunk at Thamesville Wednesday afternoon. He died a few hours later.

We gather from the war news that Germany has bitten off more than she can chew. The food reports from Berlin, however, indicate that Germany could chew a lot more than she is able to bite.

John Henry has returned from a trip to Alaska, Sask. He reports crop prospects for the West are exceedingly good, and particularly so in the Alaskan section. East of Winnipeg there is a lack of rain, and thousands of acres have been burnt over this spring in Northern Ontario.

WHOLE FAMILY USES THEM

"Fruit-a-lives" Keeps Young And Old In Splendid Health

Chas. T. Pearce, formerly with the Traders Bank at Glencoe and subsequently manager of the Toronto News, has been engaged to manage the Toronto business of McKim & Co.'s advertising agency.

The business men of Glencoe have unanimously agreed to close their shops on Wednesday afternoon of next week from one to five o'clock on occasion of the semi-jubilee picnic of the Presbyterian church.

Glencoe defeated Melbourne in a lively game of baseball at the park on Tuesday evening. Score 11 to 4. Batteries—Melbourne, Graham and Cook; Glencoe, Cleve Watterworth and Pete Leitch. The boys would like to see a larger attendance of the public at their games.

An attractive souvenir pamphlet containing an interesting historical sketch and illustrations has been issued to mark the semi-jubilee of Glencoe Presbyterian church. These are now on sale at Scott's drug store, and as the edition is limited you should get them early for yourself and friends.

There was a big raising at John McVicar's, Ferguson's Crossing, on Saturday afternoon, when the timbers for a frame barn and shed were raised. It is estimated that about a thousand people were present, including women and children. The captains were Wm. June and A. J. Purcell and the sides finished about even.

Mission sermons will be preached in St. Matthew's church, Alvinston, daily this week at 3 and 7:15 p. m. His Lordship Rt. Rev. M. F. Fallon, D. D., Bishop of London, will deliver the address at the closing exercises next Sunday, and the choir of St. Peter's Cathedral, London, will render the musical vespers in the evening.

Observation towers are being erected at several points throughout Western Ontario by the Dominion Government for military purposes. They will be about ninety feet in height and will be constructed of concrete and steel. Being on elevated positions they will command a good view of the surrounding country for a distance of some twenty miles.

Mr. and Mrs. John Secord, of Mosa, received another letter on Saturday from their son George, who is a member of the Third Field Ambulance Corps with the first Canadian Contingent. George was at the front in some of the severest battles in which the Canadian troops were engaged and gives an interesting pen picture of the dreadful carnage at Ypres and Langemark. He had many narrow escapes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Secord, of Mosa, received another letter on Saturday from their son George, who is a member of the Third Field Ambulance Corps with the first Canadian Contingent. George was at the front in some of the severest battles in which the Canadian troops were engaged and gives an interesting pen picture of the dreadful carnage at Ypres and Langemark. He had many narrow escapes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Secord, of Mosa, received another letter on Saturday from their son George, who is a member of the Third Field Ambulance Corps with the first Canadian Contingent. George was at the front in some of the severest battles in which the Canadian troops were engaged and gives an interesting pen picture of the dreadful carnage at Ypres and Langemark. He had many narrow escapes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Secord, of Mosa, received another letter on Saturday from their son George, who is a member of the Third Field Ambulance Corps with the first Canadian Contingent. George was at the front in some of the severest battles in which the Canadian troops were engaged and gives an interesting pen picture of the dreadful carnage at Ypres and Langemark. He had many narrow escapes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Secord, of Mosa, received another letter on Saturday from their son George, who is a member of the Third Field Ambulance Corps with the first Canadian Contingent. George was at the front in some of the severest battles in which the Canadian troops were engaged and gives an interesting pen picture of the dreadful carnage at Ypres and Langemark. He had many narrow escapes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Secord, of Mosa, received another letter on Saturday from their son George, who is a member of the Third Field Ambulance Corps with the first Canadian Contingent. George was at the front in some of the severest battles in which the Canadian troops were engaged and gives an interesting pen picture of the dreadful carnage at Ypres and Langemark. He had many narrow escapes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Secord, of Mosa, received another letter on Saturday from their son George, who is a member of the Third Field Ambulance Corps with the first Canadian Contingent. George was at the front in some of the severest battles in which the Canadian troops were engaged and gives an interesting pen picture of the dreadful carnage at Ypres and Langemark. He had many narrow escapes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Secord, of Mosa, received another letter on Saturday from their son George, who is a member of the Third Field Ambulance Corps with the first Canadian Contingent. George was at the front in some of the severest battles in which the Canadian troops were engaged and gives an interesting pen picture of the dreadful carnage at Ypres and Langemark. He had many narrow escapes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Secord, of Mosa, received another letter on Saturday from their son George, who is a member of the Third Field Ambulance Corps with the first Canadian Contingent. George was at the front in some of the severest battles in which the Canadian troops were engaged and gives an interesting pen picture of the dreadful carnage at Ypres and Langemark. He had many narrow escapes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Secord, of Mosa, received another letter on Saturday from their son George, who is a member of the Third Field Ambulance Corps with the first Canadian Contingent. George was at the front in some of the severest battles in which the Canadian troops were engaged and gives an interesting pen picture of the dreadful carnage at Ypres and Langemark. He had many narrow escapes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Secord, of Mosa, received another letter on Saturday from their son George, who is a member of the Third Field Ambulance Corps with the first Canadian Contingent. George was at the front in some of the severest battles in which the Canadian troops were engaged and gives an interesting pen picture of the dreadful carnage at Ypres and Langemark. He had many narrow escapes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Secord, of Mosa, received another letter on Saturday from their son George, who is a member of the Third Field Ambulance Corps with the first Canadian Contingent. George was at the front in some of the severest battles in which the Canadian troops were engaged and gives an interesting pen picture of the dreadful carnage at Ypres and Langemark. He had many narrow escapes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Secord, of Mosa, received another letter on Saturday from their son George, who is a member of the Third Field Ambulance Corps with the first Canadian Contingent. George was at the front in some of the severest battles in which the Canadian troops were engaged and gives an interesting pen picture of the dreadful carnage at Ypres and Langemark. He had many narrow escapes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Secord, of Mosa, received another letter on Saturday from their son George, who is a member of the Third Field Ambulance Corps with the first Canadian Contingent. George was at the front in some of the severest battles in which the Canadian troops were engaged and gives an interesting pen picture of the dreadful carnage at Ypres and Langemark. He had many narrow escapes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Secord, of Mosa, received another letter on Saturday from their son George, who is a member of the Third Field Ambulance Corps with the first Canadian Contingent. George was at the front in some of the severest battles in which the Canadian troops were engaged and gives an interesting pen picture of the dreadful carnage at Ypres and Langemark. He had many narrow escapes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Secord, of Mosa, received another letter on Saturday from their son George, who is a member of the Third Field Ambulance Corps with the first Canadian Contingent. George was at the front in some of the severest battles in which the Canadian troops were engaged and gives an interesting pen picture of the dreadful carnage at Ypres and Langemark. He had many narrow escapes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Secord, of Mosa, received another letter on Saturday from their son George, who is a member of the Third Field Ambulance Corps with the first Canadian Contingent. George was at the front in some of the severest battles in which the Canadian troops were engaged and gives an interesting pen picture of the dreadful carnage at Ypres and Langemark. He had many narrow escapes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Secord, of Mosa, received another letter on Saturday from their son George, who is a member of the Third Field Ambulance Corps with the first Canadian Contingent. George was at the front in some of the severest battles in which the Canadian troops were engaged and gives an interesting pen picture of the dreadful carnage at Ypres and Langemark. He had many narrow escapes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Secord, of Mosa, received another letter on Saturday from their son George, who is a member of the Third Field Ambulance Corps with the first Canadian Contingent. George was at the front in some of the severest battles in which the Canadian troops were engaged and gives an interesting pen picture of the dreadful carnage at Ypres and Langemark. He had many narrow escapes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Secord, of Mosa, received another letter on Saturday from their son George, who is a member of the Third Field Ambulance Corps with the first Canadian Contingent. George was at the front in some of the severest battles in which the Canadian troops were engaged and gives an interesting pen picture of the dreadful carnage at Ypres and Langemark. He had many narrow escapes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Secord, of Mosa, received another letter on Saturday from their son George, who is a member of the Third Field Ambulance Corps with the first Canadian Contingent. George was at the front in some of the severest battles in which the Canadian troops were engaged and gives an interesting pen picture of the dreadful carnage at Ypres and Langemark. He had many narrow escapes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Secord, of Mosa, received another letter on Saturday from their son George, who is a member of the Third Field Ambulance Corps with the first Canadian Contingent. George was at the front in some of the severest battles in which the Canadian troops were engaged and gives an interesting pen picture of the dreadful carnage at Ypres and Langemark. He had many narrow escapes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Secord, of Mosa, received another letter on Saturday from their son George, who is a member of the Third Field Ambulance Corps with the first Canadian Contingent. George was at the front in some of the severest battles in which the Canadian troops were engaged and gives an interesting pen picture of the dreadful carnage at Ypres and Langemark. He had many narrow escapes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Secord, of Mosa, received another letter on Saturday from their son George, who is a member of the Third Field Ambulance Corps with the first Canadian Contingent. George was at the front in some of the severest battles in which the Canadian troops were engaged and gives an interesting pen picture of the dreadful carnage at Ypres and Langemark. He had many narrow escapes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Secord, of Mosa, received another letter on Saturday from their son George, who is a member of the Third Field Ambulance Corps with the first Canadian Contingent. George was at the front in some of the severest battles in which the Canadian troops were engaged and gives an interesting pen picture of the dreadful carnage at Ypres and Langemark. He had many narrow escapes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Secord, of Mosa, received another letter on Saturday from their son George, who is a member of the Third Field Ambulance Corps with the first Canadian Contingent. George was at the front in some of the severest battles in which the Canadian troops were engaged and gives an interesting pen picture of the dreadful carnage at Ypres and Langemark. He had many narrow escapes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Secord, of Mosa, received another letter on Saturday from their son George, who is a member of the Third Field Ambulance Corps with the first Canadian Contingent. George was at the front in some of the severest battles in which the Canadian troops were engaged and gives an interesting pen picture of the dreadful carnage at Ypres and Langemark. He had many narrow escapes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Secord, of Mosa, received another letter on Saturday from their son George, who is a member of the Third Field Ambulance Corps with the first Canadian Contingent. George was at the front in some of the severest battles in which the Canadian troops were engaged and gives an interesting pen picture of the dreadful carnage at Ypres and Langemark. He had many narrow escapes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Secord, of Mosa, received another letter on Saturday from their son George, who is a member of the Third Field Ambulance Corps with the first Canadian Contingent. George was at the front in some of the severest battles in which the Canadian troops were engaged and gives an interesting pen picture of the dreadful carnage at Ypres and Langemark. He had many narrow escapes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Secord, of Mosa, received another letter on Saturday from their son George, who is a member of the Third Field Ambulance Corps with the first Canadian Contingent. George was at the front in some of the severest battles in which the Canadian troops were engaged and gives an interesting pen picture of the dreadful carnage at Ypres and Langemark. He had many narrow escapes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Secord, of Mosa, received another letter on Saturday from their son George, who is a member of the Third Field Ambulance Corps with the first Canadian Contingent. George was at the front in some of the severest battles in which the Canadian troops were engaged and gives an interesting pen picture of the dreadful carnage at Ypres and Langemark. He had many narrow escapes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Secord, of Mosa, received another letter on Saturday from their son George, who is a member of the Third Field Ambulance Corps with the first Canadian Contingent. George was at the front in some of the severest battles in which the Canadian troops were engaged and gives an interesting pen picture of the dreadful carnage at Ypres and Langemark. He had many narrow escapes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Secord, of Mosa, received another letter on Saturday from their son George, who is a member of the Third Field Ambulance Corps with the first Canadian Contingent. George was at the front in some of the severest battles in which the Canadian troops were engaged and gives an interesting pen picture of the dreadful carnage at Ypres and Langemark. He had many narrow escapes.

LOOK on the next page for the WATCHWORD !

SPECIAL NOTICES

Cash for eggs—G. A. McAlpine, 587 See E. Mayhew & Co.'s change of adv.

Best Manitoba flour for sale at McLachlan's Bakery, 90c/lb.

Fry sale—eight pigs, 6 weeks old—Elijah Shier, Woodgreen.

We are offering special bargains in Oxford shoes.—Sexton & Co.

Good second-hand automobile for sale.—Parrott's Garage, Glencoe, 69c/lb

Butter paper printed, 35 cents per 100 sheets, at the Transcript office.

For sale—thoroughbred Shorthorn yearling bull.—Geo. Coad, Route 3, Glencoe, 52c/lb

To loan—$1,700 lodge funds, on first mortgage. Apply to J. E. Roome, Glencoe.

The Transcript is agent for all the daily papers. Let us remit your subscription.

House and lot on Concession street for sale. Apply to Isaac Watterworth, Glencoe, Phone 66.

New harness shop in Glencoe, opposite George Precious's store. Repairing, etc.—George F. Stacey, 66

"Rough on Rats" clears out rats, mice, etc. Don't die in the house. 15c and 25c at drug and country stores.

The finder of an Elgin gold watch, 18 size, works No. 5816796, is requested to notify Constable D. M. Stuart, Glencoe, without delay.

Our spring sale of shoes will still continue. Summer shoes now on sale at special low prices. Many new lines in ladies' and children's summer shoes.—Chas. George, 58c/lb

R. E. Johnston has accepted a position with Talking Pictures to travel through Quebec and Eastern Ontario. He will also conduct the picture show in town every Wednesday night.

The property of the late J. Y. Foster, consisting of two residences on O'Mara street and shops on Main street, is offered for sale at a bargain to close the estate. Apply to James Poole, Glencoe.

All notices in this column are strictly cash. If orders are telephoned The Transcript, kindly arrange to pay the amount the first time you are in town, so they will not have to be carried through the books.

Owing to unforeseen circumstances am sorry to have disappointed a number of customers, horse show day, but fully expect to be able to visit my Glencoe gallery every Tuesday as advertised.—A. E. Cantelon.

Mitchell & Hagerty sell and recommend Campbell's Varnish Stain for staining and varnishing all kind of Interior Woodwork, Furniture, etc. A 25c can will do three chairs. An 80c can will cover an average floor. Dries hard, very durable. Why not try it? An upright piano for $90.00, suitable for practice, also second-hand organ for $10.00, and a couple of pianos that have been rented for sale at good value. For terms, etc., address as follows:—Daniel H. McRae, Glencoe, Ont.

Correspondents sending in advance notices of socials will please state who is responsible for payment of same, or send the money with the order. The rate for social or other entertainment advertising is one cent per word.

Gerhard Heintzman and other leading makes of pianos and organs for sale, also other musical instruments, and talking machines. Old instruments taken in exchange for their value on new ones and sold on easy monthly or yearly instalments. For particulars address:—Daniel H. McRae, Glencoe P. O.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children In Use For Over 30 Years Always bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

W. A. CURRIE

THE LARGEST AND BEST ASSORTED STOCK OF STAPLE AND FANCY GROCERIES kept in Glencoe.

Also Confectionery, Imported & Domestic Fruits, Meat, Fish, etc., carried

Our prices a little lower than elsewhere. Call and be convinced.

Good Butter and Eggs and other marketable produce taken as cash at highest market price.

CASH FOR EGGS TRY OUR SPECIALS IN BULK TEAS AND COFFEES Red Rose, Lipton's and Salaga Packet Teas always in stock.

W. A. CURRIE

Mayflower Talcum Powder Nyal's Mayflower Talcum is an experience to every first time user. Its touch is soft, soothing and refreshing. Its distinctive Mayflower perfume, delicate, individual, elusive. Ideal for every use to which you can put a Talcum.

Nyal Quality preparations can be obtained only in Nyal Quality Stores. Ask one of them for free copy of Booklet entitled "Your Complexion," giving full particulars of best methods of massage.

Our New Spring Suitings are now here. Come in and get your clothing hand-tailored to your measure. Fit, workmanship and style guaranteed.

MCLAY & MUNROE

GENTS' FURNISHINGS

W. A. CURRIE

W.