

YOUR CHARACTER BY YOUR WALK

HOW TO SIZE UP FAULTS AND VIRTUES.

Manner of Gait Indicates Per- son's Characteristics and His Occupation.

Nothing denotes character more than the walk. You may be deceived by faces—the people, for example, by whose looks you are attracted at first, often let you down badly in the end—but by the walk, never!

Encourage yourself at the window, somewhere where you can't be seen, and watch your friends as they pass by in the street. They will walk naturally if they are not conscious of being observed, and their carriage will then indicate into one or two things it might be very useful for you to know.

The "Vampire" Walk.
First, there is what I designate the "Mild" walk, because I saw it adopted to perfection by that inimitable impersonator of bad women, Mrs. Brown Potter, when she played the part of Mildred in "The Three Musketeers" twenty years ago in London. It is a walk with a light, soft tread on the toes, but no very perceptible spring; and the shoulders have a curious bend or hunch, which suggests the crouch of a culture or some other bird or beast of prey. People with this walk (it is more common with women than men) are never to be trusted; they are cruel, greedy, callous, and, over and above all, subtle. It is the walk of the female Mephistopheles.

Then there is the typical "business" walk, the walk with the figure very upright, the steps short, brisk, and regular. It is an automatic walk, solely confined to business people, and it denotes intense practicality and method, and an entire absence of imagination.

Then there is the affected, mincing walk, where the stride is very short and the steps mostly on the toes. There is nothing sharp or delicate about this walk; it is, if anything, cautious and wary, and the walkers seem to have their attention divided between being eternally on the lookout for puddles or other danger spots, and showing off their shoes and ankles to the best advantage.

People who affect this unnatural style of walk are vain and petty. Their horizon is strictly limited. "Looking nice" and trying to attract attention. They are incapable of any big-hearted actions, but are invariably non-magnanimous and mean.

Another walk with which one is tolerably familiar is the springy walk—the walk that is characterized by rather big strides and a kind of bound, as if the walker's "news" were made of india-rubber. If not too pronounced this walk merely indicates an extremely active and optimistic mind—one who sees a very distinct silver lining to every cloud, and is quite sure they can get on in the world. If very much emphasized, however, the walk denotes extreme eccentricity and egotism, and is only met with in cranks and monomaniacs.

Then there is the shuffling walk. The chief characteristic of this walk is sloppiness, and it is invariably associated with people of very untidy habits—people who are very methodical, and often miserly.

It is not infrequently met with in great thinkers, philosophers or scientists, men with marked genius, and who are often abrupt and crotchety in their manners. If very pronounced, indeed, it indicates a degree of eccentricity that verges on downright madness.

Mind Your Step.

Another peculiar walk is that of the long stride with the decided swing of the shoulders. This walk is generally to be seen in authors, actors and artists, and is characteristic of the art world, the man who has ideas of his own, and is quite untrammelled by convention. It denotes independence, and if accompanied by an emphatic planting down of the left foot, a stamp in fact, resolution and determination.

The rolling gait in walking shows geniality and jollity; the stiff, upright carriage, firmness, love of convention, and lack of sympathy. The former is common to sailors and to people who live a very free, out-of-door kind of life and "do themselves well;" the latter to ministers, people with the legal turn of mind, and particularly the blue-stockings type of woman.

The Tables Turned.

An Irish witness was being examined as to his knowledge of a shooting affair. "Did you see the shot fired?" the magistrate asked. "No, sorr. I only heard it," was the evasive reply. "That evidence is not satisfactory," replied the magistrate, sternly. "Stand down!" The witness turned round to leave the box, and directly his back was turned he laughed derisively. The magistrate, indignant at this contempt of court, called him back, and asked him how he dared to laugh in court. "Did you see me laugh, your honor?" queried the offender. "No, sir, but I heard you," was the irate reply. "That evidence is not satisfactory," said Pat. And this time everybody laughed except the magistrate.

THE NERVOUS SCHOOL CHILD

Needs Rich, Red Blood to Regain Health and Strength.

Many children start school in excellent health, but after a short time home work, examinations, hurried meals and crowded school rooms cause their blood to become weak and thin, their nerves over wrought and their color and spirits lost. It is a great mistake to let matters drift when boys and girls show symptoms of nervousness or weak blood. They are almost sure to fall victims of St. Vitus dance, or drift into debility that leads to other troubles. Regular meals, outdoor exercise and plenty of sleep are necessary to combat the nervous wear of school life. But it is still more important that parents should pay strict attention to the school child's blood supply. Keep this rich and red by giving Dr. Williams' Pink Pills according to directions and the boy or girl will be sturdy and fit for school. The value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in cases of this kind is shown by the statement of Mrs. Pearl G. Harrington, Kingsville, Ont., who says: "I have often felt that I should write you and let you know what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills did for me. At the age of thirteen I was afflicted with St. Vitus dance. The trouble became so severe that I had to be taken from school. It was given medical treatment but it did not help me, in fact I was steadily growing worse. Then a friend advised my mother to give me Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which she did, and with the happiest results, as the pills completely cured me and I was again able to take up my studies and attend school. Again about three years ago I was attacked with nervous prostration and once more took Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and after using five boxes was fully restored. I cannot praise these pills too highly as I believe they will cure any case of St. Vitus dance, or restore anyone who is weak, nervous or run down."

You can safely give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to the most delicate child, or take them yourself with equally good results when you need a blood tonic. These pills are sold by all dealers in medicine, or will be sent by mail, post paid, at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, by The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A Lincoln ram recently sold in England for $80,000. One was exported to Buenos Aires.

"What did you stop the clock in your room for, Jane?" "Because, mum, the plaguey thing has some sort of a fit every mornin', mum, just when I wants to sleep."

European Farmers Getting Back on Their Feet.

The territory included before the war in Hungary, Bulgaria and Rumania probably will export at least 1,500,000 tons of bread grains from current crops, compared to 3,900,000 tons in average pre-war years.

So far as its production of bread grains is concerned Bulgaria is practically on a pre-war basis and Hungary almost so, but Rumania is still far from complete recovery. The most optimistic claims of Rumania for export this year are 500,000 tons as against 1,700,000 tons of pre-war years. In the wheat-producing region of southern Hungary the acreage planted this year is fully ninety per cent. of the normal pre-war acreage. In that part of Rumania occupied by the armies of the Central Powers, considerable land was not cultivated this year, while that which was devoted to crops was found in rather poor condition. This came about because the Teutonic armies ravaged the country of much of the work stock and agricultural implements. However, despite this Rumania will be more than self-supporting, and as the maize crop is improving, it is expected that conditions during the summer, Rumania will have a certain amount of export surplus.

There will undoubtedly be an export surplus from southern Hungary, while Bulgaria, as stated, is at least as well off in food production as it was previous to the war and will be able to export more than the average amount of cereals.

According to the specialists there will be but little increase in the acreage devoted to bread grain crops throughout eastern and northern Europe during the next year, because most of the tillable land is now in crop except those areas which were swept by war. Of course, there will be some small increase if the former battlefields are farmed—as they probably will be as normal readjustment occurs—but in the main it is not anticipated that these countries will very greatly increase their acreage. The production of northern Europe will increase as soon as fertilizers become available again, though it will probably not exceed the pre-war production for some years to come.

Beyond Argument.

The new Irish pupil at a big boarding-school excited much curiosity by his habit of talking to himself. One day a senior boy stopped him and asked, with a supercilious smile:

"Why on earth are you always chattering to yourself, Paddy?"

"Shure, for two very good reasons!" was the unabashed reply.

"Two reasons? What are they?"

Well, bedad, one of them I loike to listen to a sensible man, and the other is that I loike to talk to a sensible man."

November.

Long roads that dip and curve among the woods,
Where bare brown branches whisper with the breeze;
And, slipping softly through the tiny twigs,
The startled sunbeams peep between the trees.

Or slide along the sturdy trunks, at length
To hide in fragrant masses, soft and sweet,
Of curly leaves that nestle close about
The loving roots they sheltered from the heat.

White wisps of cloud that linger round the sun,
Of float by lazy drafts about the sky;
And leafless apple trees that gently toss
Their unclipped fruit above the fields that lie

In sleepy patches, stretching o'er the hills,
And blinking at the winding silver streams;
With these November wanders, while her mists
Whiten and cling around her shadowy dreams.

Insect Reading Lamp.

The lantern-like of South America sometimes measures more than two inches in length. The shape of the head is very curious. It is furnished with a hollow, transparent snout, nearly the length of the body, whence comes the lamplike light.

A lady, relating her first impressions of these insects, says she had several of them brought to her in the day-time, and put them into a box. In the night the confined insects made such a noise as to awaken her. She opened the box, the inside of which seemed to be all ablaze, and in her astonishment the box fell from her hands. Each of the insects seemed to be on fire.

She soon, however, guessed the cause, and replaced her brilliant guests in their place of confinement. She said that the light of one of these insects was bright enough to read by.

NOTHING TO EQUAL BAYB'S OWN TABLETS

Mrs. Alfred Naud, Natagan River, Que., writes: "I do not think there is any other medicine to equal Bayb's Own Tablets for little ones. I have used them for my baby and would use nothing else." What Mrs. Naud says thousands of other mothers say. They have found by trial that the Tablets always do just what is claimed for them. The Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative which regulate the bowels and sweeten the stomach and clear the system of indigestion, constipation, colic, colds, etc. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Bald Peacemakers.

An amusing sidelight on the recent Peace Conference at Versailles is thrown by a correspondent, who not only reported the proceedings proper, but took notes regarding the hair, moustaches, beards and whiskers of the peacemakers. Two-thirds of the delegates were more or less bald. Perhaps some of them made up for this by wearing moustaches. Out of sixty-five men who sat round the peace table, all had moustaches but fourteen. Whiskers, on the other hand, were not popular. Only three people wore them, and by a curious coincidence, the names of all these three people began with V. They were Venizelos, of Greece; Vandervelde, of Belgium; and Vassitch, of Serbia. The latter's whiskers were particularly prominent. In regard to dress, there was less formal attire than one might have imagined. The English paid no special attention to dress. Bowler hats and frock coats, once a combination that would never have been sanctioned, were quite popular; but there were some countries which put all they knew into their attire. These were notably the Japanese, and some of the South American States.

Oxygen For Fliers.
At high levels, such as birdmen nowadays often reach, the air is so thin that the aviator literally "loses his breath." He is in danger of collapse from this cause.

It was ascertained during the war, though not at first suspected, that about 15 per cent. of the candidates who passed examination for the air service were really unable to fly at altitudes ordinarily requisite in the work they were required to perform.

It was further determined that more than 90 per cent. of them could not endure flight at extremely high levels. But, on the other hand, certain picked men, perhaps seven or eight out of 100 passed candidates, were able to ascend to the greatest elevations without peril.

To help in solving this important war problem an oxygen apparatus was developed, smaller than the kind used for mine-rescue work, but constructed on much the same principle. Equipped with this contrivance, and carrying a supply of liquid oxygen along with him, the aviator could skim along in safety through the upper reaches of the welkin.

The more land turned under this fall the easier it will be to get the crop in on time next spring.

BIFF!

Stop jolting Liver and Bowels with violent drugs, but take "Cascarets."

"Dynamiting" bile out of your system with calomel and other sickening purgatives is all wrong. Salts, Oil, and Cathartic Waters act by flooding the bowels with the digestive juices which are vital to the stomach. Cascarets are different. They act as a tonic to the bowel muscles, which is the only sensible way to relieve a bilious attack, a sour, acid stomach, or constipated bowels. There is no gripping or inconvenience. You naturally return to regularity and cheerfulness. Cascarets cost very little and they work while you sleep.

Radium and Gems.
It is possible to change the color of precious and semi-precious stones by exposing them to the action of radium. A Frenchman who has devoted himself to this study has obtained remarkable results. He bought sapphires of different kinds and put them in a box with a small quantity of radium. At the end of a month the transformations were as follows: white sapphires had become yellow; blue, green; violet, blue; wine-colored stones, red; dark blue, violet.

A druggist can obtain an imitation of MINARD'S LINTMENT from a Toronto house at a very low price, and have it labeled his own product.

Ask for MINARD'S and you will get it.

Conservation of our resources was never so necessary as to-day. During the war we have necessarily been wasteful, as all considerations of expense were subordinated to one supreme object. But this waste not only cannot continue, it must be made good so far as possible.

MONEY ORDERS.
It is always safe to send a Dominion Express Money Order. Five dollars costs three cents.

YES! MAGICALLY!
CORNS LIFT OUT WITH FINGERS

You simply say to the drug store man, "Give me a quarter of an ounce of freestone." This will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn from one's feet.

A few drops of this new ether compound applied directly upon a tender, aching corn should relieve the soreness instantly, and soon the entire corn, root and all, dries up and can be lifted out with the fingers.

This new way to rid one's feet of corns was introduced by a Cincinnati man, who says that, while freestone is sticky, it dries in a moment, and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin.

Don't let father die of infection or lockjaw from whitening at his corns, but clip this out and make him try it.

In Either Case.
One chilly autumn morning a Scottish villager met his minister in the main street.

"Guld-day!" he said cheerily. "Are ye cauld the morning?"

"Ay, Sandy!" retorted the minister, with a smile. "And remember that many are called, but few are chosen."

But Sandy was as nubile-witted as he, and promptly back came the remark:

"Ah, well, minister, if ye are no chosen, ye'll no' be cauld!"

What a Pity!
An untravelled countryman once treated himself to a trip to London. There, for the first time in his life, he saw a schoolgirl go through her gymnastic exercises for the amusement of the little ones with whom she was playing.

After gazing at her with looks of interest and compassion for some time, he asked a boy nearby if she had fits.

"No," replied the boy, "them's gymnastics."

"Ah, how sad," said the man. "How long's she had 'em?"

"BAYER" ARE ASPIRIN

Not Aspirin at All without the "Bayer Cross"

The name "Bayer" stamped on tablets positively identifies the only genuine Aspirin—the Aspirin prescribed by physicians for over nineteen years and now made in Canada.

Always buy an unbroken package of "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" which contains proper directions for Colds, Headache, Toothache, Earache, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Rheumatism, Neuritis, Joint Pains, and Pain generally.

Handy tin boxes containing 12 tablets cost but a few cents. Druggists also sell larger "Bayer" packages.

There is only one Aspirin—"Bayer"—You must say "Bayer"

Aspirin is the trade mark (registered in Canada) of Bayer Manufacture of Monocarbonylchloride. While it is well known that Aspirin means Bayer Manufacture, to assist the public against imitations, the Tablets of Bayer Company will be stamped with their general trade mark, the "Bayer Cross."
