

Sparkles.

A GRAVEYARD in county Cork has the following notice over its entrance gate: "Only the dead who live in this parish are buried here."

AN advertisement reads: "Wanted—A young man to be partly out of doors and partly behind the counter." What will the result be when the door slams?

THE RIGHT WAY.—The only proper way to cure a cough is to loosen the tough mucus or phlegm that clogs the bronchial pipes. This is why Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam is the most successful remedy for coughs, colds, throat and lung troubles.

A BRIGHT little girl who saw three sisters with hair of a rich auburn remarked to her mother: "Seems to me, mamma, that kind of hair must be redheady in that family."

THE sermon of the best preacher in the world will not make so much impression on a congregation as the sudden pattering of rain on the window-panes of a church containing 200 new bonnets.

"I BELIEVE you're right," said an old gentleman, "so far as the abstract is concerned; but—" Just then he slipped and struck his head against the asphalt pavement. "But," he continued as he got up, "I don't care to discuss the matter in the concrete."

These celebrated artistes will arrive here in the coming season to give us pleasure during the dreary months. Some people, however, prefer a different kind of pleasure and that is to furnish a home of their own, and have music, cards and games to while away the hours. Jolliffe's is the place to furnish these homes, and 467 to 473 Queen Street West contains an enormous variety for you to choose from.

"I SEE it reported that oil has been struck in Ireland," observed the horse editor. "Oh, that's nothing," replied the snake editor, "they have been striking oil there for years." "Indeed! What kind of oil?" "Turm-oil."

THACKERAY tells us of a woman begging alms from him who, when she saw him put his hand in his pocket, cried out, "May the blessing of God follow you all your life!" But when he only pulled out his snuff box, she immediately added, "And never overtake ye."

HIS nomination—Mr. Wienerschnitzel: "Shentlemen, I rise to nominate Adolph Gutenschweitzer for alderman." Chairman: "Who is the gentleman? We don't know him." Mr. W.: "He don't vas in America yet, but he gomes over here next month already."

ADVICE TO CONSUMPTIVES.

On the appearance of the first symptoms—as general debility, loss of appetite, pallor, chilly sensations, followed by night sweats and cough—prompt measures for relief should be taken. Consumption is scrofulous disease of the lungs:—therefore use the great anti-scrofula or blood purifier and strength restorer,—Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery." Superior to cod liver oil as a nutritive, and unsurpassed as a pectoral. For weak lungs, spitting of blood and kindred affections, it has no equal. Sold by druggists the world over. For Dr. Pierce's Treatise on Consumption, send ten cents in stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

JONES (to friend who applies for position as letter-carrier): "Think yer got the persish?" His Friend: "Got it? No. The first question they axed me was how fur it was from London to Constantinopol; an' I told 'em if that was goin' to be the route, I'd give it up."

"MR. SCHMIDT," said a German gentleman recently, as he entered a Pittsburgh merchant's office, "Mister Schmidt, I haf der schmall pox"— "Mercy! Mr. Schneider," was the hurried reply, "don't come here," and the clerks rapidly disappeared in various directions. "Vot's der madder mit you fellars anyhow?" pursued Schneider. "I haf der schmall pox full of butter oud in mine waggon vot der Mrs. Schmidt ordered last week already." Explanations.

Horsford's Acid Phosphate.
In General Debility.

Dr. E. W. HILL, Glens Falls, N.Y., says: "I have used it in cases of nervous and general debility, and always with success. I consider it an excellent remedy for atonic dyspepsia, or any low state of the system."

"HABIT" is hard to overcome. If you take off the first letter it doesn't change it "a bit." If you take off another the whole of "it" remains. If you remove "i" it is not "t" totally used up. All of which goes to show that if you wish to be rid of a bad habit you must throw it off altogether.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Possesses the greatest possible power to heal and control affections of the throat and lungs, with absolute safety for children or adults. The experience of years has proven it to be of inestimable value as a household medicine, and for professional use. Thousands of physicians and families testify to its great worth. Jas. E. Moling, Hilliard, Ohio, writes: "I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in my family for twelve years, and have found that, as a remedy for Coughs, Colds, or Sore Throats, it

Is Unequaled.

J. I. Miller, editor of the "Lutheran Home," Luray, Va., writes: "I advertise nothing that I do not know to be good. I was saved from the grave, I am sure, by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and have recommended it to others with the happiest results." L. J. Addison, M. D., Chicago, Ill., writes: "I have never found, in thirty-five years of continuous study and practice in medicine, any preparation of so great value as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, for treatment of diseases of the throat and lungs; and I constantly recommend it to my patients. It not only breaks up colds and cures severe coughs, but is effective in relieving the most serious bronchial and pulmonary affections."

John J. Uhlman, Brooklyn, N.S., writes: "Twelve years ago, I was afflicted with a severe bronchial trouble, pronounced by a skilful physician to be very dangerous, and liable to terminate in Pneumonia. After using one bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, I found great relief, and an occasional use of it since that time has, I think, extended my life ten years at least." Mrs. V. M. Thebaud, Montreal, Canada, writes: "Last spring my daughter was attacked by membranous croup, or diphtheria. The doctor prescribed Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which cured her of the diphtheria. Being still very weak and sick, she began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which restored her to vigorous health."
