or the Dependencies thereof, or to Gibraltar, under the Regulations of these Acts See " Gibraltar," "Malta." 5. ————————————————————————————————————				Reign.	Chap.	Se
British Colonies, or Plantations, may be exported direct to Malts, or the Dependencies thereof, or to Gibraltar, under the Regu- lations of these Acts See " Gibraltar." "Malta." 	YUU	D-continued.		÷ - (-	1-
or the Dependencies thereof, or to Gibraltar, under the Regu- lations of these Acts See " Gibraltar," "Malta." 5. ————————————————————————————————————	_ 4•	British Colonies on Dispersions may be exported direct to Malta				l
lations of these Acts See "Gibrallar." "Malta." 5. — If any Ship shall take on board any Logwood, Fustic, or other Dying Wood, and Bond shall not be first given with One sufficient Surety to unload the same in Great Britain or Ireland, (the Dangers of the Seas excepted) there shall be paid to His Majesty the Duties hereafter mentioned; that is to say, For Logwood the Cwt. containing 112 lbs. 3£5 •. For Fustic and other Dying Wood, the Cwt. containing 112 lbs. Supence. 25 Car. 2. To be collected and paid at such Places, and to such Collectors and Officers, as shall be appointed to receive the same, before the Lading thereof 2 6. — The Duties shall be deemed Sterling Money of Great Britain, and shall be received according to the Proportion and Value of Five Shillings and Sixpence the Ounce in Silver, and (the necessary Charges of raising and paying the same excepted) shall be paid into the Receipt of the Exchanger 7. — The Business shall be managed, and the Duty levied by the Commissioners of the Tesaury 1 Geo: I. St. I. 12 8. — In case any Person liable to pay the Duty shall not have shipped as shall amount to the Value thereof, according to the exert of the Commodity in such Plantation 25 Car. 2. 9. — If the Goods shall be loaden before the Duties are paid, every Offence forfeit Troble the Value of the Goods, shall for every Offence forfeit, and prosecuted by any Officer of the Customs 4 Geo. 3. 15 2' 10. — Viz. Logwood, Fusit, or other Wood for Dyers' Use, Mahogany, and Woods for Cabinet Ware, the Growth of any of the Clontinet of Americabelonging to or under the Domininon of		British Colonies of Flantations, may be exported direct to Manay			29
See " Gibraltar." "Whata.				57 Geo. 3.	1 4
 Maira.⁴ Maira.⁴ Maira.⁶ If any Ship shall take on board any Logwood, Fustic, or other Dying Wood, and Bond shall not be first given with One sufficient Surety to unload the same in Great Britain or Ireland, (the Dangers of the Seas excepted) there shall be paid to His Majesty the Duties hereafter mentioned; that is to say, For Logwood the Cwt. containing 112 lbs. xf5⁶. For Fustic and other Dying Wood, the Cwt. containing 112 lbs. Stypence. To be collected and paid at such Places, and to such Collectors and Officers, as shall be apointed to receive the same, before the Lading thereof ⁵/₂. The Duties shall be deemed Sterling Money of Great Britain, and shall be received according to the Proportion and Value of Five Shillings and Sixpence the Ounce in Silver, and (the necessary Charges of raising and paying the same excepted) shall be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer The Business shall be in Exchequer The Carnes of the Customs in England, under the Authority of the Commissioners of the Treasury Such Money, such a Proportion of the Commodity to be shipped as shall amount to the Value thereof, according to the same shall howingly come after the Loading, shall for every Offence forfeir Treble the Value of the Gomotity to be shipped as shall amount to the Value thereof, according to the Same store for Great Treble the Offence is committed, and all the Boats made use of shall be forfeited, and prosecuted by any Officer of the Colonies of Plantations in America, or of any Country on the Colonies of Plantations in America, or of any Country on the Colonies of Plantations in America, or of any to the refer Ports to any Part of the Dutted Kingdom, under the Regulations, Restrictons, Securites, Penalues, and to Geo. 11. c. 10. with respect to the Goods therein funders of Public Records, but it has been considered 45 Geo. 3. 57 This is the Sum stated in the Edition of the Statusts published under the	-	lations of these Acts		· · · · · ·	1
 5. — If any Ship shall take on board any Logwood, Fustic, or other Dying Wood, and Bond shall not be first given with One sufficient Surety to unload the same in Great Britain or Ireland, (the Dangers of the Seas excepted) there shall be paid to His Majesty the Duties hereafter mentioned; that is to say, For Logwood the Cwt. containing 112 lbs. #55*. For Fustic and other Dying Wood, the Cwt. containing 112 lbs. #55*. For Fustic and other Dying Wood, the Cwt. containing 112 lbs. #55*. For Fustic and other Dying Wood, the Cwt. containing 112 lbs. Surpence. To be collected and paid at such Places, and to such Collectors and Officer, as shall be appointed to receive the same, before the Lading thereof . — The Duties shall be deemed Sterling Money of Great Britain, and shall be collected and paid to the Amount of the Value which such nominal Sums bear in Great Britain, and shall be received according to the Proportion and Value of Five Shillings and Sixpence the Ounce in Silver, and (the necessary Charges of raising and paying the same excepted) shall be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer 7. — The Business shall be managed, and the Duty levied by the Commissioners of the Customs in England, under the Authority of the Commodity in such Plantation of the Commodity to be shipped as shall amount to the Value thereof, according to the best Price the Commodity to be computed according to the best Price the Commodity to rest the Place where the Offence is commuted; and all the Boats made use of shall be forfeited, and prosecuted by any Officer of the Customs in Arnerac, of any Officer of refer Treble to Yalue of the Goods, to be computed according to the best Price the Commodity to rest made use of shall be forfeited, and prosecuted by any Officer of the Customs in Arnerac, or of any Contry on the Continent of America belonging to or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, may be exported from any of the Fee Ports to any Part of the U				* * *	1	-
other Dying Wood, and Bond shall not be first given with One sufficient Surety to unload the same in Great Britain or Ireland, (the Dangers of the Seas excepted) there shall be paid to His Majesty the Duties hereafter mentioned; that is to say, For Logwood the Cwt. containing 112 lbs. #5 ⁶ . To be collected and paid at such Places, and to such Collectors and Officers, as shall be appointed to receive the same, before the Lading thereof "	Ē.				- sufficient Surrey to unload the same in Great Britain or Ireland, (the Dangers of the Scase excepted) there shall be paid to His Majesty the Duties hereafter mentioned; that is to say. For Logwood the Cwt. containing 112 lbs. #5 *. For Fustic and other Dying Wood, the Cwt. containing 112 lbs. Surpence. To be collected and paid at such Places, and to such Collectors and Officers, as shall be appointed to receive the same, before the Lading thereof 6. — The Duties shall be collected and paid to the Amount of the Value which such nominal Sums bear in Great Britain, and shall be received the Proportion and Value of Five Shillings and Sixpence the Ounce in Silver, and (the neces- sary Charges of raising and paying the same excepted) shall be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer 7. — The Business shall be managed, and the Duty levied by the Commissioners of the Crustoms in England, under the Authority of the Commodity in such Planetion 9. — If the Goods shall be loaden before the Duties are paid, every Person assilts or other will commodity to be shipped as shall amount to the Value thereof, according to the Current Rate of the Commodity in such Planetion 9. — If the Goods shall be loaden before the Duties are paid, every Offence forfeit Treble the Value of the Goods, to be computed according to the best Price the Commodity to bes shipped as shall anowingly come after the Loading, shall for every Offence forfeit Treble the Value of the Goods, to be computed according to the best Price the Commodity to bes Mahogany, and Woods for Cabinet Ware, the Growth of any of the Colonies or Plantatons in America, or of any Country on the Colonies or Plantatons in America, or of any Country on the Colonies or Plantatons in America, pro Junet, what we have the Regulations, Restrictions, Securntes, Penalhes, and Forfeitures provided in 12 Car. II. c. 18. 22 and 22 Car. II. c. 26. and 20 Geo. III. c. 10. with respect to the Goods thereun enumerated See "Free Ports." This is the Sum stated in the		other Dying Wood, and Bond shall not be first given with One	P.		{	ł
 (the Dangers of the Seas excepted) there shall be paid to His Majesty the Duties hereafter mentioned; that is to say, For Logwood the Cwt. containing 112 hs. $$$2. 7 For Fustic and other Dying Wood, the Cwt. containing 112 hs. $$$$2. 7 For Fustic and other Dying Wood, the Cwt. containing 112 hs. $		sufficient Surety to unload the same in Great Britain or Ireland.	1	5
Majesty the Duties hereafter mentioned; that is to say, For Logwood the Cwt. containing 112 lbs. ±5 ⁴ . For Fustic and other Dying Wood, the Cwt. containing 112 lbs. Supence. To be collected and paid at such Places, and to such Collectors and Officers, as shall be appointed to receive the same, before the Lading thereof The Duties shall be deemed Sterling Money of Great Britain, and shall be collected and paid to the Amount of the Value which such nominal Sums bear in Great Britain, and shall be received according to the Proportion and Value of Five Shillings and Sixpence the Ounce in Silver, and (the neces- sary Charges of raising and paying the same excepted) shall be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer 7.— The Business shall be managed, and the Duty levied by the Commissioners of the Customs in England, under the Authority of the Commodity in such Plantation 9. — If the Goods shall be loaden before the Duties are paid, every Offence forfeit Treble the Value of the Coommodity bears at the Place where the Offence is committed j and all the Boats made use of shall be forfeited, and prosecuted by any Officer of the Customs		(the Dangers of the Seas excepted) there shall be naid to His		~ ~		-
 For Logwood the Cwr. containing 112 lbs. $\vec{x}_{5}^{6}$. For Fustic and other Dying Wood, the Cwt. containing 112 lbs. Supence. To be collected and paid at such Places, and to such Collectors and Officers, as shall be appointed to receive the same, before the Lading thereof The Duties shall be deemed Sterling Money of Great Britain, and shall be collected and paid to the Amount of the Value which such nominal Sums bear in Great Britain, and shall be collected and paid to the Amount of the Value which such nominal Sums bear in Great Britain, and shall be collected and paid to the Amount of the Value which such nominal Sums bear in Great Britain, and shall be created according to the Proportion and Value of Five Shillings and Sixpence the Ounce in Silver, and (the necessary Charges of raising and paying the same excepted) shall be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer The Business shall be managed, and the Duty levied by the Commissioners of the Treasury Money to pay the same, the Officers shall accept, instead of such Money, such a Proportion of the Commodity to be shipped as shall amount to the Value thereof, according to the same shall knowingly come after the Loading, shall for every Offence forfeit Treble the Value of the Goods, to be computed according to the best Price the Commodity bears at the Place where the Offence is commuted; and all the Boats made use of shall be forfeited, and prosecuted by any Officer of the Customs The Customs - Greint Twelon, Securities, Penalties, and Forfeitures provided in 12 Car. II. c. 18. 22 and 23 Car. II. c. 26. and 20 Geo. III. c. 10. with respect to the Goods theren enumerated - See "Free Ports." This is the Sum stated in the Edition of the Statutes published under the train of the Commissioner's of Public Records, but it bas been considered 	ب	Mainter the During horsefter mentioned, that is to say	1	• • • · ·	ľ
 For Fusic and other Dying Wood, the Cwt. containing 112 lbs. Surpence. To be collected and paid at such Places, and to such Collectors and Officers, as shall be appointed to receive the same, before the Lading thereof ? The Duties shall be deemed Sterling Money of Great Britain, and shall be collected and paid to the Amount of the Value which such nominal Sums bear in Great Britain, and shall be received according to the Proportion and Value of Five Shillings and Sixpence the Ounce in Silver, and (the neces- sary Charges of raising and paying the same excepted) shall be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer The Business shall be managed, and the Dury levied by the Commissioners of the Customs in England, under the Authority of the Commosistioner's of the Treasury In case any Person liable to pay the shall accept, instead of such Money, such a Proportion of the Commodity to be shipped as shall amount to the Value thereof, according to the current Rate of the Commodity in such Plantation the rerrent Rate of the Commodity in such Plantation the Place where the Offence is committed; and prosecuted by any Officer of the Customs Wiz. Logwood, Fustic, or other Wood for Dyers' Use, Mahogany, and Woods for Cabinet Ware, the Growth of any of the Colonies or Plantations in America, or of any Country on the Colonies or Plantations in America, or of any Country on the Colonies or Plantations in America, or of any Country on the Colonies or Plantations, Sceurntes, Penaltes, and Forfeitures provided in 12 Car. II. c. 18. 22 and 23 Car. II. c. 26. and 20 Geo. III. c. 10. with respect to the Goods therein enumerated - 					1.
 112 lbs. Supence. To be collected and paid at such Places, and to such Collectors and Officers, as shall be appointed to receive the same, before the. Lading thereof — The Duties shall be deemed Sterling Money of Great Britain, and shall be collected and paid to the Amount of the Value which such nominal Sums bear in Great Britain, and shall be received according to the Proportion and Value of Fire Shillings and Sixpence the Ounce in Silver, and (the neces- sary Charges of raising and paying the same excepted) shall be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer 7. — The Business shall be managed, and the Dury levied by the Commissioners of the Creasury 8. — In case any Person liable to pay the Duty shall not have Money to pay the same, the Officers shall accept, instead of such Money, such a Proportion of the Commodity to be shipped as shall amount to the Value thereof, according to the current Rate of the Commodity in such Plantation 9. — If the Goods shall be loaden before the Duties are paid, every Person assisting or otherwise concerned or to whose Hands the same shall knowingly come after the Loading, shall for every Offence forfeit Treble the Value of the Goods, to be computed according to the best Price the Commodity bears at the Place where the Offence is committed; and all the Boats made use of shall be forfeited, and prosecuted by any Officer of the Costoms 10. — Viz. Logwood, Fustic, or other Wood for Dyers' Use, Mahogany, and Woods for Cabinet Ware, the Growth of any of the Colnies or Plantations in America, or of any Country on the Continent of Americz belonging to or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, may be exported from any of the Free Ports to any Part of the United Kingdom, under the Regulations, Restrictions, Securitics, Penalites, and Forfeitures provided in 12 Car. II. c. 18. 22 and 23 Car. II. c. 26. and ao Geo. III. c. 10. with respect to the Goods therein enumerated 				25 Car. 2.	17	} :
To be collected and paid at such Places, and to such Collectors and Officers, as shall be appointed to receive the same, before the. Lading thereof G. ————————————————————————————————————	- .		1	~ , ,	1 -	1
To be collected and paid at such Places, and to such Collectors and Officers, as shall be appointed to receive the same, before the. Lading thereof G. ————————————————————————————————————		112 lbs. Sixpence.	-	· · · ·	$
and Officers, as shall be appointed to receive the same, before the Lading thereof The Duties shall be deemed Sterling Money of Great Britain, and shall be collected and paid to the Amount of the Value which such nominal Sums bear in Great Britain, and shall be received according to the Proportion and Value of Five Shillings and Sixpence the Ounce in Silver, and (the neces- sary Charges of raising and paying the same excepted) shall be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer 7. — The Business shall be managed, and the Duty levied by the Commissioners of the Customs in England, under the Authority of the Commissioner of the Treasury 8. — In case any Person liable to pay the Daty shall not have Money to pay the same, the Officers shall accept, instead of such Money, such a Proportion of the Commodity to be shipped as shall amount to the Value thereof, according to the current Rate of the Commodity is such Plantation 9. — If the Goods shall be loaden before the Duties are paid, every Offence forfeit Treble the Value of the Goods, to be computed according to the best Price the Commodity bears at the Place where the Officers is commuted; and all the Boats made use of shall be forfeited, and prosecuted by any Officer of the Costoms 10. — Viz. Logwood, Fustic, or other Wood for Dyers' Use, Mahogany, and Woods for Cabinet Ware, the Growth of any of the Colnies or Plantations in America, or of any Country on the Colnies or Plantations in America, or of any Country on the Regulations, Restrictions, Sceurtices, Planka, and Forfeitures provided in 12 Car. II. c. 18. 22 and 23 Car. II. c. 26. and ao Geo. III. c. 10. with respect to the Goods therein enumerated See " Free Ports." This is the Sum stated in the Edition of the Statutes published under the textion of the Commissioner of Public Records, but it has been considered		To be collected and paid at such Places, and to such Collectors	1		1 *
 the Lading thereof G The Duties shall be deemed Sterling Money of Great Britain, and shall be collected and paid to the Amount of the Value which such nominal Sums bear in Great Britain, and the received according to the Proportion and Value of Five Shillings and Sixpence the Ounce in Silver, and (the neccessary Charges of raising and paying the same excepted) shall be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer 7 The Business shall be managed, and the Duty levied by the Commissioners of the Customs in England, under the Authority of the Commissioners of the Treasury 8 In case any Person liable to pay the Duty shall not have Money to pay the same, the Officers shall accept, instead of such Money, such a Proportion of the Commodity to be shipped as shall be loaden before the Duties are paid, every Offence forfeir Treble the Value thereof, according to the current Rate of the Commodity in such Plantation 9 If the Goods shall be loaden before the Duties are paid, every Offence forfeir Treble the Value tof the Goods, to be computed according to the best Price the Commodity bers at the Place where the Offence is committed ; and all the Boats made use of shall be forfeited, and prosecuted by any Officer of the Customs - 10 Viz. Logwood, Fustic, or other Wood for Dyers' Use, Mahogany, and Woods for Cabinet Ware, the Growth of any of the Colonies or Plantations in America, or of any Country on the Colonies or Plantations in America, or of any Country on the Colonies or Plantations, Securitics, Penalities, and Forfeitures provided in 12 Car. II. c. 18. 22 and 23 Car. II. c. 26. and 20 Geo. III. c. 10. with respect to the Goods therein enumerated		and Officers, as shall be appointed to receive the same, before	1.	• • •	4	[
 6. — The Duties shall be deemed Sterling Money of Great Britain, and shall be collected and paid to the Amount of the Value which such nominal Sums bear in Great Britain, and shall be received according to the Proportion and Value of Five Shillings and Sixpence the Ounce in Silver, and (the neces- sary Charges of raising and paying the same excepted) shall be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer 7. — The Business shall be managed, and the Duty levied by the Commissioners of the Customs in England, under the Authority of the Commissioners of the Treasury 8. — In case any Person liable to pay the Duty shall not have Money to pay the same, the Officers shall accept, instead of such Money, such a Proportion of the Commodity to be shipped as shall amount to the Value thereof, according to the current Rate of the Commodity in such Plantation 9. — If the Goods shall be loaden before the Duties are paid, every Person assisting or otherwise concerned or to whose Hands the same shall knowingly come after the Loading, shall for every Offence forfeit Treble the Value of the Goods, to be computed according to the best Price the Commodity bears at the Place where the Offence is committed, and all the Boats made use of shall be forefietd, and prosecuted by any Officer of the Coustoms 10. — Viz. Logwood, Fustic, or other Wood for Dyers' Use, Mahogany, and Woods for Cabinet Ware, the Growth of any of the Colonies or Plantatons in Azterica, or of any Country on the Continent of America belonging to or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, may be exported from any of the Free Ports to any Part of the United Kingdom, under the Regulations, Restrictions, Securitics, Penalues, and Forfeitures provided in 12 Car. II. c. 18. 22 and 23 Car. II. c. 26. and 20 Geo. III. c. 10. with respect to the Goods therein enumerated		the Lading thereof	1		† -	ł
Britain, and shall be collected and paid to the Amount of the Value which such nominal Sums bear in Great Britain, and shall be received according to the Proportion and Value of Five Shillings and Sixpence the Ounce in Silver, and (the neces- sary Charges of raising and paying the same excepted) shall be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer 7. — The Business shall be managed, and the Duty levied by the Commissioners of the Customs in England, under the Authority of the Commissioners of the Treasury 8. — In case any Person liable to pay the Duty shall not have Money to pay the same, the Officers shall accept, instead of such Money, such a Proportion of the Commodity to be shipped as shall amount to the Value thereof, according to the current Rate of the Commodity in such Plantation 9. — If the Goods shall be loaden before the Duties are paid, every Person assisting or otherwise concerned or to whose Hands the same shall knowingly come after the Loading, shall for every Offence forfeit Treble the Value of the Goods, to be computed according to the best Price the Commodity bers at the Place where the Offence is committed ; and all the Boats made use of shall be forfeited, and prosecuted by any Officer of the Customs – 10. — Viz. Logwood, Fustic, or other Wood for Dyers' Use, Mahogany, and Woods for Cabinet Ware, the Growth of any of the Colonies or Plantations in Anzenca, or of any Country on the Continent of America belonging to or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, may be exported from any of the Free Ports to any Part of the United Kingdom, under the Regulations, Restrictions, Securitics, Penaltics, and Forfeitures provided in 12 Car. II. c. 18. 22 and 23 Car. II. c. 26. and 20 Geo. III. c. 10. with respect to the Goods therein cnumerated	6	The Duties shall be deemed Sterling Money of Great	·		- · · ·
Value which such nominal Sums bear in Great Britain, and shall be received according to the Proportion and Value of Five Shillings and Sixpence the Ounce in Silver, and (the neces- sary Charges of raising and paying the same excepted) shall be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer 7. — The Business shall be managed, and the Duty levied by the Commissioners of the Customs in England, under the Authority of the Commissioners of the Treasury 8. — In case any Person liable to pay the Duty shall not have Money, to pay the same, the Officers shall accept, instead of such Money, such a Proportion of the Commodity to be shipped as shall amount to the Value thereof, according to the current Rate of the Commodity in such Plantation 9. — If the Goods shall be loaden before the Duties are paid, every Person assisting or otherwise concerned or to whose Hands the same shall knowingly come after the Loading, shall for every Offence forfeit Treble the Value of the Goods, to be computed according to the best Price the Commodity bears at the Place where the Offence is committed; and all the Boats made use of shall be forfeited, and prosecuted by any Officer of the Customs – – – – – – Viz. Logwood, Fustic, or other Wood for Dyers' Use, Mahogany, and Woods for Cabinet Ware, the Growth of any of the Colonies or Plantations in America, or of any Country on the Continent of America belonging to or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, may be exported from any of the Free Ports to any Part of the United Kingdom, under the Regulations, Restrictions, Securities, Penalties, and Forfeitures provided in 12 Car. II. c. 18. 22 and 23 Car. II. c. 26. and 20 Geo. III. c. 10. with respect to the Goods therein enumerated – – – – – – – – – – – – – – – – – – –				P . 17	F .
 shall be received according to the Proportion and Value of Five Shillings and Sixpence the Ounce in Silver, and (the necessary Charges of raising and paying the same excepted) shall be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer 7. — The Business shall be managed, and the Duty levied by the Commissioners of the Customs in England, under the Authority of the Commissioner's of the Treasury 8. — In case any Person liable to pay the Duty shall not have Money to pay the same, the Officers shall accept, instead of such Money, such a Proportion of the Commodity to be shipped as shall amount to the Value thereof, according to the current Rate of the Commodity in such Plantation 9. — If the Goods shall be loaden before the Duties are paid, every Offence forfeit Treble the Value of the Goods, to be computed according to the best Price the Commodity bears at the Place where the Offence is committed, and all the Boats made use of shall be forfeited, and prosecuted by any Officer of the Customs 10. — Viz. Logwood, Fustic, or other Wood for Dyers' Use, Mahogany, and Woods for Cabinet Ware, the Growth of any of the Colonies or Plantations in America, or of any Country on the Continent of America belonging to or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, may be exported from any of the Free Ports to any Part of the United Kingdom, under the Regulations, Restrictions, Securitics, Penalites, and Forfeitures provided in 12 Car. II. c. 18. 22 and 23 Car. II. c. 3. 57 45 Geo. 3. 57 This is the Sum stated in the Edition of the Statutes published under the textom of the Cusmissioner of Public Records, but u has been considered 	-		1.		h	ľ.
Shillings and Sixpence the Ounce in Silver, and (the neces- sary Charges of raising and paying the same excepted) shall be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer 7. — The Business shall be managed, and the Duty levied by the Commissioners of the Customs in England, under the Authority of the Commissioners of the Treasury 8. — In case any Person liable to pay the Duty shall not have Money to pay the same, the Officers shall accept, instead of such Money, such a Proportion of the Commodity to be shipped as shall amount to the Value thereof, according to the current Rate of the Commodity in such Plantation 9. — If the Goods shall be loaden before the Duties are paid, the same shall knowingly come after the Loading, shall for every Offence forfeit Treble the Value of the Goods, to be computed according to the best Price the Commotity bears at the Place where the Officence is committed; and all the Boats made use of shall be forfeited, and prosecuted by any Officer of the Customs	v		μ		1 - 1	•
 sary Charges of raising and paying the same excepted) shall be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer 7. — The Business shall be managed, and the Duty levied by the Commissioners of the Customs in England, under the Authority of the Commissioners of the Treasury 8. — In case any Person liable to pay the Duty shall not have Money to pay the same, the Officers shall accept, instead of such Money, such a Proportion of the Commodity to be shipped as shall amount to the Value thereof, according to the current Rate of the Commodity in such Planation 9. — If the Goods shall be loaden before the Duties are paid, every Person assisting or otherwise concerned or to whose Hands the same shall knowingly come after the Loading, shall for every Offence forfeit Treble the Value of the Goods, to be computed according to the best Price the Commodity bears at the Place where the Offence is committed; and all the Boats made use of shall be forfeited, and prosecuted by any Officer of the Customs 10. — Viz. Logwood, Fustic, or other Wood for Dyers' Use, Mahogany, and Woods for Cabinet Ware, the Growth of any of the Colonies or Plantations in America, or of any Country on the Continent of America belonging to or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, may be exported from any of the Free Ports to any Part of the United Kingdom, under the Regulations, Restrictions, Sccurttes, Penalites, and Forfeitures provided in 12 Car. II. c. 18. 22 and 23 Car. II. c. 26. and 20 Geo. III. c. 10. with respect to the Goods therein enumerated		shall be received according to the Proportion and value of Five	1	4 Geo. 3.	15	4
be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer 7. — The Business shall be managed, and the Duty levied by the Commissioners of the Customs in England, under the Authority of the Commissioners of the Treasury 8. — In case any Person liable to pay the Duty shall not have Money to pay the same, the Officers shall accept, instead of such Money, such a Proportion of the Commodity to be shipped as shall amount to the Value thereof, according to the current Rate of the Commodity in such Plantation 9. — If the Goods shall be loaden before the Duties are paid, every Person assisting or otherwise concerned or to whose Hands the same shall knowingly come after the Loading, shall for every Offence forfeit Treble the Value of the Goods, to be computed according to the best Price the Commodity bears at the Place where the Offence is committed; and all the Boats made use of shall be forfeited, and prosecuted by any Officer of the Customs 10. — Viz. Logwood, Fustic, or other Wood for Dyers' Use, Mahogany, and Woods for Cabinet Ware, the Growth of any of the Colonies or Plantations in America, or of any Country on the Continent of America belonging to or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, may be exported from any of the Free Ports to any Part of the United Kingdom, under the Regulations, Restrictions, Securitics, Penalites, and Forfeitures provided in 12 Car. 11. c. 18. 22 and 23 Car. 11. c. 26. and 20 Geo. III. c. 10. with respect to the Goods therein enumerated —		Shillings and Sixpence the Ounce in Silver, and (the neces-		َ ج
 7. — The Business shall be managed, and the Duty levied by the Commissioners of the Customs in England, under the Authority of the Commissioners of the Treasury 8. — In case any Person liable to pay the Duty shall not have Money to pay the same, the Officers shall accept, instead of such Money, such a Proportion of the Commodity to be shipped as shall amount to the Value thereof, according to the current Rate of the Commodity in such Plantation 9. — If the Goods shall be loaden before the Duties are paid, every Person assisting or otherwise concerned or to whose Hands the same shall knowingly come after the Loading, shall for every Offence forfeit Treble the Value of the Goods, to be computed according to the best Price the Commodity bears at the Place where the Offence is committed; and all the Boats made use of shall be forfeited, and prosecuted by any Officer of the Customs 10. — Viz. Logwood, Fustic, or other Wood for Dyers' Use, Mahogany, and Woods for Cabinet Ware, the Growth of any of the Colonies or Plantations in America, or of any Country on the Gootnet of any Part of the United Kingdom, under the Regulations, Restrictions, Securities, Penalities, and Forfeitures provided in 12 Car. II. c. 18. 22 and 23 Car. II. r. This is the Sum stated in the Edition of the Statutes published under the cation of the Commissioners of Public Records, but it bas been considered 						ł
 7. — The Business shall be managed, and the Duty levied by the Commissioners of the Customs in England, under the Authority of the Commissioners of the Treasury 8. — In case any Person liable to pay the Duty shall not have Money to pay the same, the Officers shall accept, instead of such Money, such a Proportion of the Commodity to be shipped as shall amount to the Value thereof, according to the current Rate of the Commodity in such Plantation 9. — If the Goods shall be loaden before the Duties are paid, every Person assisting or otherwise concerned or to whose Hands the same shall knowingly come after the Loading, shall for every Offence forfeit Treble the Value of the Goods, to be computed according to the best Price the Commodity bears at the Place where the Offence is committed; and all the Boats made use of shall be forfeited, and prosecuted by any Officer of the Customs 10. — Viz. Logwood, Fustic, or other Wood for Dyers' Use, Mahogany, and Woods for Cabinet Ware, the Growth of any of the Colonies or Plantations in America, or of any Country on the Gootnet of any Part of the United Kingdom, under the Regulations, Restrictions, Securities, Penalities, and Forfeitures provided in 12 Car. II. c. 18. 22 and 23 Car. II. r. This is the Sum stated in the Edition of the Statutes published under the cation of the Commissioners of Public Records, but it bas been considered 		be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer	1	w (1
by the Commissioners of the Customs in England, under the Authority of the Commissioners of the Treasury 25 Car. 2. 7 8. — In case any Person liable to pay the Duty shall not have Money to pay the same, the Officers shall accept, instead of such Money, such a Proportion of the Commodity to be shipped as shall amount to the Value thereof, according to the current Rate of the Commodity in such Plantation 9. — If the Goods shall be loaden before the Duties are paid, every Person assisting or otherwise concerned or to whose Hands the same shall knowingly come after the Loading, shall for every Offence forfeit Treble the Value of the Goods, to be computed according to the best Price the Commodity bears at the Place where the Offence is committed; and all the Boats made use of shall be forfeited, and prosecuted by any Officer of the Customs - no. Viz. Logwood, Fustic, or other Wood for Dyers' Use, Mahogany, and Woods for Cabinet Ware, the Growth of any of the Colonies or Plantations in Arterica, or of any Country on the Continent of America belonging to or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, may be exported from any of the Free Ports to any Part of the United Kingdom, under the Regulations, Restrictions, Sccurtics, Penalites, and Forfeitures provided in 12 Car. II. c. 18. 22 and 23 Car. II. c. 26. and 20 Geo. III. c. 10. with respect to the Goods therein enumerated	7			٤	r	ľ
Authority of the Commissioners of the Treasury 8. — In case any Person liable to pay the Duty shall not have Money to pay the same, the Officers shall accept, instead of such Money, such a Proportion of the Commodity to be shipped as shall amount to the Value thereof, according to the current Rate of the Commodity in such Plantation 9. — If the Goods shall be loaden before the Duties are paid, every Person assisting or otherwise concerned or to whose Hands the same shall knowingly come after the Loading, shall for every Offence forfeit Treble the Value of the Goods, to be computed according to the best Price the Commodity bears at the Place where the Offence is committed; and all the Boats made use of shall be forfeited, and prosecuted by any Officer of the Customs 10. — Viz. Logwood, Fustic, or other Wood for Dyers' Use, Mahogany, and Woods for Cabinet Ware, the Growth of any of the Colonies or Plantations in America, or of any Country on the Continent of America belonging to or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, may be exported from any of the Free Ports to any Part of the United Kingdom, under the Regulations, Restrictions, Securitics, Penalities, and Forfeitures provided in 12 Car. II. c. 18. 22 and 23 Car. II. c. 26. and 20 Geo. III. c. 10. with respect to the Goods therein enumerated See "Free Ports." This is the Sum stated in the Edution of the Statutes published under the extian of the Commissioners of Public Records, but it has been considered				25 Car 0		1
 8. — In case any Person liable to pay the Duty shall not have Money to pay the same, the Officers shall accept, instead of such Money, such a Proportion of the Commodity to be shipped as shall amount to the Value thereof, according to the current Rate of the Commodity in such Plantation 9. — If the Goods shall be loaden before the Duties are paid, every Person assisting or otherwise concerned or to whose Hands the same shall knowingly come after the Loading, shall for every Offence forfeit Treble the Value of the Goods, to be computed according to the best Price the Commodity bears at the Place where the Offence is committed; and all the Boats made use of shall be forfeited, and prosecuted by any Officer of the Customs 10. — Viz. Logwood, Fustic, or other Wood for Dyers' Use, Mahogany, and Woods for Cabinet Ware, the Growth of any of the Colonies or Plantations in America, or of any Country on the Continent of America belonging to or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, may be exported from any of the Free Ports to any Part of the United Kingdom, under the Regulations, Restrictions, Securitics, Penaltics, and Forfeitures provided in 12 Car. II. c. 18. 22 and 23 Car. II. c. 26. and 20 Geo. III. c. 10. with respect to the Goods therein enumerated				43 Cal. 2.	1 1
Money to pay the same, the Officers shall accept, instead of such Money, such a Proportion of the Commodity to be shipped as shall amount to the Value thereof, according to the current Rate of the Commodity in such Plantation 9. — If the Goods shall be loaden before the Duties are paid, every Person assisting or otherwise concerned or to whose Hands the same shall knowingly come after the Loading, shall for every Offence forfeit Treble the Value of the Goods, to be computed according to the best Price the Commodity bears at the Place where the Offence is committed; and all the Boats made use of shall be forfeited, and prosecuted by any Officer of the Customs 10. — Viz. Logwood, Fustic, or other Wood for Dyers' Use, Mahogany, and Woods for Cabinet Ware, the Growth of any of the Colonies or Plantations in Arnerica, or of any Country on the Continent of America belonging to or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, may be exported from any of the Free Ports to any Part of the United Kingdom, under the Regulations, Restrictions, Securitics, Penalties, and Forfeitures provided in 12 Car. II. c. 18. 22 and 23 Car. II. c. 26. and 20 Geo. III. c. 10. with respect to the Goods therein enumerated —	Q				1, 1
 such Money, such a Proportion of the Commodity to be shipped as shall amount to the Value thereof, according to the current Rate of the Commodity in such Plantation g. — If the Goods shall be loaden before the Duties are paid, every Person assisting or otherwise concerned or to whose Hands the same shall knowingly come after the Loading, shall for every Offence forfeit Treble the Value of the Goods, to be computed according to the best Price the Commodity bears at the Place where the Offence is committed; and all the Boats made use of shall be forfeited, and prosecuted by any Officer of the Customs 10. Viz. Logwood, Fustic, or other Wood for Dyers' Use, Mahogany, and Woods for Cabinet Ware, the Growth of any of the Continent of America belonging to or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, may be exported from any of the Free Ports to any Part of the United Kingdom, under the Regulations, Restrictions, Securitics, Penalties, and Forfeitures provided in 12 Car. II. c. 18. 22 and 23 Car. II. c. 26. and 20 Geo. III. c. 10. with respect to the Goods therein enumerated	0	Menow to new the same the Officers shall account instead of		-	1. 1	- shipped as shall amount to the Value thereof, according to the current Rate of the Commodity in such Plantation 9. —— If the Goods shall be loaden before the Duties are paid, every Person assisting or otherwise concerned or to whose Hands the same shall knowingly come after the Loading, shall for every Offence forfeit Treble the Value of the Goods, to be computed according to the best Price the Commodity bears at the Place where the Offence is committed; and all the Boats made use of shall be forfeited, and prosecuted by any Officer of the Customs 10. — Viz. Logwood, Fustic, or other Wood for Dyers' Use, Mahogany, and Woods for Cabinet Ware, the Growth of any of the Colonies or Plantations in America, or of any Country on the Continent of America belonging to or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, may be exported from any of the Free Ports to any Part of the United Kingdom, under the Regulations, Restrictions, Securitics, Penalties, and Forfeitures provided in 12 Car. II. c. 18. 22 and 23 Car. II. c. 26. and 20 Geo. III. c. 10. with respect to the Goods therein enumerated — — — This is the Sum stated in the Edition of the Statutes published under the ection of the Commissioners of Public Records, but it has been considered		money to pay the same, the Omcers shall accept, instead of		25 Car o the current Rate of the Commodity in such Plantation 9. If the Goods shall be loaden before the Duties are paid, every Person assisting or otherwise concerned or to whose Hands the same shall knowingly come after the Loading, shall for every Offence forfeit Treble the Value of the Goods, to be computed according to the best Price the Commodity bears at the Place where the Offence is committed; and all the Boats made use of shall be forfeited, and prosecuted by any Officer of the Customs 10. Viz. Logwood, Fustic, or other Wood for Dyers' Use, Mahogany, and Woods for Cabinet Ware, the Growth of any of the Colonies or Plantations in Arnerica, or of any Country on the Continent of America belonging to or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, may be exported from any of the Free Ports to any Part of the United Kingdom, under the Regulations, Restrictions, Securitics, Penalties, and Forfeitures provided in 12 Car. II. c. 18. 22 and 23 Car. II. c. 26. and 20 Geo. III. c. 10. with respect to the Goods therein enumerated This is the Sum stated in the Edition of the Statutes published under the the commissioners of Public Records, but it bas been considered 	Ŷ	such money, such a proportion of the Commonly to be	1	-) -		· - *
 9. — If the Goods shall be loaden before the Duties are paid, every Person assisting or otherwise concerned or to whose Hands the same shall knowingly come after the Loading, shall for every Offence forfeit Treble the Value of the Goods, to be computed according to the best Price the Commodity bears at the Place where the Offence is committed; and all the Boats made use of shall be forfeited, and prosecuted by any Officer of the Customs - Viz. Logwood, Fustic, or other Wood for Dyers' Use, Mahogany, and Woods for Cabinet Ware, the Growth of any of the Colonies or Plantations in America, or of any Country on the Continent of America belonging to or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, may be exported from any of the Free Ports to any Part of the United Kingdom, under the Regulations, Restrictions, Securitics, Penalites, and Forfeitures provided in 12 Car. II. c. 18. 22 and 23 Car. II. c. 26. and 20 Geo. III. c. 10. with respect to the Goods therein enumerated			1	•
 every Person assisting or otherwise concerned or to whose Hands the same shall knowingly come after the Loading, shall for every Offence forfeit Treble the Value of the Goods, to be computed according to the best Price the Commodity bears at the Place where the Offence is committed; and all the Boats made use of shall be forfeited, and prosecuted by any Officer of the Customs 10. Viz. Logwood, Fustic, or other Wood for Dyers' Use, Mahogany, and Woods for Cabinet Ware, the Growth of any of the Colonies or Plantations in America, or of any Country on the Continent of America belonging to or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, may be exported from any of the Free Ports to any Part of the United Kingdom, under the Regulations, Restrictions, Securitics, Penalties, and Forfeitures provided in 12 Car. II. c. 18. 22 and 23 Car. II. c. 26. and 20 Geo. III. c. 10. with respect to the Goods therein enumerated See "Free Ports." 			ł		[.]	, every Person assisting or otherwise concerned or to whose Hands the same shall knowingly come after the Loading, shall for every Offence forfeit Treble the Value of the Goods, to be computed according to the best Price the Commodity bears at the Place where the Offence is committed; and all the Boats made use of shall be forfeited, and prosecuted by any Officer of the Customs 10. — Viz. Logwood, Fustic, or other Wood for Dyers' Use, Mahogany, and Woods for Cabinet Ware, the Growth of any of the Colonies or Plantations in America, or of any Country on the Continent of America belonging to or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, may be exported from any of the Free Ports to any Part of the United Kingdom, under the Regulations, Restrictions, Securitics, Penaltics, and Forfeitures provided in 12 Car. II. c. 18. 22 and 23 Car. II. c. 26. and 20 Geo. III. c. 10. with respect to the Goods therein enumerated	9	If the Goods shall be loaden before the Duties are paid,]	1	,	ľ I the same shall knowingly come after the Loading, shall for every Offence forfeit Treble the Value of the Goods, to be computed according to the best Price the Commodity bears at the Place where the Offence is committed; and all the Boats made use of shall be forfeited, and prosecuted by any Officer of the Customs 10. — Viz. Logwood, Fustic, or other Wood for Dyers' Use, Mahogany, and Woods for Cabinet Ware, the Growth of any of the Colonies or Plantations in America, or of any Country on the Continent of America belonging to or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, may be exported from any of the Free Ports to any Part of the United Kingdom, under the Regulations, Restrictions, Sccurtics, Penalties, and Forfeitures provided in 12 Car. II. c. 18. 22 and 23 Car. II. c. 26. and 20 Geo. III. c. 10. with respect to the Goods therein enumerated	-	every Person assisting or otherwise concerned or to whose Hands	1	· •	ł _ every Offence forfeit Treble the Value of the Goods, to be computed according to the best Price the Commodity bears at the Place where the Offence is committed; and all the Boats made use of shall be forfeited, and prosecuted by any Officer of the Customs 10. — Viz. Logwood, Fustic, or other Wood for Dyers' Use, Mahogany, and Woods for Cabinet Ware, the Growth of any of the Colonies or Plantations in America, or of any Country on the Continent of America belonging to or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, may be exported from any of the Free Ports to any Part of the United Kingdom, under the Regulations, Restrictions, Securities, Penalties, and Forfeitures provided in 12 Car. II. c. 18. 22 and 23 Car. II. c. 26. and 20 Geo. III. c. 10. with respect to the Goods therein enumerated — See "Free Ports." This is the Sum stated in the Edition of the Statutes published under the exciton of the Commissioners of Public Records, but it bas been considered 		the same shall knowingly come after the Loading, shall for	l		F
 computed according to the best Price the Commodity bears at the Place where the Offence is committed; and all the Boats made use of shall be forfeited, and prosecuted by any Officer of the Customs 10. — Viz. Logwood, Fustic, or other Wood for Dyers' Use, Mahogany, and Woods for Cabinet Ware, the Growth of any of the Colonies or Plantations in America, or of any Country on the Continent of America belonging to or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, may be exported from any of the Free Ports to any Part of the United Kingdom, under the Regulations, Restrictions, Securities, Penalties, and Forfeitures provided in 12 Car. II. c. 18. 22 and 23 Car. II. c. 26. and 20 Geo. III. c. 10. with respect to the Goods therein enumerated — See "Free Ports." This is the Sum stated in the Edition of the Statutes published under the the extion of the Commissioners of Public Records, but it bas been considered 		every Offence forfeit Treble the Value of the Goods, to be	[4 Gasta
the Place where the Offence is committed; and all the Boats made use of shall be forfeited, and prosecuted by any Officer of the Customs - Viz. Logwood, Fustic, or other Wood for Dyers' Use, Mahogany, and Woods for Cabinet Ware, the Growth of any of the Colonies or Plantations in America, or of any Country on the Continent of America belonging to or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, may be exported from any of the Free Ports to any Part of the United Kingdom, under the Regulations, Restrictions, Securitics, Penalties, and Forfeitures provided in 12 Car. II. c. 18. 22 and 23 Car. II. c. 26. and 20 Geo. III. c. 10. with respect to the Goods therein enumerated - See "Free Ports." This is the Sum stated in the Edition of the Statutes published under the ection of the Commissioners of Public Records, but it has been considered		computed according to the best Price the Commodity hears at		4 90. 3.	5 ×5	37
made use of shall be forfeited, and prosecuted by any Officer of the Customs 		the Place where the Offence is committed, and all the Verte		. × s	!
of the Customs Viz. Logwood, Fustic, or other Wood for Dyers' Use, Mahogany, and Woods for Cabinet Ware, the Growth of any of the Colonies or Plantations in America, or of any Country on the Continent of America belonging to or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, may be exported from any of the Free Ports to any Part of the United Kingdom, under the Regulations, Restrictions, Securitics, Penalties, and Forfeitures provided in 12 Car. II. c. 18. 22 and 23 Car. II. c. 26. and 20 Geo. III. c. 10. with respect to the Goods therein enumerated This is the Sum stated in the Edition of the Statutes published under the ection of the Commissioners of Public Records, but it has been considered		the rate where the Onence is committee; and an the boats	1	J	1 I
 Viz. Logwood, Fustic, or other Wood for Dyers' Use, Mahogany, and Woods for Cabinet Ware, the Growth of any of the Colonies or Plantations in America, or of any Country on the Continent of America belonging to or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, may be exported from any of the Free Ports to any Part of the United Kingdom, under the Regulations, Restrictions, Securitics, Penalties, and Forfeitures provided in 12 Car. II. c. 18. 22 and 23 Car. II. c. 26. and 20 Geo. III. c. 10. with respect to the Goods therein enumerated This is the Sum stated in the Edition of the Statutes published under the ection of the Commissioners of Public Records, but it has been considered 					.
Mahogany, and Woods for Cabinet Ware, the Growth of any of the Colonies or Plantations in America, or of any Country on the Continent of America belonging to or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, may be exported from any of the Free Ports to any Part of the United Kingdom, under the Regulations, Restrictions, Securities, Penalties, and Forfeitures provided in 12 Car. II. c. 18. 22 and 23 Car. II. c. 26. and 20 Geo. III. c. 10. with respect to the Goods therein enumerated This is the Sum stated in the Edition of the Statutes published under the ection of the Commissioners of Public Records, but it has been considered			Ľ	r	r:
of the Colonies or Plantations in America, or of any Country on the Continent of America belonging to or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, may be exported from any of the Free Ports to any Part of the United Kingdom, under the Regulations, Restrictions, Securitics, Penalties, and Forfeitures provided in 12 Car. II. c. 18. 22 and 23 Car. II. c. 26. and 20 Geo. III. c. 10. with respect to the Goods therein enumerated This is the Sum stated in the Edition of the Statutes published under the ection of the Commissioners of Public Records, but it has been considered	10		1		I. I
of the Colonies or Plantations in America, or of any Country on the Continent of America belonging to or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, may be exported from any of the Free Ports to any Part of the United Kingdom, under the Regulations, Restrictions, Securities, Penalties, and Forfeitures provided in 12 Car. II. c. 18. 22 and 23 Car. II. c. 26. and 20 Geo. III. c. 10. with respect to the Goods therein enumerated This is the Sum stated in the Edition of the Statutes published under the ection of the Commissioners of Public Records, but it has been considered		Mahogany, and Woods for Cabinet Ware, the Growth of any	~	, on the Continent of America belonging to or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, may be exported from any of the Free Ports to any Part of the United Kingdom, under the Regulations, Restrictions, Securities, Penalties, and Forfeitures provided in 12 Car. II. c. 18. 22 and 23 Car. II. c. 26. and 20 Geo. III. c. 10. with respect to the Goods therein enumerated This is the Sum stated in the Edition of the Statutes published under the ection of the Commissioners of Public Records, but it has been considered			Ľ,	- 1		1
of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, may be exported from any of the Free Ports to any Part of the United Kingdom, under the Regulations, Restrictions, Securities, Penalties, and Forfeitures provided in 12 Car. II. c. 18. 22 and 23 Car. II. c. 26. and 20 Geo. III. c. 10. with respect to the Goods therein enumerated - See "Free Ports." This is the Sum stated in the Edition of the Statutes published under the ection of the Commissioners of Public Records, but it has been considered			- from any of the Free Ports to any Part of the United Kingdom, under the Regulations, Restrictions, Securities, Penalties, and Forfeitures provided in 12 Car. II. c. 18. 22 and 23 Car. II. c. 26. and 20 Geo. III. c. 10. with respect to the Goods therein enumerated - See "Free Ports." This is the Sum stated in the Edition of the Statutes published under the ection of the Commissioners of Public Records, but it has been considered			ĺ '
under the Regulations, Restrictions, Sccuritics, Penalties, and Forfeitures provided in 12 Car. II. c. 18. 22 and 23 Car. II. c. 26. and 20 Geo. III. c. 10. with respect to the Goods therein enumerated See "Free Ports." This is the Sum stated in the Edition of the Statutes published under the ection of the Commissioners of Public Records, but it has been considered		from any of the Free Dorte to any Dart of the Timited Kingdom	4	15 Geo. 3.	57
Forfeitures provided in 12 Car. II. c. 18. 22 and 23 Car. II. c. 26. and 20 Geo. III. c. 10. with respect to the Goods therein enumerated				· · · · ·	-
c. 26. and 20 Geo. III. c. 10. with respect to the Goods therein enumerated			-		· 1 enumerated See "Free Ports." This is the Sum stated in the Edition of the Statutes published under the ection of the Commissioners of Public Records, but it has been considered					· • I
See "Free Ports." This is the Sum stated in the Edition of the Statutes published under the ection of the Commissioners of Public Records, but it has been considered		c. 26. and 20 Geo. III. c. 10. with respect to the Goods therein	~	Í
This is the Sum stated in the Edition of the Statutes published under the ection of the Commissioners of Public Records, but it has been considered	•				, I
This is the Sum stated in the Edition of the Statutes published under the ection of the Commissioners of Public Records, but it has been considered		See " Free Ports."
ection of the Commissioners of Public Records, but it has been considered			ſ	-	2
ection of the Commissioners of Public Records, but it has been considered		and the state of t			ſ
				* *	-	,
the Duty intended to be levied was only 5s. the Cwt.	ection	of the Commissioners of Public Records, but it has been considered	~		1

- 2

2