

grossness of the kitchen bar, the dangers of the "jug" and "bottle" brigade and the drinking club; when not attempted to be enforced familiarizes him with open, constant, flagrant violation of the law until he loses all respect for the majesty of the law.

(11) Professedly designed for the moral regeneration of man, it throws aside the Word of God to take in hand the policeman's club.

(12) It is based upon a false assumption, presupposing a condition of affairs that does not exist.

(13) It deprives the country of a large revenue under false pretences.

(14) It is unchristian, unjust, unworkable and unnecessary.
