

5. The several Provisions made in this Act touching the making Writs of Habeas Corpus issuing in time of vacation, returnable into the said Courts, or for making such writs awarded in term time, returnable in vacation, as the cases may respectively happen, and also for making wilful disobedience thereto a contempt of the Court, and for issuing warrants to apprehend and bring before the said Court, Judge or any of them, any person or persons wilfully disobeying any such writ, and in all case of neglect or refusal to become bound as aforesaid, for committing the person or persons so neglecting, or refusing to Gaol as aforesaid, respecting the recognizances to be taken as aforesaid, and the proceeding or proceedings thereon, shall extend to all Writs of Habeas Corpus awarded in pursuance of the said Act passed in England in the Thirty-first year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, in as ample and beneficial a manner as if such writs and the said cases arising thereon had been hereinbefore specially named and provided for respectively.

Provisions of this Act to apply to Writs issued
under Act 21
Charles II.
