

Correspondence.

Leola is Welcome.

Ena, Alta., Sept. 30, 1910.

Sir,—Have you any objections to another girl entering your correspondence column? I hope not. I live on a ranch in Western Alberta, and like it fine. I used to live in the city, but like the country best. I am a fairly good cook, and can drive a team, ride horse-back and milk cows, and am very fond of dancing. I can play the organ and sing. I am learning to play the accordion, and can play a few tunes on the violin. I prefer the violin to any other instrument. Well, I will close, hoping the paper has every success.

Leicester, England, Sept. 20, 1910.
Sir,—Through a friend of mine I have considerable time. At first I took no interest in the correspondence columns, but after reading a few of the letters I began to look forward every month to the time when the next month's issue would arrive, and now I always peruse the correspondence in your paper before reading any other part of it. I note the majority of the correspondents give a short description of themselves, and in this respect I may say I am nearly 19 years of age, and am 5 feet 10 inches high, and as for my looks I think I would pass in a crowd without anyone observing my curiosity. I would be much obliged if you would kindly forward the enclosed letters to their respective addresses.—“Zealand.”

read several numbers of your magazine, and I have been greatly interested in the correspondence column. I am an English girl and live in a very busy town, so I cannot get lonely; but I feel sorry for the poor lonely bachelors in the West. This being my first letter I must not make it too long, but before I draw to a close I must wish your paper every success; also all the readers. I am twenty years of age, very fair, and have blue eyes, medium height and rather plump, but not fat. I should like to correspond with “Anglo-Franco” of the June number if he will write first. I would gladly write to anyone wishing to hear news from dear old England. They will find my address with the Editor. I hope I haven't taken too much space in your valuable paper. I will sign myself—

Moosomin, Sask., Sept. 5th, 1910.
Sir,—I have been an interested reader of your valuable monthly paper for some your correspondence pages and would like to join. Of course, it is only for fun, but might become serious. Here is my description. I am eighteen, very jolly and light-hearted, brown hair, gray eyes, fair complexion, and am five feet five inches tall. I play and sing a little, skate a lot, play tennis, etc. I have been told that I might pass as far as looks go, and am an excellent cook. I don't mind work if it isn't too hard and steady. Now, is there any little boy, about six feet high and from nineteen to twenty-four years old who is in for fun, at least for the present, who would like to correspond with me? I cannot milk, and one dress a year will not do me, so “Archibald” need not answer. Someone jolly for me. Hoping to see this in print and that it does not take too much room, I remain—“Ted.”

“Fruit-a-tives” Promptly Cured Him

DANIEL SAUNDERS, Esq.

Mr. Daniel Saunders, of Shoal Lake, Manitoba, is one of the best known gentlemen in Canada's great wheat country. He lived for years in the West—made a success of his farming—and has now retired from active business life to enjoy the fruits of his work.

When a man of such financial and social standing voluntarily testifies to the great benefits he has received from taking “Fruit-a-tives” there can be no doubt but that “Fruit-a-tives” deserves the confidence of every reader of this paper.

SHOAL LAKE, MAN.,
JUNE 11th, 1910.

“For years, I was bothered with persistent Dyspepsia and Indigestion, having severe pains after meal time. I tried everything that I could get but the pain in my stomach became no better.

Last summer, Mr. Oatway, a druggist of my town, recommended “Fruit-a-tives” to me. While taking “Fruit-a-tives”, I in no way gave up any foods that I was in the habit of eating, neither did I stop smoking. Yet in spite of all, “Fruit-a-tives” has done wonders for me and I strongly advise all my friends to use it.”

“Fruit-a-tives” is the only medicine in the world made of pure fruit juices, and will always cure Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Biliousness, Constipation and any other disease that comes from disordered Stomach, Bowels, Kidneys or Skin. 50c. a box. 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At dealers or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.
