

C250603

where men may be required to report and carry out alternative service, duty or work pursuant to this section; and such agreement or arrangement may provide for:

- (a) the payment of, or reimbursement for, all or any part of the cost of operating such place or places including any necessary capital outlay, rental of premises or equipment, cost of food and other supplies, the remuneration provided for by sub-section four of this section, cost of tobacco, clothing and other goods to stock cartons, and salaries for necessary officers and employees;
- (b) the employment of necessary officers and employees;
- (c) the nature of the alternative service, duty or work to be carried out and the conditions under which it is to be carried out;
- (d) the living conditions to prevail in such place or places; and
- (e) medical attention to be provided for persons required to attend such place or places; and

^{and} notwithstanding the provisions of the Civil Service Act, such agreement may provide that the necessary officers and employees for such place or places may be employed by some person ^{specified} designated therein on such terms as may be therein provided for.

(7) Any person who is placed in charge of a place pursuant to an arrangement or agreement under this section shall have authority to give to men required to report to such place pursuant to this section, and to delegate authority to others to give to such men, all orders reasonably necessary for discipline in such place or for the proper carrying out of the alternative service, duty or work which they are required to carry out.

- (8) The director may prescribe rules for the regulation
 - (a) of any place to which persons are required to report under this section and of the conduct of all persons required to report to such place, and
 - (b) of the carrying out of alternative service, duty or work.

(9) The Director may, for any reason which he deems proper, from time to time, grant to a man who is required to carry out alternative service,