here we will then ask if there was anything on the table - ^{she said she saw a large hand} holding further we said the dear mother came. (I imagine this was the symbol of the guiding hand - the more reasonable word that I think of it, or later I spoke to mother of telling me how her hand ^{was} holding of ^{mother} I could.) - She said softly "mother" and then dear Joan, then hers would. I am so glad to see you here with my son. Well Joan I dear glad to see you come. I am so glad to see you "stripping" up the road ^{this morning} ~~from the house~~ ^{in the rain} "I love you" and I cherish you for your goodness to us all.

We spoke to mother of the little bird - she said she it was not her that she "came naturally". Come herself

I asked dear mother if she were the one who gave me this information in reading the bible, but Joan & I expected that certain thing would work out in a certain way, and she said 'I did', it was I. Then she went on to tell me not to worry. She said you are or have been worrying and worried it from to ask her if it were not so, I said to be worrying to ^{let} ~~show~~ on him, he would not worry.
I said I did worry this last but I was a bit, but not now.
I asked mother if it was she who sent messages to me that were cleanest at the time of the elections - ^{she said} ~~she~~ ruff was direct to her and "I met again" - at the time of elections she said, it was largely through Sir Wigfred and Joan for those messages, he had to design ^{himself} ~~himself~~, or rather to let that way of sending them to Joan, it was he who was helping me. Sir Wigfred has been helping right along "Some day he is going to tell you something" Lady Laurin, mother said, had been like a sister to her. Joan I am sure it was the same with her. I said I was so glad to hear that the father & the said she is such a dear person, he has been like a
