

A. Cpl. Burgard. He is in charge of those three sections. There were other Gunners but I can't recall their names.

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q.118 Did you, at any one time, previous to when Gnr. Lecompte was struck by Bdr. Waterfield, lay a hand on him?

A. No, sir.

Q.119 Did you see Bdr. Daniels hit him?

A. Yes, sir.

Q.120 How many times?

A. I would say about a couple.

Q.121 Before Bdr. Waterfield struck him?

A. Yes, sir.

Q.122 Was the fact mentioned at any time that the accused should be taken to the M.I.R.?

A. No, sir. They took him in when we got to the Guard Room.

Q.123 You three fellows made no attempt?

A. No, we thought it was only a nose bleed.

PROSECUTOR DECLINES TO RE-EXAMINE

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT

Q.124 Do you know Bdr. Daniels and Bdr. Waterfield pretty well?

A. Yes, I have known them ever since I came here.

Q.125 Who did you consider was senior of the three of you?

A. Well, I was the oldest N.C.O. there, sir.

Q.126 I think you said some place in the evidence that two were hanging on Bdr. Waterfield's neck. Who were the two?

A. Cpl. Richmond and Gnr. Lecompte.

Q.127 When did Bdr. Daniels hit him? What stage of the scuffle?

A. Right at the first when I walked in after he and Cpl. Richmond had started. They were in the scuffle when I walked in and Bdr. Daniels just came in.

Q.128 Did you see Bdr. Daniels hit him?

A. Yes, sir. He had his head under his arm.

Q.129 You were in a good position to see the fight in the hall?

A. Yes, I was the only one there except he and Waterfield.

Q.130 Could you give us a blow by blow description?

A. It was all over before I knew it. He just hit Waterfield and Waterfield just hit him.
