

We have been able to locate what appears to be the land applied for by Indians as a fishing-station and the area would be about five acres - would you recommend that?

A Yes.

Q Then they applied for land at St. Paul's, on the same Island, for a hunting-station - that would be the place where they put their camps when they go trapping. We find we could give them five acres of available land there - would ~~they~~ you recommend that they should have a camping-ground there, of say five acres?

A Yes.

Q And they also applied for another fishing-station on the same Island (Kdadwesh) and we find there is available land there - would you recommend five acres for them there?

A Yes.

Q Then they also asked for land at Dilme^{asow} on Princess Royal Island, where they have two houses, and we find there is land available there, and would you recommend that they be given five acres there? do you know this Island?

A Yes.

Q You know that the Indians camp there?

A Yes.

Q And that they have a couple of houses there?

A Yes.

Q They have several houses at different points on that Island?

A Yes.

Q And they have used it as long as you know?

A Yes.

Q † As a fishing-station?

A Yes.

Q And you recommend five acres there for them?

A Yes.

Q Application No.5, on the same Island, they desire a hunting or trapping station, and do you think they should have some land there?
