GENERAL METHODS

By taking a broad view of the educational possibilities in a Sunday school, the Missionary Committee will find that it can attain its aims through the following general methods.

Training in Worship

Training in worship is one of the aims of the Sunday school thus far largely unrealized. By organ, piano, or other instrumental music, the singing of hymns, silent and spoken prayer, the reading of Scripture and quiet meditation, the pupils may learn how to come into the presence of God through Jesus Christ and to realize his attitude to the human race.

The Development of a Missionary Atmosphere Through Environment and Special Occasions

Missionary atmosphere is a silent educational force. Its presence or absence may be easily felt in homes, schools and churches. The appearance of the rooms, the decorations, the attitude of the leaders and teachers of
