r is another powerful y shall obtain mercy." estors loved—to eduonica rejoiced at her her every day at the opt one or subscribe ents Fund.

we wish that it should the offerings of the evious or subsequent asses offered up ac-

of the Cross on certho cannot convenns there to gain the arteen Our Fathers ther, etc., for each ry's in honor of the entions of the Pope pious associations in Purgatory. St. congregation never undis for the souls yers of the divine parted through the away with a sad wed "May he rest our hope in God

t, to entertain an ory. You loved them during life; do not let it be said "out of sight, out of mind." Love them in death or living and earnestly wishing to go to God. This charity will greatly help yourselves. If a cup of cold water given to a servant of God will not go without its reward, how much more a cup of celestial grace, that will shorten the time in the flames of Purgatory of a soul that most ardently wishes to go to God, who desires it himself with great love, and will reward those who hasten the exile of his dear servants. Those, says St. Alphonsus, who succor the souls in Purgatory, will be succored in turn by the gratitude of those whom they have relieved, and who enjoy sooner by the prayers the beatific vision of God.

This pastoral will be read in all the Churches of the Diocese and Religious Communities, whole or in part, the first Sunday after its reception.

† JOHN JOSEPH,

Archbishop of Toronto.

Given at St. Michael's Palace, 25th day day of October, 1882.

By order of His Grace the Archbishop,

J. J. McCann, Chancellor.