

ory involves the totality with for nights, will not be absorbed more or less con-quart of water with continually into the vital circulation, and to some extent and then again of it to mingle with the blood, and thus to deposit the germs blood before it can be of disease in all parts of the organism, there to foster the for the want of another seeds of decay, that will grow into senility, ripen into for such purpose, that premature old age, and finally fall as grainless sheaves th not entered into the under the sickle of death?

l physiologists, simply I now assert positively from my own experience for to detect it under their more than forty years as here related, and from the physiological reasons given here, that with this flushing is out of place and was treatment of the colon and this after treatment with a ing of sublime and stub-smaller quantity of water for rinsing out the kidneys gmentation, and that through absorption as described, every form of kidneyands upon thousands of trouble known to pathological science, including Bright's can easily be eradicated disease, diabetes, lumbago, &c., with the concomitant ature, and not provoke troubles of the urinary organs, would at once be wiped n of ineffectual and out-from human experience and from medical practice, and only be recorded in future books and publications as erning the forcing of a diseases that once existed in a variety of fatal forms, but and from it through the which have become entirely extinct and unknown in urs, without the slight-consequence of the new treatment of flushing the colon and cleanse those vital and rinsing out the kidneys as discovered and demon-erms and sedimentary strated by one Wilford Hall.

ousands, a patent fact, Not only are these diseases of the kidneys easily cured, umplet can verify for and more easily prevented on their earliest incipency, olon shall be educated a by the treatment here described, but many directly And I will from this resultant or analagous forms of disease, such as gravel, of of the truth of what piles, hemorrhoids, gout and inflammatory rheumatism is little work about the would never be allowed to get a foothold in any human ulation of the germs of being, could an early and effective application of this the intestinal canal. double process of washing out both colon and kidneys an be made to find its be made.

a into the circulation of No one disputes but that gravel originates in the colo will dare to question lection of sedimentary deposits in the kidneys, from the ion here assumed that impurities there lodging and collecting from the circulat-more than twenty feet ing fluids of the body. And with a moment's reflection out for days, and slept on the part of a trained medical student, it must be evi-