

France, in 1763, and
ed for on any other
under the Treaty of

in the said Treaties
men (the Mississippi),
adopted between the
to the contrary, and
a of treaties, lines of cavil, established by
in Great Britain and

Utrecht. For these itude was actually
to observe that this ce was entitled upon
discovery, to all the

the countries from
, and from the head
to and around Lake
the Killistnoes, and
the Hudson's Bay
trading posts, says,

Territories, but the
the Indians would,

the limits of the