

W I N T E R.

DREAD winter reigns ; all nature fades
 Beneath his savage sway ;
 Dark night the throne of sol invades,
 And clouds the gates of day.
 Thus glory's sons from fame are hurl'd ;
 One common grave awaits the world.

Stript are the bowers of vernal ease ;
 No fruits the trees adorn ;
 No fragrance fills the playful breeze,
 And dreary is the lawn.
 Thus beauty's fairest floweret fades,
 When wintry age its bloom pervades.
