

one of them might have been turned into money, and you have had all your needs supplied. You have had a fortune in your Bible without knowing it." There are many Christians like Janet who have treasures in their Bibles that they are not aware of.

"Losses, troubles, disasters must come, but they should no more quench joy than passing clouds extinguish the sun. Roses must bend and shake in the pelting storms that pour roughly from the black cloud hanging above them; but when the rain is over they are sweeter and more beautiful than ever, and the very drops of the storm that still linger on the leaves flash like diamonds in the shining light. So may the Christian heart endure the storms of life. The Sun of Righteousness is behind every cloud of sorrow."

How grand the blessing of every saved sinner. "In every respect God is for us. Precious truth! He has given His own Son; He will give us all things.—He Himself has justified us. Who will condemn us? And nothing can separate us from the love thus proved. All that is against us on the road to the glory cannot, as being of the creature, be greater than He who is Lord of all. God is for us in Christ, who has overcome all. The PROOF of this love is found not only in the path He trod as Man to be able to suffer, and as God in order to reveal perfect love in the suffering; but, following Him in this path, we also experience His love. Nothing can separate us from it."
