"AUNT SALINA'S WASH DAY PHILOSOPHY"

This little book is chock-full of hints and secrets invaluable in the washing of clothes, and should be in every home.

It tells how to wash fancy prints and other fabrics without the use of acids. It tells how to clean the daintiest lingerie without injury.

It tells how to wash woolen material thoroughly without shrinking it one particle.

It tells how to make hard water soft and save half the soap.

It tells how to remove the drudgery from wash day, and a host of other things that every woman who washes clothes should know.

Send us your name on a postal and we will send you a copy FREE.

Current Events.

Canada's surplus for this year will approximate $30,000,000.

Sir Thomas Vezy, who has been elected Lord Mayor of London, is the first teetotaler who has filled the position.

Toronto is waging war on the tussock moth cocoons and egg-masses on the trees in the city: $3,500 has been appropriated for the work.

Booker T. Washington was last week the guest of honor at a luncheon party given by the Anti-slavery and Aborigines Protection Society, of London, Eng. Among the hosts were John Burns, Sir Conan Doyle, Lord Courtney, and W. T. Stead.

Theophile Braga has been made President of the Portuguese Republic. Ex-king Manuel, who escaped when rebellion broke out in the capital, is now under the protection of the British at Gibraltar, and order has been restored in Lisbon. There are men of great energy and character in the new cabinet, among them Dr. Alfonso Costa, Minister of Justice, and Fernando Macada, a journalist credited with being the most competent politician in the Republican party. President Braga is an eminent philosopher and educationist, and is noted as a man of peace.

Autumn in the Garden.

When the frosty kiss of autumn in the dark
Makes its mark
On the flowers, and the misty morning grieves
O'er fallen leaves,
Then my golden garden, where the golden soil
Through the toil
Of a hundred years is mellow, rich and deep,
Whispers in its sleep.

'Mid the dampled beds of marigold and phlox,
Where the box
Borders with its glossy green the ancient walks,
There is a voice that talks
Of the human hopes that bloomed and withered here,
Year by year—
Dreams of joys that brightened all the laboring hours,
Fading as the flowers.

Yet the whispered story does not deepen grief:
But relief
For the loneliness of sorrow seems to flow
From the Long-Ago.
When I think of other lives that learned, like mine,
To resign,
And remembered that the sadness of the fall
Comes alike to all.

Faint and far away their ancient griefs appear:
Yet how near
Is the tender voice, the careworn, kindly face,
Of the human race!
Let us walk together in the garden, dearest Heart—
Not apart!
Those who know the sorrows other lives have known
Never walk alone.

—Henry Van Dyke.

"What's the matter across the way?" asked the tailor of a bystander, as the ambulance backed up to the door of his rival.

"A customer fell in a fit, and they are taking him to the hospital," was the reply.

"That's strange," said the tailor. "I never knew a customer to get a fit in that establishment before."
