The Right Rev. E. G. Knight, D.D., Missionary Bishop of Western Colorado, died of typhoid fever on November 15th at his see city Glenwood Springs. The late bishop was consecrated on December 19, 1907, and therefore had been less than 11 months in the episcopate.

A cathedral organist writing lately to one of the English church papers says this in regard to Archbishop Maclagan:—"It does not seem to be generally known that the Archbishop of York has composed several exceedingly good hymn tunes, two of which have become widely popular, namely, the one associated with the hymns 'Thine for ever, God of Love,' and 'Bread of Heaven on Thee we feed.' Both of these are in the A. and M. (old and new editions)."
