

Gauvreau, Cutbert and Lee, do wait upon His Excellency the Governor in Chief, to know His Excellency's pleasure, when he will be attended by this House with its Address.

The order of the day for the House to resolve itself into Committee, on that part of His Excellency the Governor's Speech which relates to the Provincial Revenue, being read.

On motion of Mr. Taschereau, seconded by Mr. Gauvreau,

ORDERED, That the said Order of the day be postponed.

RESOLVED, That this House will, on Saturday next, resolve itself into a Committee on that part of His Excellency the Governor's Speech, which relates to the Provincial Revenue.

Then on Motion of Mr. Taschereau, seconded by Mr. Gauvreau,

The House adjourned till Saturday next.

Saturday, 2d January, 1813.

MR. Blanchet, accompanied by the other Messengers, reported, that in obedience to the orders of the House, they had waited upon His Excellency the Governor in Chief, to know His Excellency's pleasure, when he would receive the House with its Address; and that His Excellency had been pleased to appoint this afternoon, at half past three of the clock, to receive the House at the Castle of Saint Lewis.

At the hour appointed Mr. Speaker and the House went up to the Castle of Saint Lewis, with the Address of this House.
