The Bad Boy Proposition.

There are no bad boys. We make this statement confidently, knowing that it will be endorsed by educators and all who have spent their lives in working on the boy problem. We will defend it in spite of all the broken windows, stolen apples and canned dogs in Christendom.

There are weak boys, boys who lack resourcefulness, boys whose ideas of right and wrong are distorted, but there never was a boy who did not naturally—consciously or unconsciously—do things that he believed to be right.

The trouble comes when parents, teachers and others who are responsible for the youngster's development fail to fill his time with useful activity. The forces of nature must operate. We cannot stop them while we take our afternoon nap. The wind must blow, the water must flow, and the boy's brain and muscles must work.

We put a wind-mill in the path of the wind and it draws water as joyously as it upsets the chairs on the verandah and whisks the family wash from the line. We put a water-wheel in the stream and it grinds the grain with the energy which it could otherwise dissipate in washing out its banks and routing out the trees.

These things we know; yet we too often permit youthful energy, our most valuable asset, to run riot. We even attempt to dam it and then complain because it flows over and does damage.

The Boy Scout programme is the mill in the stream of boyhood. It provides something useful for every boy to do every minute. Knot tying, first aid and bandaging, signalling, tramping and tracking, fire-building and extinguishing, camp cooking, swimming, earning and saving money, hiking, map making and map reading, practical study of flowers, plants and trees, earth and sky, are included in the Scout's programme for the year. After these a much broader field is opened, including foundation work in all the principal trades and professions.

A boy's first idle moment is the starting point of whatever trouble he makes in the world. It is also the big opportunity of the man who is wise enough and patriotic enough to turn natural energy into constructive channels. Already over 250 Scoutmasters are directing the activities of some 9,000 boys in the province of Ontario, and the movement is only a little more than ten years old. Men interested in devoting part of their leisure time to this "nation building" work should write to Boy Scout Headquarters, Bloor and Sherbourne Sts., Toronto, for further information.

A WOMAN'S RIGHT TO GOOD HEALTH

Most Troubles Afflicting Women Are Due to Poor Blood.

To every woman belongs the right to enjoy a healthy, active life; yet nine out of ten suffer from some form of bloodlessness. That is why one sees on every side pale, thin cheeks, dull eyes and drooping figures—sure signs of headaches, weak backs, aching limbs and uncertain health. All weak women should win the right to be well by refreshing their weary bodies with the new, rich, red blood that promptly transforms them into healthy, attractive women. This new, red blood is supplied by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which reaches every organ and every nerve in the body. Through the use of these pills thousands of women have found benefit when suffering from anaemia, indigestion, general weakness and those ailments from which women alone suffer. Among the many women who tell of the good Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done them is Mrs. L. Hicks, Round Hill, N.S., who says: "I became very much run down in health; my blood seemed weak and watery, my strength failed, and I was so easily tired that my work was a burden. I had often read about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and decided to try them, and I can truly say that after using three boxes I found myself gaining, and under a further use of the pills all my old-time energy and vitality was restored. Out of my own experience I can strongly recommend this medicine."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Minard's Liniment Relieves Distemper

A Winter Night.

As I strode down the long slopes of the road Between the pastures, all was flawless white,
Save where the lofty pines upon
the height
In the pale moonlight like dark statues showed.
The little woodland stream that
me flowed,
And sang in springtime as in
delight,
Was silent now, as is an hermit
Who broods on God in his austere abode.

I was alone, yet I was not alone,
For some mysterious spirit called to me
Out of the night in an exalted tone
That was as rapture blent with melody,
"Wait for a time when to thee shall
be shown
What seemeth sorrow meaneth ecstasy!"

Wisps of Wisdom.

The greatest of faults is to be conscious of none.
The thunder of business often sours
the milk of human kindness.
Yesterday has gone, to-morrow may never come; do it to-day.
Prefer diligence before idleness, unless you esteem rust before brightness.

Education is life's apprenticeship;
its chief aim is to teach us how to think.

Success is a thing that some are content to envy in others—and some achieve for themselves.

When a man hasn't a good reason for doing a thing, he has one good reason for letting it alone.

If you lack confidence in your own judgment, you can't blame other people
if they share the feeling.

The man who wins is the man who holds on until he can hold on no longer—and then doesn't give up.

Let the man who has to make his fortune in life remember this maxim:
Dare, and the world always yields.
If it beats you sometimes, dare it again and it will succumb.

STORMY WEATHER HARD ON BABY

The stormy, blustery weather which we have during February and March is extremely hard on children. Conditions make it necessary for the mother to keep them in the house. They are often confined to overheated, badly ventilated rooms and catch colds which rack their whole system. To guard against this a box of Baby's Own Tablets should be kept in the house and an occasional dose given the baby to keep his stomach and bowels working regularly. This will not fail to break up colds and keep the health of the baby in good condition till the brighter days come along. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

After the storm.
One of the soldiers of the Rainbow Division, United States, had been boasting to a British Tommy about his glories.
"Lumme!" said the Tommy. "I know why yer calls it hat. Rainbows is things that comes out after the storm's over, ain't they?"

Whale of a Fish Story.

At a convivial gathering in connection with an angling club a sailor listened attentively while the members told of the big fish they might have landed had not their lines given way at the critical moment. The manner in which they recounted their exploits would have brought tears to the eyes of the most hardened storyteller.
"But a sailor never knows when he is beaten."
"Well, mates," he began. "I never did any fresh-water fishing, so I expect you are telling the truth. But I remember on one occasion, having nothing better to do, we cast a line at sea and awaited results. Soon we got a bite, but for the life of us we could not bring in our catch. Then an idea struck us. We fastened the line to the windlass and proceeded to haul in, when the boat gave a lurch, the line broke, and the monster escaped."
One of the company, with biting sarcasm, suggested that it must have been a whale.
"A whale, be hanged!" replied the sailor. "We baited with a whale!"

Japs Are Fond of Metaphor.

Judging from some specimens quoted not long ago in the Journal des Debats, the Japanese employ a wealth of metaphor when advertising their war. A Tokio stationer announces that "the paper I sell is as solid as the hide of an elephant." A fishmonger promises to deliver all orders at customers' houses with the rapidity of a shot fired from a rifle. "My extra special vinegar," a grocer declares, "is as sour as the tongue of the most shrewish mother-in-law." A large multiple shop begs the public to "come into our stores. You will meet with an overwhelming welcome. Our assistants are as amiable as a father who is trying to marry off his daughters without giving them any dowry. You will always be greeted as cordially as a spell of sunshine coming toward the close of a pouring wet day."

Sandalwood.

Sandalwood is the production principally of the native state of Mysore, India, and the district of Coorg, in both of which places the industry is almost a monopoly of the government forest reserves. Due to the development of the sandalwood oil extracting industry, the exportation of the wood has steadily declined, while that of the oil has increased.

Sandalwood is the most famous of all scented woods. Its use for perfumery and incense dates back thousands of years. The later Greek considered it one of the greatest luxuries, and no festivities were complete without it. Sandalwood figures prominently in religious ceremonies and burial rites in China and other Oriental countries.

I never saw so many fields yellow with mustard as I did last summer. One thing is sure, we can not buy seed at random and expect all timothy or clover. A careful analysis is the only thing that will settle the question of mustard and other foal seeds; or good grass seed. We have only to put a big spoonful in an envelope, address it to the Dominion Experimental Farm, and back will come the correct analysis. Then it is our fault if we have fields of mustard after that.

The large farms in South Lincolnshire, England, are so perfect that they are more like factories than farms.

BITS OF HUMOR FROM HERE & THERE

Oh, For One Fault.

"How do you like your new car?" asked Jack Driver.
"Great!" replied Mr. Rhode Hogg.
"It runs so smoothly you can't feel it. Not a bit of noise; you can't hear it. Perfect ignition; you can't smell a thing. And speed—why, it whizzes! You can't see it!"
"Must be some car," ventured Jack Driver. "Can't feel it, can't smell it, can't hear it, can't see it! How do you know it is there?"

Had An Inkling.

"Agnes, dost thou love me?" asked a Quaker youth of one at whose shrine his heart's holiest feelings had been offered up.
"Why, Jack," she answered, with a downcast look of her eyes, we are commanded to love one another, are we not?"
"Ay, Agnes, but dost thee regard me with the feeling the world calls love?"
"I hardly know what to tell thee, Jack. I have greatly feared that my heart was an erring one. I have tried to bestow my love on all, but I have sometimes thought, perhaps, that thee was getting rather more than thy share."

The ideal soil for a peach-orchard is a warm, gravelly hillside. Even sandy soils are excellent for peach-growing if the sand is not too fine and the drainage bad. Heavy, cold clay soil is unsuited to the peach. Plum trees are naturally adapted to stiffer soils than the peach.
