There has for counsel on public affairs always cargood judgment and calm deliberation. Mr. Campbell was in Hampton on Tuesday attending to special business ,and appeared to be in his usual health, although still somewhat lame from the accident which cost him a broken leg last year. Yesterday morning he arose early and after feeding his cattle went into the house to get his breakfast. While sitting at the table, he was seized with an attack of heart failure, and soon passed away. Mr. Campbell was somewhere about seventy years of age, and the announcement of his sudden decease will be received as a painful shock by the wide circle of his dized steamship line between Canada ornaments and furniture. (Special to The Sun.) WINDSOR, N. S., July 8.-A little girl, Pansy Macumber, between six and yen years of age, daughter of Mrs. Alice Macumber, Nesbitt street, was rowned in the Avon River, near the mouth of the St. Croix, this afternoon about five. She went in bathing with three other little girls-Minnie Macdonald, Kathleen and Maude Crowell, They went off Dimock's Hill and walked out quite a distance from the shore to the water, as it was only half-tide coming in The current is strong, and it is probable that it took Pansy off her feet. Minnie McDonald, ten years of age, tried to save her, but failed. Boats are now sailing about the spot, but the body has not been found. It may have een carried up the St. Croix River some distance by the strong tide.

NO HALF MEASURES

MONCTON, N. B., July 8.-Deputy Minister of Railways Butler accompanied by his family passed through this norning to Chester, N. S., where they will spend some weeks.

Election of officers and adoption of reports on state of the order and political work, the latter containing several interesting recommendations, occupied the closing session of Grand report of the committee on political action recommending the introduction by the provincial government of a prohicussion, and also on that section reommending the extension of political equality to women. The report was as follows: "First-We recommend that this grand lodge endorse the action aldistrict division Sons of Temperance. namely, that the question of provincial the legislature submitted to a vote of the electorate with a distinct understanding that if a majority of those polling decided in favor of prohibition, the provincial government shall introduce at the next session of the legislature as a government measure an act to carry into effect the will of the peoparents, at the close of which Mr. and act to be along lines similar to that of Mrs. Hyndman left on the east bound the P. E. Island prohibition act.

Second-That no compromise measure be accepted. Third-That as one of the best means of maintaining prohibition and other extension of political equality be made to women. (Signed), Michael Kelly, J. Henry Harvey Stuart, Emma Killam.

The report was finally adopted. The report on the state of the Order showed that during the year the I. O. G. T. in New Brunswick has made encouraging progress. Good work has result that the number of active lodges have increased from 71 to $5. The Order has become firmly established in Victoria and Sunbury Counties where it had scarcely a footing before, and has been greatly strengthened in various other sections of the province. In spite of large numbers of suspensions because of non-payment of dues, an membership has increased from 2.850 to 3.073. The growth in the City of there is every reason to believe that the cause of temperance throughout the province is in a more healthy con dition than ever before and in bringing about this state of affairs, the I. O. G. T. under a succession of able and hard working leaders, has had considerable influence. It is now high time New Brunswick had a prohibiton law, said the report. Pleasure was expressed at the development of juvenile work and with the labors of the organizers The advance of temperance in other countries notah. land, and in the Canadian provinces of Contario and Quebec, and the efforts to put down the opium traffic were also
