MR MARTIN, M. P. P. TALKS. The Government Still Has a Huge Respect For "Fighting Joe."

Mr. James Martin, M. P. P., has returned from a visit to the coast, where he attended a caucus of the supporters of the government. It is evident from what he says that the government still has considerable respect for Hon. Joseph Martin. In speaking about his visit yes-terday, Mr. Martin said: "While I was at the coast I attended the caucus of the supporters of the government. Mr. Martin, the attorney-general, tendered his resignation in consequence of fric-tion that existed between him and Pre-Semlin. Mr. Martin thought it better to do this than to continue the trouble when the consequences would have perhaps been greater than they are. Those members of the opposition who are calculating that Mr. Martin will go in with the Turner adherents for the purpose of fighting the government, are very much mistaken, as such a course is the farthest from Mr. Martin's intention. It is his intention to occupy an independent position. Both the supporters of the government and some of the members of the opposition recognize the ability and the honesty of Mr. Martin. The fact that he has resigned from the position of attorney general does not alter the opinion which the members of the government have of him. They still have great confidence in his ability and integrated that the still have the still have the still have great confidence in his ability and integrated that the still have the st rity. I understand, however, that the Trades and Labor Council has taken the matter up, and will bring charges against officials at the next council meeting. If this is done we shall have something to go upon, and I wish it understood that all complaints will be fully investigated."

Messrs. Clute and McNeil, the other commissioners, also said that no charges had as yet been preferred.
