DAYSON'S INDELIBLE INK, for Marking Linen, Silk, or COTTON, with a Common Pen, without a Preparation.

This link is worthy the ATTENTION OF DRAISMS, for the following reasons, viz.:—
GONYENTERS—It is so portable, and convenient to use, that many will purchase it who would not use the old kind, on account of the trouble attending it.

DURABILITY:—In this respect this link is fully equal to the best in use.

LEARAGE.—Ink with a preparation is very apt to leak after it has been put up a year or two; and so are also more kinds without a mordent; but this link is scarcely more liable to leak than common liquids.

BREARAGE.—This is wholly avoided, whereas there is hardly any thing more liable to break in transportation than the common kind of Indelible link.
