TEXT OF THE ALLIANCE BETWEEN BRITAIN AND JAPAN

Washington, Aug. 20.—The text of the offensive and defensive alliance between Japan and Great Britain under which Japan issued her recent ultimatum to Germany has become available here and is as follows:

"Agreement of Alliance between the United Kingdom and Japan.
Signed at London, July 13, 1911.
Preamble.

"The Government of Great Britain and the Government of Japan, having in view the important changes which have taken place in the situation since the conclusion of the Anglo-Japanese agreement of the 12th of August, 1905, and believing that a revision of that agreement responding to such changes would contribute to general stability and repose, have agreed upon the following stipulations to replace the agreement above mentioned, such stipulation having the same object as the said agreement, namely:

"(a)—The consolidation and maintenance of the general peace in the regions of eastern Asia and India.

"(b)—The preservation of the common interests of all powers in China by insuring the independence and integrity of the Chinese Empire and the principle of equal opportunities for the commerce and industry of all nations in China.

"(c)—The maintenance of the territorial rights of the contracting parties in the regions of eastern Asia and India, and the defence of their special interests in the said regions.

"Art. I.—It is agreed that whenever, in the opinion of either Great Britain or Japan, any of the rights and interests referred to in the preamble of this agreement are in jeopardy, the two Governments will communicate with one another fully and frankly and will consider in common the measures which should be taken to safeguard those menaced rights or interests.

"Art. II.—If, by reason of unprovoked attack or aggressive action, wherever arising, on the part of any Power or Powers, either high contracting party should be involved in war in defence of its territorial rights or special interests mentioned in the preamble of this agreement, the other high contracting party will at once come to the assistance of its ally, and will conduct the war in common and make peace in mutual agreement with it.

"Art. III.—The high contracting parties agree that neither of them will, without consulting the other, enter into separate arrangements with another Power to the prejudice of the objects described in the preamble of this agreement.

"Art. IV.—Should either high contracting party conclude a treaty of general arbitration with a third Power, it is agreed that nothing in this agreement shall entail upon such contracting party an obligation to go to war with the Power with whom such treaty of arbitration is in force.

"Art. V.—The condition under which armed resistance shall be afforded by either Power to the other in the circumstances mentioned in the present agreement and the means by which such assistance is to be made available will be arranged by the naval and military authorities of the high contracting parties, who will from time to time consult one another fully and freely upon all questions of mutual interest.

"Art. VI.—The present agreement shall come into effect immediately after the date of its signature, and remain in force for ten years from that date.

"In case neither of the high contracting parties should have notified twelve months before the expiration of the said ten years, the intention of terminating it, it shall remain binding until the expiration of one year from the day on which either of the high contracting parties shall have renounced it. But if, when the date fixed for its expiration arrives, either ally is actually engaged in war, the alliance shall, ipso facto, continue until peace is concluded.

"Signed—
"E. GRAY, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.
"TAKAAKI KATO, Ambassador Extraordinary."

WORLD-FAMED WATERLOO INCLUDED IN BATTLE-FIELD OF THE WARRING NATIONS

New York, Aug. 22.—The Herald prints the following special cable from London:

Almost within gunshot of historic Waterloo, where the colors of one world conqueror were lowered and whence Napoleon went to exile and death in lonely St. Helena, on a plain that runs between Louvain and Diest, where the gallant Belgian army has served as an invincible screen for the mighty land forces of France and England, big guns are booming. And these booming guns mark the beginning or preliminary to the greatest battle in the world's history.

Battle Ground Once More

It is more than probable that the field of this titanic struggle may include Waterloo, and the commanders of the allied armies are supremely confident that history will repeat itself. Only this time it will be the

Why Suffer When Help Is At Hand

Have you ever noticed what we are up against some of the hardest cases known in our midst; we will prove this to you as time goes on and have space. It was hard for people to believe at first that what we have published was genuine until some have proved for themselves and others have seen the results of it. Now we are busy attending to mail and express orders and have the good wish of hundreds around us. Here is a man who knows its value, read what he says.

I have been suffering with indigestion for 6 years and I tried two doctors and they all failed to do me good until I tried the A.I.C. and now it has made a new man of me. I took I pint bottle and to-day I feel I am perfectly cured of all stomach trouble.

I recommend this medicine to any person suffering with any kind of stomach trouble.

"CHESLEY LAMB" GOES TO BOTTOM

The boat Chesley Lamb, of Garnish, with supplies for the lighthouse, foundered on Friday night 8 miles off Cape Pine.

The crew were saved and taken to Burin by the schr. Linus A.

A wire was received from Belleoram Monday morning that the Crosbie coaster Susu stranded outside Belleoram Beach at 10.20 a.m.

She is lying on even keel, apparently undamaged.

The bride looked charming in a beautiful gown of white Duchesse satin, with veil bearing a bouquet of white roses. After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's mother, Power Street.

At 5.30 the happy pair drove to the station at Waterford Bridge, where they entrained for Holyrood, whence they proceeded to Salmonier, where the honeymoon will be spent. The bride is the recipient of a large number of useful and valuable presents.

GERMANY LOSES $5,000,000 DAILY IN HER EXPORT TRADE

London, Aug. 25.—While fierce fighting rages along the extended Belgian-German front, everyone is asking what will be the German tactics in the North Sea.

The whole of the German marine is practically bottled up, thanks to British sea power in Germany's main waterways. The Elbe and the Weser, her channels for seaborne trade, are closed; her manufacturing industries are largely idle and the North Sea seems so completely in the hands of Admiral Jellicoe that German ships cannot emerge.

Germany must be suffering. Her industrial loss is at least five million dollars daily, while England is losing next to nothing. The impression goes that these combined factors must compel Grand Admiral Von Tirpitz to order Admiral Von Ingenohl to put to sea and make a desperate effort to overcome the superior British force awaiting him.
