

FOR SALE

BUY your quart fruit jars of Feilchenfeld Bros., 312-14 Fifty-fifth st., Chicago, at 30c per dozen, as they are very scarce here and are in great demand here at $4.00 each. You will need at least a dozen for your gold dust.

Electric Fans, never used, good as new, will sell cheap at Canyon Bill's undertaking establishment, where the wind blows 150 miles an hour.

One Large Tom Cat, trained to do dog's work, will sell by the Pound or weight. apply at No. 1, Maiden Lane.

Half Interest in Bar at the Drink to Death house, present owner has $1,000,000 in gold nuggets, besides 40 yards of snakes, will divide to suit purchaser.

Entire Outfit of Millionaire Lanky Jim, who has panned out 2,000,000 in 24 hours, outfit consists of one pan, one pick and shovel, Gasoline stove and 1,000,000 mosquitos.

The claim no. 1, on Bonanza Creek, owner wants to go home on next boat and get something to eat. Parties with $500,000 or less call at News office, Sunday noon—call for Hungry Jim.

One Air Ship, exploded upon reaching Klondike. easily mended by striking claim, worth $50 to the Pan.

This space reserved for RUSTLER REAL ESTATE CO. who are busy fitting up palatial offices at 47 Polar av.

WANTED

A partner with $25,000 to open factory for the purpose of canning hotair. Fortune Guaranteed as soon as factory is opened, for further particulars address Prof. P. E. Amey, Ardicus, Alaska.

A crapshooter, only experienced need apply, a person must be able to beat Scar Faced Charlie, who is beating everyone in sight.

Cook at the Starve to Death House, must be able to make wind pudding and roast dog with saw-dust gravy. wages $50.00 per hour, paid every minute.

Five men, at the sand bank, to weigh gold Dust, must have hair clipped before going to work, wages $25 per day.

Bar Tender, at the Rocky Chasm Saloon, night work, wages $30 per day. no cash register and all you can drink.

One Strong Man, at Saw Dust Bill's resort, to keep saw dust on the floor, after patrons get through rolling, from the effects of eating too many red Hots.

Lady Correspondent, address Rattlesnake Bill at the Freeze to Death house.

Mug-carver, at the only Barber shop in town, must bring tools and soap. Wages depends on strength of tools.

Girl to run Errands from Klondike to Dawson City. Apply Klondike Transportation company.

Subscribe for the NEWS

EXCHANGE

5 lb. Baking Powder for one pound of Flour. call at Tim O'Hollihan's, chief cook at the Log Cabin restaurant, cor. Asphalt & Boulevard sts.

Sleepy Mike has two pair heavy woolen Sox, only worn one year, would like to trade for one chew of battle ax plug.

Would like to trade my old woman for $500,000 in gold. address Hen Pecked Husband, No. 4 Talked to Death alley.

Uncle Jerry has 2 packages Pancake flour, will exchange for frying pan.

Tenderfoot Charlie has just arrived from the States, would like to exchange one pckg. of cigarettes for a square meal, you can find him at the corner of Never-get-There and Misery streets.

Four cans of Hot air for one can Pork and Beans. Also one can condensed milk for one oz. of coffee. call at Tent 14, Broadway Boulevard.

BEST

SODA

WATER

FOUNTAIN

IN TOWN

ice cream

and all other

delicious Beverages

62¢ A GLASS

Appetite Bill

proprietor

70 Tomahawk Av.

AMUSEMENTS

SPECIAL ATTRACTION

at the

DIRTY DOG SALOON

Whisky Jim will unload 60 schooners to a minute, for a wager of a barrel of R-t G-t.

A NEW

-DANCE HALL-

Will be opened this evening by

ARIZONA JACK

at cor. of Kill-em-Quick & Patrol alley.

$50.00 PER DANCE

Dances must be secured two weeks in advance, as lady dancers are very scarce.

Glad Hand Opera House

ONCE A YEAR

Billy Shekel

and his noted company of

WARBLERS

will render the special play entitled:

NEVER AGAIN