THE BANNER'S "STORM."

The local Liberal organ, in reporting the Conservative Convention, did exactly what people, who know Banner tactics, expected of it. In doing so it certainly did not regain any of its lost prestige—it merely lived up to its reputation for misrepresenting public men and garbling reports of public meetings. However, it is only the Banner, after all, and the people have learned from past experiences how much to credit it, and how much to put down to the exaggerated and misplaced imagination of the over-enthusiastic writers who hang out around that office.

The Banner was placed in rather an awkward position. They had advertised a "Storm," and it was up to them to make the storm even, if it didn't come. It is the same old story of one untruth requiring many more following, in order to make the first one good. Where they made their most serious mistake, however, was in not having the manliness to come out themselves with what they wished to say, instead of cowardly placing their own words in the mouths of reputable farmers and citizens. There is no excuse for this iniquitous manufacturing of fake speeches, for a Banner reporter was present taking notes throughout the whole meeting. The report was simply a highly-colored and libelous misrepresentation, and one evidently aimed with evil intent.

The Banner would try to make out that the convention was manipulated by Mr. Clements, but this is untrue. Mr. Clements had nothing to do with the calling of the convention, which was characterized by spontaneous action on the part of the delegates.

It is the aim of a certain Liberal faction to stir up the storm which the Banner predicted, but they have little hope for success. Mr. Clements has proven his strength, and the Banner itself endorsed in the highest words of praise the candidature of Mr. Sulman. The Conservatives are confident that they have a winning team in the field, and it is no doubt the knowledge of this that is hurting the Banner.

The New York Press, which is probably the most vigorously conducted independent Republican paper in New York, proposes Charles E. Hughes for the Presidency in 1908. Though Roosevelt's purpose seems to be to provide a residuary legatee for the White House in the person of Mr. Root or Mr. Cortelyou, the Press guesses that the people of New York and Mr. Hughes have settled the matter of succession.

Here is some excellent advice from the Montreal Gazette: "Some Liberal papers in Ontario are demanding an enquiry by a commission into Conservative wrongdoing in connection with parliamentary elections. There is a possibility, too, that if they are persistent enough, a commission will be appointed. There would be good pickings for a few of the faithful in connection with a commission. Most people will incline to think though that the plan of laying a charge before a police magistrate would be the best way of getting at the facts. It is working well at Toronto, and is not costing much."

In England an agitation has begun against that antiquated and objectionable custom of kissing the Bible in court. The principal objection raised to it, says the Ottawa Free Press, is that it is insanitary in the extreme, but there are also other strong moral objections. It has frequently been pointed out by medical men that there is no easier means of conveying disease than by kissing a book that has been kissed for perhaps years before by people of all sorts and conditions. It is not only very dirty, but it is dangerous and the wonder is that in a civilized country it has been permitted as long as it has.

Better Than Spanking

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W. 4, Windsor, Ont., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money, but write her to-day if you children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child; the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

W. E. Ripan has some good rooms to rent situated in his office building, heated with steam, suitable for office or living rooms; immediate possession. Apply at once.

Happy at Last

Her Husband no longer gets Intoxicated—Samarita Tasteless Remedy Cured Him.

This lady says: "For the first time since I have been married I can be happy and content—my husband is cured of his bad habit of drinking. Several months ago you sent me a free sample of your remedy at my request, and without my husband's knowledge I gave it to him in his tea and food. I then got a full treatment and gave it regularly. It is wonderful, and I cannot sufficiently thank you for the blessed change it has brought to my home."

SAYS PRINCE RUPERT IS SPLENDID HARBOR

INSPECTOR OF AGENCIES BREDT RETURNS FROM NORTHERN TRIP

P. M. Bredt, of Regina, Dominion Government inspector of agencies and foreign colonies, accompanied by Mrs. Bredt, arrived in Victoria yesterday after attending the New Westminster Fair.

In the fall of last year Mr. Bredt visited the coast for the benefit of his health, impaired by too close application to the arduous duties of his office and made his headquarters in Victoria. The balmy climate of this island had its customary effect, and in a few weeks Mr. Bredt was sufficiently recovered to make many excursions about the island taking notes of its conditions and advantages; and among other functions, he attended the Cowichan Agricultural exhibition at Duncan, where he acted as one of the judges, afterwards taking a sea trip up the west coast as far as Port Simpson.

"My opinion of Victoria and its surroundings," said Mr. Bredt, "is sufficiently expressed by the fact that I have taken the earliest opportunity of coming back again to spend my summer holiday with you, and that I have brought Mrs. Bredt this time to share my enjoyment. I have this year repeated my west coast trip, this time extending it as far as Skagway. It is certainly the most picturesque country one could imagine. We were delighted and surprised at its grandeur, it is like several Norways in one wonderful panorama. Among many other changes for the better that I noticed was that of the improved conditions of travel. The boat in which we made the trip was commodious and comfortable, luxuriously fitted with the latest improvements, with the additional recommendation of good cuisine and attendance, a good seaboat, a genial commander and pleasant and capable officers. We ENJOYED THE TRIP IMMENSELY and were fortunate enough to have as fellow passengers, President Hayes of the Grand Trunk Pacific railroad. We had thus the chance to visit Prince Rupert. In my opinion it is an ideal location for the terminus and the harbor is unsurpassed on the coast. At present the hydrographic survey is still incomplete and mariners enter for the first time with natural caution, but once having made the entrance they say that they would have no fear about entering at any time. While we were there the weather was very stormy with a nasty sea running outside. Inside, however, it was perfectly calm, the position being well protected from the prevailing winds.

"Certainly," continued Mr. Bredt, there is room there for a great city and Digby Island would make an ideal suburb or summer resort. Communication would have to be by ferry. I think, though the dividing passage is narrow and the distance short; not greater than between North Vancouver and Vancouver city, if as far; it would be practically a part of the city.

"There is plenty of activity in evidence at Prince Rupert; houses for the engineers are being rapidly constructed and gangs of men are busy clearing land for the township. Already there is a very serviceable wharf which they intend to extend immediately and everything seems to point to quick development."

ALMOST DEAD OF BRONCHITIS.

Few people have suffered more than John P. Taylor, of Dymont, P. O., Ont. To-day he is well and strong, but must tell you how much Catarrh-ozone has been to me. I was so bad with bronchitis sometimes that I thought it would soon be over with me. A spell of choking would come on that left me prostrated and weak. Since using Catarrh-ozone I have had no trouble at all. It strengthened my throat, stopped the cough, gave me free breathing and entirely cured. Just the usual experience. Catarrh-ozone invariably cures whether Bronchitis, Asthma or Catarrh. Two sizes, 25c. and $1.00 at all dealers.

A SUGGESTION OF RARE VALUE.

A diseased condition of the surfaces of the air passages causes bad breath, but more commonly emanates from indigestion or an impure condition of the blood. Thousands of cases prove that Dr. Hamilton's Pills, through their specific action on the secretory and eliminative organs, not only cure bad breath, but so thoroughly purify the system that anything suggestive of blood or digestive troubles is impossible. Through Dr. Hamilton's Pills the skin grows rosy and clear, activity of the body and mind increases, and bounding health is established. Sold everywhere.
