Acadia University Fall Camp. GRAND CONCERT ON MONDAY EVENING.

Friday, Sept. 26, will mark the opening of the Acadia University Fall Camp at Evangeline Beach. This novel experiment, here tried for the first time in Canada, is being introduced with the object of giving the college year a proper "kick off," and will henceforth become a permanent feature of the University.

The actual running of the camp is in the hands of the students working under the auspices of the college Y. M. C. A., and here every male college student will, as the guest of that society, be given four days' opportunity to get his wits straightened out after his summer's work, and a chance to "try" new men to line up his college work before the opening of the college year and to become thoroughly familiar with all the tricks of the trade.

The football captain and coach will be on hand, and everything done to get the team in shape. Also the various societies will get under way, courses lined out and the whole student body be ready to start off with a bump at the proper moment.

In view of the exceptionally heavy enrollment at college this year it is felt that this will be an excellent way to minimize the difficulties of opening.

On Monday evening, the 20th, a concert of college and outside talent will be put on in the pavilion at the beach which has a seating capacity of three hundred. It is expected that this building will be filled to the limit. The concert will begin at 8 p. m. Refreshments will be served at the beach and visitors will be welcome at all times.

Captain Donaldson Home Again.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Donaldson, Port Williams, New York Light Opera Singers was the scene of much rejoicing on Monday morning, 16th inst., when their only child, Capt. Ralph W. Donaldson (M. C.), arrived from his long and splendid service overseas. Returning on S.S. "Minnehaha," he was met at his home station by many friends and given a warm and hearty welcome.

Capt. Donaldson left home in Oct., 1914, for Guelph College, Ont., to complete his last year's work for the degree of B. S. A. Having obtained this, he willingly answered the call to service, enlisting as a private in the Princess Pat's (Infantry) 1st Reinforcements, in May, 1916, arriving in France in July of the same year.

In May, 1916, he was wounded in the right arm at Ypres Salient. Upon his recovery in England, he was given his commission, returning to active service in France on Dec. 1st, 1916, as 1st Lieut., 52nd Bait. (Western Canadian), 1st April, 1917, at Vimy Ridge he was mentioned in special despatch and awarded the M. C., the official text being "He made a daring reconnaissance of the enemy's position and brought in valuable information," and invested with the coveted decoration at Buckingham Palace by the King. He was then appointed to the Poison Gas Services in France, later promoted as Gas Officer on the Canadian general staff, later receiving the rank of Captain.

Since his return from Germany with the army of occupation, he has been "carrying on" with the work of demobilization in France and England. During these years he was never once laid aside for illness and thoroughly enjoyed the experience and education gained, though glad now to be home again and ready for active service in his native land.

Mr. Eugene Lockart.

A Friendly Criticism.

DEAR SIR.—On Sunday last I attended one of the church services in town and heard a delightfully rendered vocal solo by one of Wolfville's talented lady singers. The musical part of the religious service is by no means the best effective, and such music as I heard on Sunday morning is most inspiring and up-lifting. The beauty of the rendition was marred to a degree, as often happens, by the noise made by those who during the time of the singing were engaged in collecting the offering for the day. Presumably this is a most important part of the service but could it not be arranged so as not to conflict with the other? In my opinion it might just as appropriately take place during the sermon.

Now I trust your readers will not regard this criticism as offered without the very best intention, and that my suggestion may at least have some consideration by those controlling the church services of our town.

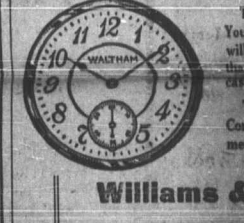

CHURCH GOER.

Mrs. Mary Jamieson, who has been the guest of her sister Mrs. R. W. Ford at Evangeline Beach and at Wolfville, has returned to Truro accompanied by her niece Margaret, who is spending a few weeks at her mother's old home.
