Number 13

It has been announced that the proposed curtailment in the D. A. R. train service has been postponed until Feb. 27th, pending the decision of the Railway Commission. In the meantime vigorous protests from Boards of Trade, Town Councils and private individuals have gone in to the Commission and many good arguments have been presented to show why the present service is necessary, and ought not to be interfered with.

AN INTERESTING PICTURE

The presentation of the picture, "A Round the world with our Smiling Prince", at the Orpheum on Monday afternoon and evening brought out large audiences who enjoyed a really good performance. Not a little credit is due the ladies of the I. O. D. E. under whose auspices the picture was shown and who received twenty-five per cent. of the proceeds. Various scenes in connection with the tour of the Prince of Wales were beautifully pictured while the lecture by Lieut. Rickard which accompanied it was full of interest. At the close the lecturer expressed his thanks to the audience for generous patronage and announced that the prize offered to the department of the public school which should make the largest attendance at the afternoon performance had been won by Grade VI. This prize was a handsome "Union Jack", and an equally handsome Canadian flag was given to Grade IX, the members of which were second in attendance. The presentation was made to Master Maxwell Sanford as representing Grade VI and James Northover, for Grade IX amid the applause of the audience.

CANNING DEFEATS WOLFVILLE

The Wolfville hockey team were defeated by the Canning team in Canning rink on Wednesday evening by the score of 7 to 4. It was one of the finest games ever played in Canning rink. The ice was in splendid condition and more than 300 attended the game which was clean and fast. Both teams played stellar hockey. H. Grant starred for Canning. The Wolfville team was greatly weakened by the absence of Clark, Harvey and Murray, while Eagles played out and his place in goal was taken by Elderkin. The score at the end of the second period was 4 to 0 in favor of Canning. The teams were as follows:

Canning—Goal T. Miller; defence, T. Huston, H. Huston; forwards, H. Hoyt, H. Lyons; H. Grant; subs, Mitchell, L. Lyons, Melvin, McKean.

Wolfville—Goal, Elderkin; defence, Eagles, Coldwell; forwards, Rand, Bish-

HABITANT WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

Habitant Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Edward Eaton, on Tuesday afternoon president Mrs. William Newcombe, presiding. The address given by Miss Helen McDougall, of the Department of Agriculture, Truro, was read, and discussed, and a petition will be circulated against the manufacture of oleomargarine. A collection was taken to buy flannel to make garments for the Infants Home, Halifax, and on Feb. 29, the Community evening will be held, the hostess being our President. This annual gathering is looked forward to with much pleasure and is another proof of the practical work this Institute is accomplishing. Miss Isabel Meek added to the pleasure of the afternoon by delightful piano solos. Supper and a social hour brought the afternoon to a close.

ACADIA GIRLS WIN AT BASKETBALL

The Acadia girls' basketball team had an easy win over the Canucks of St. John, at the Memorial Gymnasium last Friday night, the score being 23 to 8. The Acadia girls were especially good in combination and outscored their rivals. Miss McLaughlin did most of Acadia's scoring, and Miss Roultoun played well for the Canucks. The first period gave the Acadia girls a 14-4 lead. With this lead they came on in the second period, but were not able to score as easily as before, and after a much harder battle the game ended 23-8.

Line-up: Canucks—Forwards, Miss Springer, Miss Roultoun; guards, Miss Morse, Miss L. Smith; centres, Miss G. Smith, Miss Brown; sub, Miss Johnson. Acadia—Forwards, Miss McLaughlin, Miss King; guards, Miss Doherty, Miss Maclean; centres, Miss Lawson, Miss Colbath; subs, Miss Cook, Miss Mitchell, Miss Chipman.
