The Land League Funds.

THE LAND BILL PROGRESSING.

London, June 29.—There are cen that the Land League funds have been grossly mismanaged. Egan, the Treasurer, pleads that publicity would defeat the obpleasa this puriously would detest the ob-ject of the League; but it is charged that he even declines to submit the accounts to a League Committee. It is alleged that some men in the pay of the League are also in the pay of the Government, and that when the Government intended to suppress the League under the Conspiracy Act, prominent men in the organization offered to supply the necessary proofs of conspiracy

Act, prominent men in the organization offered to supply the necessary proofs of conspiracy.

The process-server McAuliffe, shot dead near Castle Island, county Kerry, recently gave evidence against the President of the local Land Lague.

In the House of Commons clause 5 of the Land Bill was adopted by 288 to 142, after the Government had consented to the amendment of Healy (Home Ruler) removing some of the existing limits to tenant's power of assignment, and some modifications favouring landlords in compensation for disturbance. Clause 6 was adopted without amendment or division.

Cork, June 29.—Labourers' Land Leagues are being established at Killarney and other places. Country gentlemen are supporting the movement. The labourers allege that them farmers are dampiasing or paying the movement. The labourers allege that them farmers are dampiasing or paying the movement. The labourers must protect themselves. If the movement makes any head it considerably weakens the National Land League.

Murder in a R ijway Car in England.

Murger in a R ilway Car in England.

When the Brighton express stopped for the collection of tickets outside of Brighton on Monday, Arthur Lefroy, a newspaper reporter, aged 22, was found in one of the carriages wounded in the head. He reported to his fellow travellers, who were a countryman and an old gentleman, that shortly after passing Croyden he heard a shot and was stunned. Several bullets were found imbedded in the carriage. In the Balcombe Tunnel was found with his throat cut the corpse of F. J. Gould, a retired business man, who had been in London to collect dividends. He was also stabbed in various places. Only his pocket-book, containing cards, was found on his person. Lefroy, after his wound was dressed, started for London. Lefroy's real name is Henry Mapleton. Later in the evening the police obtained possession of facts which induced them to order his arrest. On arriving at his house they found that he had escaped by the rear idoor. Murger in a R ilway Car in England.
