been of late getting into trouble again. To give eclat to the compared manual featurers of free trade England, but the fact does not serve to point bills to the tune of about that fact is not used as an argument against free trade. All the manufacturing interests of Canada, with the exception of cotton, are in a flourishing condition, and the business outlook is fairly bright and cheerful, but, if we are to judge by the dismal diatribes of a portion of the press, the country is in the throes of a financial convulsion and on the very verge of bankruptey and ruin.
