HEADACHE
Is dependent on nervous debility, caused by deranged nerve centres at the base of the brain. The GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN REMEDY, TONIC will give immediate relief and speedily effect a radical cure. This remedy is a truly new and safe method of health building. It is delicious to the taste.
FREMONTWOOD, Indiana, June 28, 1893.
For a number of years I have suffered intensely with nervous and sick headache; had all the "fishes," was sleepless and became despondent. Some of my friends spoke so highly of SOUTH AMERICAN REMEDY that I was induced to buy a bottle—that purchase led to a few others, and now I sleep soundly, feel buoyant, strong and vigorous. I would not be back in the condition I was in when I began taking this medicine for any sum you could name.

HIS CHILD'S VICTORY.
There was no doubt whatever that Mr. Brewson, the senior partner in Brewson's bank, was in a very bad temper. It is both hard and intensely provoking to start for a rest by the sea and to be recalled by a forwarded letter. It ran thus:
CUTSWORTH, Devon, June 25, 1894.
"Sir—I deeply regret having to inform you that I am unable to remain in your service. I am the manager of a small branch of your bank in the village, and my salary is $35 a month. On making up my books to-day I find that I am $250 out. I cannot in any way account for the deficit. Unfortunately, I felt so unwell yesterday, after a long market day, that I did not make up the books. Hence, I am unsure whether the money was sent yesterday or to-day. The notes are all correct, but a bag of sovereigns is missing.
I have been careless, perhaps, but not public disgrace, if only for my wife and child's sake, I shall be your debtor for ever. My life, and will, in some way, refund the money. I remain your faithful servant,
THOMAS BASTOW.
"Now, I'd like to know what business the young fool had to marry. It always spoils a clerk. Hang it, though! he has done quite right to write to me. It's spirited of him; I rather like the chap for confessing it. Still, I must make an example of him I suppose."
He folded the letter up and turned to his wife. The first thing that caught his eye was a report of the "swearing commission," with the following remark on it:
"Our readers must not suppose that 'swearing' is confined to the furniture and clothing trades; on the contrary, many a poor clerk or assistant is quite as much a victim as any of the above hands."
This seemed to disturb our traveller, for he threw the paper down.
"I wonder if I have been 'swearing' my clerks—this poor beggar Bastow, for instance, a four hundred and twenty dollars a year is not much for his position."
Hurrying, pushing, jostling, without any regard for age or sex, the crowd rushed for third-class carriages. Watching the scene with grim amusement, Mr. Brewson noticed a young girl with a pretty child looking helplessly at the rapidly filling train. With an access of chivalric feeling, Mr. Brewson got out of his carriage, and tipped the guard, to bid him to put the pair (obviously mother and child) in his compartment.
The child, a curly-headed little fellow of about five years old, sat close to his mother, his fat legs sticking out straight from his seat. He sat quite quietly and Mr. Brewson congratulated himself on the child's good manners.
Suddenly the little fellow caught sight of an advertisement on one of Mr. Brewson's books in the form of a stationary engine. His eyes glistened and in a low voice he drew his mother's attention to it.
"Hush, hush!" You mustn't worry the gentleman."
However, he was not to be thus quieted, for, jumping down from his seat, he laid his chubby little hands on the old man's knee.
"Well, my boy, what do you want, eh?"
"Do you know that's a stationary engine? I know all about that. Do you know how it goes?"
With perfect truth the child clambered up on his companion's knee.
And they sat and chatted, until, worn out by the heat of the day, the child, with a happy smile, went to sleep.
"Do let me take him; I'm afraid he is a great bother to you," said the mother anxiously.
"My dear madam, I assure you money wouldn't buy the pleasure your child has given me. I do not mind telling you that he is the most lovely boy I think I have ever talked to."
"Yes, I don't know what his father would do without him. He tells the child all sorts of curious things, and we are a very happy household."
"But, excuse me for asking, surely not a wealthy one?" inquired her companion.
"O, dear no! My husband gets a little over $5 a week, and I paint, and so we manage to get along. My husband is a neat man alive, and he does all he can to keep our little house nice."
"Now, tell me what business is your husband in?"
"He is in a bank, and he works so hard. He is too good for the berth he has; but what can he do? There are so many people who want work. Why, even at Chatham, where we live, there are several who would take my husband's place if he were to go."
For a moment Mr. Brewson said nothing, but gazed earnestly at the sleepy boy; then, without raising his eyes, said:
"Are you in Brewson's bank?"
"Yes, my husband's name is Bastow. I have been away for three weeks."
Somehow the conversation flagged until a passing train roused the sleeper.

HEART DISEASE OF FIVE YEARS' STANDING ABSOLUTELY CURED BY DR. AGNEW'S CURE FOR THE HEART—THE GREAT LIFE-SAVING REMEDY GIVES RELIEF IN 30 MINUTES.
Thomas Petry, Esq., Aylmer, Que.:
"I have been troubled for about five years with severe heart complaint. At times the pain was so severe that I was unable to attend to business. The slightest exertion proved very fatiguing and necessitated taking rest. I tried Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart, and obtained immediate relief. I have now taken four bottles of the remedy, and an entirely free from every symptom of heart disease. I hope this statement may induce others troubled as I was to give the most valuable remedy a trial."

DOES ITS WORK IN SIX HOURS.
A MEDICINE THAT WILL RELIEVE DISTRESSING KIDNEY AND BLADDER DISEASE IN SIX HOURS DEPENDS YOUR ATTENTION.
Those who suffer from kidney trouble suffer acutely. Where some kinds of sickness can be borne with fortitude, it is no easy matter to exercise this virtue when one is a sufferer from kidney trouble. Hope may sustain a person when a medicine is not used that doctors say will eventually effect a cure. But who wants to continue an agonizing course of treatment when a medicine like South American Kidney Cure is within the reach of everyone, and that is so speedily as well as certain in its effects? This new remedy has been thoroughly tested by learned physicians, and stands to-day ahead of any medicine used for this purpose. It does not pretend to cure anything else, but it does cure kidney disease.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.
Ottawa, May 10.—The resumption of the budget debate was delayed till 4.30 this afternoon by a lively discussion which arose out of the remarks with which Mr. Davies supplemented his demand that the government should instantly inform the house as to the exact state of the negotiations with Newfoundland. He took for his text telegrams from Newfoundland in to-day's papers, and charged that the government were trying to perpetrate the crime of getting the ancient colony into the Canadian confederacy without an appeal to the people at the polls. He further enquired if the government of Newfoundland had asked for a reply to its ultimatum, and what was the nature of the ultimatum itself.
Hon. Mr. Foster met the P. E. Island liberal's attack by formally refusing to place anything before parliament with respect to the negotiations until they had reached the final stage. He then proceeded to show up the tactics of the liberal leaders, who, while posing as advocates of the union of Newfoundland, were doing all in their power to prevent its consummation by assuring the people of Canada that the islanders were paupers and the people of Newfoundland that Confederation had been robbed and ruined by conservative taxation and conservative extravagance. He said he would, however, give one piece of information, namely, that the government of Canada had received many telegrams and that a reply had been sent to the last telegram received.
This pleasantly on Hon. Mr. Foster's part aroused the ire of Sir Richard Cartwright, who fumed to his feet and accused the finance minister of gross deceit, a remark that he had to retract on the call of the speaker. Sir Richard tried to make it appear that his words were only in reference to Mr. Foster's failure to produce the supplementary estimates on a given day, but the house laughed ironically at the gallant knight's explanation.
Mr. Mills of Bothwell contended that Mr. Davies stood on "solid constitutional ground" in demanding that parliament had the right to know the exact terms of the negotiations. He charged that the admission of Newfoundland in the way proposed would be the funeral of the conservative party.
Hon. Dr. Montague in a brilliant speech showed the ridiculous position in which Mr. Mills had placed himself by affirming that parliament should be consulted before the completion of the negotiations, which could only take effect after the house had approved of their every detail. He said the opposition had only raised another temper in a tepid, and that no negotiations of this kind could be carried on if made public before the proper time. This was Dr. Montague's most eloquent speech so far this session, and he was repeatedly cheered by the conservative benches.
Mr. Laurier, who said Dr. Montague had evaded the real issue, buckled up Mr. Davies' contention, so far as to urge that the people of Canada had as much right to know what was going on as the people of Newfoundland. He criticized Mr. Davies' persistence in this matter, but regretted it was not equal to the inertia of the government.
Mr. Foster in his reply carried the war into Africa in a manner that evoked cheer after cheer. He exposed the inconsistencies of the opposition on this and other questions, and taking up the issue itself, demonstrated that the

A NEW HAMBURG CITIZEN RELEASED FROM FOUR MONTHS' IMPRISONMENT.
Mr. John Koch, hotelkeeper, New Hamburg, Ont., has been a great sufferer from rheumatism. The last attack commenced last October, and kept him in the house for four months, when two bottles of South American Rheumatic Cure completely cured me. Had I secured the remedy when I first contracted rheumatism it would have saved me a great deal of pain and expense. If you suffer from rheumatism or neuralgia do not delay, but try South American Rheumatic Cure now. It will relieve in a few days and cure radically in a few weeks.

THE WORLD'S DEBT TO CONGRESSIONALISM.
THIS CHURCH GAVE TO THE WORLD A BECKER—HEAR ALSO WHAT THE REV. S. NICHOLLS, A PROMINENT TORONTO CONGRESSIONAL MINISTER, HAS TO SAY ON AN IMPORTANT SUBJECT.
Henry Ward Beecher believed man's religious war was colored largely by the condition of his health. He had said from the pulpit that no man could hold right views on religion when his stomach was out of order. It is quite certain that no preacher can preach with effect if his life is stuffed up with cold, or if he is a sufferer from catarrh. It is not surprising, therefore, that we find the leading clergymen of Canada speaking so highly of Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder, for colds in the head or catarrh. They know the necessity of relief to anyone else of being relieved of this trouble. Rev. S. Nicholls of Olivet Congregational Church, Toronto, is one who has used this medicine, and over his own signature has borne testimony to its beneficial character.
One short puff of the breath through the Blower, supplied with each bottle of Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder, diffuses this powder over the surface of the nasal passages. Painless and delightful to use, it relieves in ten minutes and permanently cures catarrh, hay fever, colds, head-ache, sore throat, tonsillitis and deafness. Sixty cents.

THE WORLD'S DEBT TO CONGRESSIONALISM.
THIS CHURCH GAVE TO THE WORLD A BECKER—HEAR ALSO WHAT THE REV. S. NICHOLLS, A PROMINENT TORONTO CONGRESSIONAL MINISTER, HAS TO SAY ON AN IMPORTANT SUBJECT.
Henry Ward Beecher believed man's religious war was colored largely by the condition of his health. He had said from the pulpit that no man could hold right views on religion when his stomach was out of order. It is quite certain that no preacher can preach with effect if his life is stuffed up with cold, or if he is a sufferer from catarrh. It is not surprising, therefore, that we find the leading clergymen of Canada speaking so highly of Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder, for colds in the head or catarrh. They know the necessity of relief to anyone else of being relieved of this trouble. Rev. S. Nicholls of Olivet Congregational Church, Toronto, is one who has used this medicine, and over his own signature has borne testimony to its beneficial character.
One short puff of the breath through the Blower, supplied with each bottle of Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder, diffuses this powder over the surface of the nasal passages. Painless and delightful to use, it relieves in ten minutes and permanently cures catarrh, hay fever, colds, head-ache, sore throat, tonsillitis and deafness. Sixty cents.
