THE ADVANCE'S NINE ADS.

Mr. Robinson is to be congratulated on coming fairly before the electors of Northumberland on this occasion, but it is not easy to understand why he should expect the Liberals who supported him in 1900 to do so now.—Chatham Advance.

Mr. Robinson has come fairly before the electors of the County of Northumberland on this occasion as on all other occasions. The Advance attempts to quibble about Mr. Robinson's attitude at the time of the last general election. But a quotation from the Advance of last week is sufficient in itself to refute charges against Mr. Robinson of unfaithfulness to the Conservative cause. Here is the extract:—"ON THE SATURDAY NIGHT IMMEDIATELY PRECEDING NOMINATION DAY MR. ROBINSON SIGNED A CARD AND HAD IT PRINTED AND POSTED IN PUBLIC PLACES BEFORE MORNING DECLARING HIMSELF A CONSERVATIVE OF THE MOST ULTRA STRIPE." Yes, Mr. Robinson has always allowed it to be clearly understood that he is a Conservative, that he is in sympathy with the ideals of McDonald, Tilley, Tupper and others of that brilliant group of statesmen who founded the Dominion of Canada and made it what it is today. But we take exception to the observation that he ever wished it to be understood that he was a Conservative of the "most ultra stripe." He is not an ultra partisan, never was, and probably never will be. It is such a man as this and not a dyed-in-the-wool partisan such as the editor of the Advance has always been that we look to to accomplish something worth while for his County and his Country. As for the difficulty in understanding why Mr. Robinson should expect the Liberals who supported him in 1900 to do so now—well—we must confess that after looking over those nine International Railway advertisements for tenders etc. in the last issue of the Chatham Advance, there is a difficulty in the way of one at least. As for the others—well—Mr. Morrissey's name suggests a reason for their artificial gyrations.

November 3rd is Canada's house-keeping day. We presume she needs one.

MR. ROBINSON'S CHANCES.

We wonder if Mr. Robinson's over-zealous critics ever took into consideration the fact that he is in reality an untried man although he has served two terms in parliament. It is surely a well known fact that the average man who seeks an opposition bench in the Canadian House of Commons can accomplish little or nothing for his constituency. The man who is virtually the representative of his County is the man at home who distributes the patronage. In short the average opposition member is a mere figure head. But we think we can state without fear of contradiction that Mr. Robinson has been an exception to the rule. Although occupying a seat on the opposition side of the House, he has by his moderation and courtesy won the favor of the various members of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's government and as a result his opinions on matters affecting the interests of his constituency have carried weight with the ministers as instanced in the Canada Eastern deal and the Chatham-Tracadie Telephone line project. Nevertheless Mr. Robinson is in reality an untried man and when the Conservative party of Canada is returned to power—and it is likely to be on November 3rd—we look forward to Mr. Robinson accomplishing wonders for the County of Northumberland.

Newcastle is highly favored these crisp autumn days. Our newsboys give us a fine variety of papers to choose from notably among which are one or two Boston products, three or four of St. John's output and the Moncton Times and the Moncton Transcript. The last two named have only lately arrived and we fear their stay will be short.

A CHANCE TO WIN OR LOSE.

It goes without saying that the supporters of Mr. John Morrissey are anxious for him to serve the interests of the County of Northumberland in the House of Commons. That he will be unable to do so at the opening of the next parliament is a foregone conclusion. The hopes of his followers as far as they concern the immediate future were hopelessly shattered on Nomination Day. But Mr. Morrissey is a young and energetic man. There will be other elections in the County of Northumberland. The strength of Mr. Morrissey's following will again be required. Will it show an increase over that of a few days ago? This is a question which his ardent workers can answer. If they demonstrate to the people of the County of Northumberland at this election that Morrissey is the strong man of the Liberal party, their hopes of obtaining the unanimous nomination for him at the next election bid fair to be realized. By supporting Mr. Loggie they will probably show that the preponderance of strength is in his (Loggie's) favor; by opposing Mr. Loggie they will undoubtedly prove that Mr. John Morrissey was entitled to the unanimous nomination of his party—that the only salvation for the Liberal party in the County of Northumberland lies in the selection of John Morrissey as the unanimous candidate.

The Hon. Frank Harris of Pennsylvania, in a letter to his home paper which is reproduced on another page of the Advocate speaks with a fine relish of his experience in New Brunswick words in search of big game. Come again mister!

A QUESTION OF THE DROP

The announcement of the resignation of the Hon. A. G. Blair from the Chairmanship of the Railway Commission was nothing short of startling. In the course of his remarks before the Commission, Mr. Blair stated that he had accepted the position with many misgivings. Perhaps Mr. Blair distrusted the sincerity of the Government in making the appointment and inclined to the belief that it was a means of purchasing his silence until after the elections and that he had not been slated permanently for the position. With the march of time,

It soothes the throat because it reduces the irritation; cures the cold because it drives out the inflammation; builds up the weakened tissues because it nourishes them back to their natural strength. That's how Scott's Emulsion deals with a sore throat, a cough, a cold, or bronchitis.

this feeling, if it existed, may have been intensified. Then, naturally the wisest course for Mr. Blair to take would be to resign. In his resignation before the Commission, instead of allowing the government to get the drop on him, Mr. Blair has chosen to get the drop on the government.

HATLESS GIRLS

Complaints of the condition of women's greatest glory are now heard and the chief culprits appear to be the "hatless crowd," the co-eds who pride themselves on not having worn a hat last summer. The accumulation of dust, the direct rays of the sun, the moisture caused by extreme exercise and a very hot season all combine to destroy the soft texture of the hair. Shampooing is powerless to arrest this degeneration with its inevitable falling out of the precious shevelure. On the other hand, the hatless claim that the all day millinery destroys the quantity and quality of their hair and as the aborigines went uncovered and never became bald, they shall do the same. All right girls, but then you must live on the same diet as the aborigines and abandon luxuries which are second nature to you.

PRESIDENT BELIEVES IN ADVERTISING

The magazine advertiser who adorns his prodigious ads. with photographs of himself as well as the "testimonial barker" have now every reason to regard themselves with pride. A likeness of President Roosevelt, surrounded by extravagant eulogies of his statesmanship from such eminent men as Secretary Hay appears in the advertising columns of many American periodicals. John W. Douglas, Democratic candidate for governor of Massachusetts, who advertises his shoes along with a likeness of himself is seemingly not the only politician who believes in advertising.

DOWN RIVER FOR ROBINSON.

Seven to one against us down river is the despondent report brought to the Conservative headquarters in Chatham by their returned missionaries.—Chatham Advance.

Quite the contrary, we assure you! Mr. Robinson's supporters are confident that his majority down river will be overwhelming. And this confidence comes to us in the wake of an observation of an independent that if Mr. Loggie failed to roll up a substantial majority down river he would lose his deposit.

PRINCIPALS POPULAR.

Miss Annie Osburn Nicholson and Mr. Thomas Alexander McLean were the contracting parties in a very pretty wedding here yesterday afternoon.

The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's brother Dr. Robert Nicholson, by the Rev. Henry Arnott. Only the immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties were present.

The bride was charmingly attired in a gown of white silk with overdress of lace was given away by her brother Dr. Nicholson. There were two daintily attired flower girls—the little Misses Dorothy and Nan Nicholson, nieces of the bride.

Little Misses Annie Corbett and Margaret Hubbard made very pretty ushers.

At the conclusion of the ceremony a delicious luncheon was served.

The principals took the north bound Ocean Express at 4.40 amid a shower of rice and best wishes from hosts of friends. They will visit Montreal and other western ports after which they will go to Charlottetown where they will reside.

The bride's travelling gown was of brown broadcloth.

Many beautiful presents were received from friends in Newcastle and from other parts of the province.

The bride is immensely popular in Newcastle. She has been prominent in both social and church circles.

The groom is a prominent contractor of Charlottetown and a leading citizen of the Island capital.

IS THIS TRUE?

"It requires but a few minutes to go to the pole and vote and that is the real work of the campaigning.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The optimistic candidate of the Liberal party in the County of Northumberland would scarcely shout 'amen' to the above observation.

Every New Brunswick newspaper of any account supports Mr. James Robinson.

CARD.*To the Electors of the County of Northumberland:

GENTLEMEN:

At a large and representative convention of the Liberal Conservative party for the County, held at Chatham on the 14th inst., I was unanimously nominated as the Candidate to contest this county in the interests of that party in this election.

As your representative at Ottawa for the past nine years I have been faithful to your interests, and in every way endeavored to promote the welfare of the County.

It will be impossible in the short time at my disposal to visit you all personally, and I take this opportunity of soliciting your votes and influence on polling day.

Yours faithfully,

CARD

To the electors of the county of Northumberland:

Gentlemen: At a regularly called convention of the Liberal Association of the County of Northumberland, I was chosen as the party candidate for the pending election. I appreciate the honor conferred upon me and in the hope that my candidature will unite the party, and be the means of once more placing Northumberland on the Liberal side in the Parliament.

Under the able leadership of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, with Hon. Henry R. Emmerson as Minister of Railways and Canals and our leader in New Brunswick, it has the strongest claims not only upon the people of this Province, but the Dominion at large. Its period of power, beginning in 1896, has been one of unprecedented commercial and industrial prosperity. Its record is one of treasury surpluses, and decrease of the public debt (last year there was a decrease of over one million dollars), while its expenditure for the upbuilding and development of the country has been more liberal than that under any former government; and the affairs have been honestly administered. The Liberal party will, in this election, be handsomely sustained all over Canada, and I am sure you must agree with me that it is time the grand old Liberal party of Northumberland should fall into line by electing a Liberal representative.

I therefore ask you to rally to my support and lay aside any personal consideration or differences, and forgetting the past mistakes which have tended to weaken Northumberland Liberals, let us again unite and fighting together we are sure of success.

I cannot in the short time between now and polling day meet and address you all as I would like to do; but I confidently ask for your influence in my favor on the 3rd November.

If I am elected as I confidently expect to be, you may rely on my services for the promotion of the best interests of the Dominion at large and of the Miramichi in particular.

I have the honor to be,

Your obedient servant,

W. S. LOGGIE.
