Nearly 200 seat checks from Cu-ters indicated that he had been infatu-ated with an actress, and had followed her from place to place in Cuba and in this country. He killed himself, it is be-lieved, because his money had given out and his lowe affair had lost its interest. Balsinde was 26 years old, and had been attending a school in Poughkeepsie. His landlady was awakened by a shot to-day, and running to his bedroom she found him lying on the floor with a bul-ver lying mearby. He died shortly after-wards in Bellevue Hospital. The clerk at the Hotel America, where the young man once lived, told the police his fainde Brothers, owners of exten-sive sugar plantations. Among the mem-oranda in the youth's room were notes aboving that his expresses from June 19 to July 4 had been $488. A letter, ap-that no more money would be sent to him unless he returned to his school in Poughkeepse.

The band proved a great drawing card and the people certainly enjoyed every minute on the boat. The day was beautiful, the air balmy, and the seenevery minute on the boat. summer resorts near Aylmer heard pro-longed cries for help coming across the water at Lake Deschenes, a wide stretch of water on the Ottawa River, about nine miles above the capital. No atten-tion was paid to them, however, as there have been so many fake alarms given this summer by alleged practical jokers in boats out on the lake. Final-ly about 2 o'clock this morning, as faint cries were still heard, some members of cries were still heard, some members of the Victoria Yacht Club put off to the cries were still heard, some memories of the Victoria Xacht Club put off to the rescue, and a steam launch went out from Echo Beach. Some distance out they found an overturned boat with two young men. L. Loyer and E. Guertin, of Aylmer, elinging to it, and just ready to let go from exhaustion. Two others, un-able to eling longer to the boat, had let go an hour or so before, and going down in the water had not reappeared. They were Dorothy Green, aged 18, and her sister, Jennie, aged 32, both domestics at the Hotel Victoria, Aylmer. The par-ty left Aylmer in the evening, and cross-ed to the Ontario shore. Returning about 11 o'clock, their boat began to leak rapidly, and, filling with water, capsized. Loyer, who is a good swim-mer, succeeded in temporarily rescuing both of the girls, and the whole four, shouting for help, clung to the boat for a couple of hours. The girls, them com-pletely exhausted, gave up the struggle.
