It is as meritorious to attempt sharing in a good man's bette as it is contemptible to have a design upon a rich man's money. A noble nature aims its attentions breast high; a mean mind levels its paltry saiduities at the pocket.

INTERPEDANCE IN GERMANT.—At one of the last meetings of the congress of pastors of the Protestant Church, held in Bremen, to discuss such moral and social questions as come within their sphere of activity. Mr. Wald, the upperintendent of Koningsburgh, stated that drunkenness was the greatest vice of the lower classes of Germany. There are annually, he says, throughout Germany, 40,000 deaths from delarisations as in the Zollverein stone, 300,000 guarts of brandy are sold and consumed ; and in Hesse one-half of the grain groduced is used for distil-ation. And yet, is a fact that intemps-rance prevails to a much less extent in Ger-many then in England and America. INTEMPERANCE IN GERMANY .--- At one of
