

WHAT CONSTITUTES A GENTLEMAN?

To THE EDITOR OF HASZARD'S GAZETTE

Sir,—My former communication having failed to elicit any remark, worthy of notice, I now take the liberty to forward you, for the special benefit of the worthies abroad, the recent decision of an eminent English lawyer on the above subject. I quote from a London Newspaper of the 7th September last:—

In the recent case of Wag v. Kelton, tried at the late Bristol Assizes, Mr. Justice Talford thus defined the character of a gentleman. The evidence proved that the defendant, while in the theatre, had said to the plaintiff "Do not speak to me; I am a gentleman."

AYER'S PILLS.

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC.

There has long existed a public demand for an effective purgative pill which could be relied on as safe and perfectly safe in its operation.

This has been prepared to meet that demand, and is a simple and safe medicine, which will be found to be a most valuable addition to the family medicine chest.

It is easy to make a physical pill, but not easy to make the best of pills—one which should have the effect of a cathartic, but not the effect of a purgative.

Every one who has taken this medicine will testify to its efficacy. It is a simple and safe medicine, which will be found to be a most valuable addition to the family medicine chest.

It is easy to make a physical pill, but not easy to make the best of pills—one which should have the effect of a cathartic, but not the effect of a purgative.

The Wonder of the World!

Devine's Compound PITCH LOZENGE.

THE Great Remedy is at last discovered, and COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, COSTIVENESS AND CONSUMPTION have lost their terror, and vanish as if by magic before this Sovereign remedy. Was it ever before known that, Lozenges of Consumption cured for less than 5s? Truly, if any individual is to be aided, and needs sympathy, it is the consumptive,—always expecting to get well, and yet the painful evidence of decay almost "makes the inner soul shrink with the outer flesh."

"Some bloom as roses bloom, And live as roses live, A single morning space"—by some impression and a slight cold neglected,—in the hectic breath, the painful cough.

"The priests of their parting spirit appear." All we ask is this one question:—If you have got meagre membranes, or any other members of the body that are "red as the lily,"—are you not interested in this great remedy, DEVINE'S COMPOUND PITCH LOZENGE.
